THE INSURGENTS.

The Spirit of Insurgency Growing—What It Means.

Charity and Children.

We are glad to see the spirit of insurgency growing among our people. The uprising in Congress at first met only sneers from the "Regulars" but it long ago changed those sneers into fright and afterward into despair. Speaker Cannon may abuse the Beveridge contingent all he pleases and claim that they are the autocrats of our public life and belong to the rule or ruin class, but the country knows better than that. It knows that these men at least grew tired of the domination of two or three men in our public affairs and that they determined that their tyranny should end; and with this righteous end in view they bonded themselves together and proceeded to overturn the Cannon dynasty. But the real cause of the uprising lay back of the insurgents. They began to get letters from home. The people gave their representatives some instructions. The voters took a hand in the business, and the average servant is quick to respond to the voice of their masters. Some few are still reluctant to obey, but they see now that they made the mistake of their lives, and it is too late for them to correct the mistake. They have discovered that the climate of Washington is not entirely suitable for their health, or that the pressing demands of their private business must have a little more attention, and so the places that now know them will soon know them no more. Aldrich has given up the gun. Hale has heard it thunder. Old man Cannon is about to kill himself in his struggle against the rising tide. But he cannot stay its onward progress. It is pathetic to see this man grown gray in sin, fighting for his life, when he should be enjoying the evening of his days in quiet and peace. There never was anything in Payne, and there is evidently not a great deal in his constituents. He probably suits them very well which shows how easy they can be satisfied. The insurgent spirit has a strong ally and sympathizer in Theodore Roosevelt. He belongs by nature to that element. He cannot be tied down by party tradition, and his neck was not made for a collar. The spirit has spread over the whole country. The slavish obedience to a set of self constituted bosses is getting to be a thing of the past. The man who boasts that he has never scratched a ticket finds that it no longer brings applause. It never was an honorable thing to be a slave, but it is less honorable now than ever. The insurgent is not the cause but the effect of the changed and the changing conditions. We welcome his coming. He has waited too long, but he is here now and here to stay.

H. P. ALLISON DEAD.

Well-Known Citizen of Kings Mountain Passes Suddenly.

Yorkville Enquirer, 5th.

News was received here this morning of the unexpected death of Mr. H. P. Allison, which occurred at his home at King's Mountain this morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Allison was over on a visit to his York county relatives last week, and went home feeling as if he were going to be sick; but without any idea of anything serious. The deceased was a son of the late Col. W. B. Allison and was 60 years of age on October 11, last. He has been living at Kings Mountain for about twenty-five years, was a justice of the peace for quite a time and until about two years ago, was in the newspaper business. His wife, who was Miss Katharine Dixon, of Kings Mountain, died about four years ago. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. B. M. Ormand and Mrs. H. N. Moss, of Kings Mountain, and the following brothers and sisters: J. F. Allison, Kings Mountain; R. R. Allison, Yirzah; J. O. Allison, Yorkville; Mrs. W. J. Farris, near Rock Hill; Mrs. J. B. Barron, Tirah, and Mrs. J. W. Dobson, Yorkville.

McNinch is All Things to All Men. Madison County Record.

Down in Mecklenburg Mr. McNinch says that he is as good a Democrat as Webb, in Gaston and Lincoln he is a business man, over in Madison and Mitchell he tries to be a Republican. Now why should anybody want to vote for a shifter like that. Its only an attempt to deceive the voters but she won't go in these diggins. Yates Webb is a Democrat alright, no question about that, he is a business man too, and a good one, he will attend to business for Republicans as well as Democrats as many of them know in this county, all you have to do is to call on him Mr. Webb should and we believe will get the best vote ever before in this county.

The Power of Heredity.

Monroe Enquirer. In his splendid charge to the grand jury last Monday morning, Judge W. R. Allen said among other good things, that no man can know how far reaching heredity is. None can tell to what an extent the parent leaves an impression on the child not only in its physical being, but in its moral nature as well. That is a true statement, but Judge Allen brought most interesting facts to support that statement, facts which made every man in the crowded court room stop and think. Judge Allen cited the case of Max Duke, a drunkard, and a common bum, a noted character for thriftlessness and intemperance. This Max Duke was born in 1720. Of his descendants 1,200 have been identified and of these, 310 were inmates of poor houses, 440 were viciously diseased, 50 were prostitutes, 7 were murderers and 60 were thieves. On the other hand there was Jonathan Edwards, the distinguished minister of the gospel, who was born in 1703. Of the descendants of Jonathan Edwards, 1,394 have been identified and of these 295 were college graduates, 65 were professors in colleges, over 100 were preachers, over 100 were lawyers, 60 doctors, 75 in the army and navy, 135 were authors, 18 were editors, 3 United States Senators and 15 were railroad presidents.

Important Word to Advertisers

We wish to remind advertisers that copy for change of advertisements in The Gazette must be in this office not later than 8 a. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays in order to be sure of insertion in the papers of those days. Otherwise we cannot insure insertion. When it comes in later than this it is impossible to give it the proper attention if it can be handled at all. Advertisers who get their copy in by noon on Mondays and Thursdays will secure better displays and more satisfactory service in every way as we will then have more time to devote to them. It is as much to the advertiser's interest as it is to ours to have a neat, well-displayed, correct advertisement and to this end we ask your cooperation by getting copy in early and giving us sufficient time in which to properly handle it. New business will, of course, be handled as well as possible and as late as possible before going to press. Penny column advertisements can be handled as late as 1 p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. These regulations are necessary because of the constantly increasing demand on The Gazette's advertising department. Mr. Advertiser: Help us to give you the best possible results by giving us plenty of time on your copy.
