GOOD ADVICE FOR NEGROES.

Mr. Roosevelt Talks Sense to the Colored Folks.

New York Dispatch, 19th. Colonel Roosevelt, former President of the United States, speaking today before 1,100 delegates to the National Negro Business Men's League who cheered him and pledged him the support of the negro electorate for a possible third term, counseled his hearers to make the most of their opportunities.

"The white man of the South," said Mr. Roosevelt, is the vital man to have sympathy with the negro. When your neighbor likes and respects you, you have won your battle. The white man of the North does his worst work in interfering between the two peoples of the South and his best work when he improves their relations.

"I would not slur over the injustice with which good colored men are treated, but I feel that the really substantial way of conquering injustice is to train your people so that the white man will recognize in his colored neighbor, a desirable neighbor. Every down-at-the-heel, ramshackle negro cabin is not only bad for the people who live in it, but it is a reflection on the race.

"The man who lives a ne'er-do-well life of idleness is doing not only ill to himself but to his people. I believe in this league. As I wrote five years ago, when I was President, I believe in it because it is out of politics. You also stimulate among your people principles of business enterprises. That is well. You recognize that you should build a firm foundation before you can erect your superstructure.

"In Mombasa we were shown much courtesy by an American colored man who was serving there as a doctor. At a government experiment station, I found a Jamaican negro in charge. An abyss of nearly 10,000 years seemed to separate these two men from the naked savages I had seen—yet the abyss was not more than two hundred years. In your advance there have been haltings and shortcomings, shortcomings on the part of the whites as well as on your part. Nevertheless, there has been progress.

"It takes some time to make a reformer think that an outlook is not one of alloyed gloom. You sometimes see a reformer who thinks if he says a good word about anything he will be set down as a hopeless reactionary.

"You colored men and women must set your faces like flint against those who would preach to you only the gospel of hate, envy and bitterness. Realize that the only way to help your race is not by preaching vindictiveness and hatred, but by leading your people up to prosperity through good citizenship."

Theodore Gilbert, the five-year-old son of William Gilbert, living at the Wampus Mill, Lincolnton, was struck by lightning and instantly killed Friday afternoon. Six others were stunned by the bolt of lightning which killed the boy.

FOR SEPTEMBER.

Now softened suns a mellow lustre shed, The laden orchards glow with tempting red; On hazel boughs the clusters hang embrowned, And with the hunting horn the fields resound.

—Old September Poem. Well we should say so, and the mellow horn of Mr. Morgan will awake the morn, bidding us garner for the bins and cribs in which we labor for his royal nibs. The summer ended and the blower on, the respite over and the money gone, and Rockefeller as we drill along, bowing and hoping we are well and strong.

The seaside sojourner will quit the shore, and the summer girl will line up three or four conquests in puppy love she has around, and choose the one that is to go undrowned. The which selection from the litter born of summer madness she will then suborn with things sufficient to unlock its eyes, and hurry homeward with the gasping prize.

The busted tourist will return from France with hotel stickers stuck upon his pants, and tarred and postcarded by his friends, will reap the penalty of what he sends. They'll waltz him up and down upon a rail, and alternately they may best enjoy the views in Venice or the site of Troy.

The festive calf will blithely sniff and snort, and in the quiet even afterglow the quail will pipe his dulcet piccolo. The bold insurgent will insurge the more, and fill the planet with his dreiful roar, and each one betting he will not be last, the autumn candidates will gallop past.

The new progressive and the Democrat, the uninsurging that are standing pat, and in the midst of them, faint of heart, our Mr. Bryan on the water cart. A maze of issues, and a mass of men, and lo, a gallus busting now and then, and not especially alarmed by it the trusts desisting till the swarm has lit. The man from Elba trying to come back,

And the poor consumer in his cul-de-sac Unknowing if the quaking earth portends Death or the near approach, perhaps, of friends.

But howsoever and be as it may, the dread mosquito will have had its day, and joining Satan in its spectral growth, have made it real hell there for the both. The while the earthly remnant of it swings upon the window screen, and drying clings to that post which, though wanting moral fire, it still holds with its face against the wire. The sad first day of school will come to pass.

And the barefoot boy will hide out in the grass, And by the time we've caught these malcontents, The Crippen chase will look like thirty cents.

Milady Fashion in her hobble skirt will stride the pavement with the men alert to set her right side up again in case she should in time turn turtle any place. It does beat thunder what the women wear, and how they stick on other people's hair, constrict their middles and constrain their toes and what importance they attach to clothes. But bless us, are they after all to blame, or had they been in these things quite the same if Mother Eve's first thought, as we suppose, had not been necessarily of clothes? Was it to be expected in her case that with a man somewhere upon the place she ever thought of anything at all but gowns, slipovers, or perhaps a shawl? But anyhow, the crawfish will have holed,

And the pumpkin shown the faintest trace of gold, The sassafras will don a redder dress, And the gods will crowd around the cider press

Or prohibition or whatever will, here is a fountain that shall serve us still, a place of resting and a steal away out of the desert and the heat of day. A place of quiet and the shade of palms, of irrigation and the soothing balms that no reformer till the poles embrace shall ever capture for a bathing place.

The hosts of labor will parade the street, which will remind us of a happy feat in arbitration from the olden days when Julius Caesar was a sort of craze. It is related of that ancient time that sweet September in the Roman clime was not as blazing, and the union file could not only march about a half a mile. It wasn't anything at all, they say, to watch the mighty pageant get away, the music playing and the flags displayed, and see it suddenly duck for the shade. The gasping drummer with his sounding drum, the bronzed mechanics who perhaps had come a dozen squares, and in the frantic rout, age and apprentice with its tongue stuck out.

The faint impression the procession made on Roman capital for long dimmed the union leaders, when the serried ranks at times not even passed the Roman banks. And so it was when mighty Caesar came, and having found the populace aflame, he shoved September from the seventh place along to ninth, which has remