Gloomy Prospect for Republicans. Washington Special to The Raleigh News and Observer. An air of gloom pervades Republican circles in Washington. Republicans who have an interest in the national success of their party freely express the opinion that the organization has not been in such a desperate condition since the gloomy period immediately preceding the renomination and defeat of President Harrison. Each day the situation takes on a gloomier aspect, from the Washington viewpoint. The Republican leaders now foresee a split in their party, and there is not one in ten of them but believe that Roosevelt will be a candidate for the Republican nomination in 1912. Whatever the outcome of the fight in New York may be, Republicans here expect that the rent in their party will become nation-wide and that even if Roosevelt's friends fail to prevail in the State convention over the organization, his friends in the West and Middle West will take up the fight for him and a situation will be created similar to that in 1892, when the Democrats nominated and elected Grover Cleveland. Such a situation would destroy all chances of Republican success in 1912.

Means Any Old Thing. Wilmington Star. A Republican in western North Carolina inquires: "What is meant by 'self-government' in the North Carolina Republican platform?" It means whatever you want it to mean, but this is the best way to define it: Jug, juggler, jugglery, Jugorum. Subscribe for The Gazette.

York and Yorkville.

Enquirer, 23rd. Mrs. R. D. Alexander and children of Yorkville, are visiting friends and relatives in Gastonia. Mr. W. E. Gettys, who lives near Tirzah has just threshed his wheat crop, the yield of a bushel and three pecks sowed on three acres. Not counting damage and other waste, he gets 53 bushels of good wheat. Little Bessie, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. Arthur Brown, who lives two and one-half miles south of Yorkville, was seriously injured last Sunday afternoon as the result of a fall from a pair of stilts, on which she was walking. She was sent to the Fennell infirmary at Rock Hill for treatment. There was a little shooting affair on the carnival grounds yesterday morning, the participants being two Yorkville negroes. Otis Ingraham got after Bob Jackson with a pistol. Jackson ran and Ingraham followed shooting, but without effect. After making his escape from Ingraham, Jackson went back to work and Ingraham kept going. He has not been arrested. Robt. T. Smith died at his home two miles north of Clover, Wednesday evening August 17, 1909, after an illness of six weeks following a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Smith was born in Yorkville in the old O'Leary house, April 6th, 1829. He made his home in Yorkville until the beginning of the war of Secession, when he moved his family near Clover, where he has resided since. He was placed on light duty at the Camp of Instruction at Columbia during the war, not being able to go to the front on account of an accident to one of his legs when a young man. He was married February 12, 1856, to Miss Jane A. Jackson who survives him. He is also survived by one son, J. Walter, and two daughters, Misses Alice and Nannie. He united himself in early life with the Independent Presbyterian church at Yorkville and was later elected elder of that church. After moving to the country he became a member of the Bethel Presbyterian church. When the Clover Presbyterian church was organized July 29, 1881, he moved his membership to that church and was elected a deacon which office he has held since that time, though not able for active duty for several years, yet he was faithful and loyal to his church. Though of a quiet and reserved disposition still his character was strong and upright, always being just and honorable in all his dealings with his fellow-men.

New Depots of Slow Growth. Charlotte Chronicle. It is well for the children of the present generation to begin moving for new depots. A post oak grows just about as fast as the promise of a railroad to build a new depot.

BAD DREAMS. Nightmare, Restlessness and Night-sweats all Caused by Indigestion. Half of the nervousness in the world, all of the disturbing dreams and nightmares can be ended in a few weeks by a simple, inexpensive treatment. Upset stomach is the cause of nervousness and bad dreams. Your food is lying in your stomach undigested and fermenting; it is forming poisonous gases which irritate the pneumogastric nerve that leads direct from the brain, and ends in a network of tiny branches running through the stomach. It is also the irritation of this great pneumogastric nerve that causes headaches. Many times people have severe headaches and know they are caused by the stomach, but do not know in what manner. If you are nervous, have dreams or nightmare, and do not sleep sound at night, get a 50 cent box of Mi-na stomach tablets and take one or two after or with meals. They relieve distressed stomach in 5 minutes. Sold by druggists everywhere and by J. H. Kennedy & Co. who guarantee them to cure indigestion or money back. 26-S9.

The Orion, Great Britain's newest and greatest battleship was launched and christened at Portsmouth, England, last Saturday. North Carolina will receive $46,946.85 as its allotment of the funds appropriated by the Federal government for the State troops. A New York dispatch says that Mayor Gaynor's physicians have decided not to try to remove the bullet from his neck, claiming that it will do no harm if left where it is. Vice-President J. S. Sherman is scheduled to deliver several speeches in North Carolina during the campaign. One of his dates is for Charlotte some time in October. The work of constructing a telegraph line across the desert in the vicinity of Wilcox, Ariz., has been suspended because of the presence of hordes of mosquitoes. Congressman Hitchcock, of Nebraska, has won the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate over Richard L. Metcalf. This is an anti-Bryan victory, Hitchcock leading the opposition to Bryan. A movement has been inaugurated to build a big modern hotel on sunset mountain at Asheville. E. W. Grove, a wealthy landowner, has agreed to furnish the site and to partly finance the project. Fifty thousand operatives have been thrown out of employment and many more will be within the next few days as the result of the curtailment of the products of cotton mills in the New England States. Gov. Kitchin has been notified that one Mexican has been sentenced to death and another to ten years' imprisonment for the murder of W. R. Boggs, a mining engineer, in Durango, Mexico, in November, 1907. Boggs was from Winston-Salem. The Democrat says a Watauga two-horse prairie schooner loaded with $1,500 worth of birch oil, made from distilling the birch bark, was sold in Hickory a few days ago. The oil is used in giving winter green flavor to candy. On Sunday another murder occurred in Anson county when Jesse Edwards shot and instantly killed his brother on the porch of their home. Jesse Edwards had been considered mentally unbalanced for some months, but was not considered dangerous. The Sparta Star says a Jersey cow belonging to Andy Rutherford, of Piney Creek township, Allegheny county, gave birth to three heifer calves recently and the calves are apparently thrifty. Twins are uncommon among cattle and triplets are more rare. At Murphy last week Dr. J. R. Deaver was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to seven years at hard labor in the State prison. In 1902 Deaver killed his brother-in-law, N. B. Taylor, and fled the State. Recently he was captured in Kansas and brought back for trial. The body of Charles T. Edwards, of Catawba county, was found Sunday morning swinging to a rafter in the garret of his home. He had been dead probably four days, his body having turned black. His wife and children had been on a week's visit to relatives at Newton. Ed Cox, who killed Reece Hicks at Huntersville about a year ago, was convicted in Mecklenburg Superior Court of manslaughter, with recommendation to mercy. The jury returned a verdict Sunday morning. Judge Long sentenced Cox to five years in the State prison. Saturday the fifth district Republican congressional convention, which was postponed till after the Republican State convention by order of Congressman Morehead, was held and Mr. D. H. Blair, of Winston-Salem, was nominated to oppose Major Stedman. Congressman Morehead declined to let his name be considered. Robert W. Lassiter, chairman of the board of commissioners of Granville county, Tuesday served notice on The Durham Herald that he would institute a libel suit against that paper because of an article published by it making charges against the board. The article, it is charged, was inspired by unsuccessful Democratic candidates and Republicans. The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Labor Commissioners of the United States and Canada in a joint session with the International Factory Inspectors Association, convened at Hendersonville Tuesday. Important Word to Advertisers

We wish to remind advertisers that copy for change of advertisements in The Gazette must be in this office not later than 8 a. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays in order to be sure of insertion in the papers of those days. Otherwise we cannot insure insertion. When it comes in later than this it is impossible to give it the proper attention if it can be handled at all. Advertisers who get their copy in by noon on Mondays and Thursdays will secure better displays and more satisfactory service in every way as we will then have more time to devote to them. It is as much to the advertiser's interest as it is to ours to have a neat, well-displayed, correct advertisement and to this end we ask your cooperation by getting copy in early and giving us sufficient time in which to properly handle it. New business will, of course, be handled as well as possible and as late as possible before going to press. Penny column advertisements can be handled as late as 1 p. m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. These regulations are necessary because of the constantly increasing demand on The Gazette's advertising department. Mr. Advertiser: Help us to give you the best possible results by giving us plenty of time on your copy.
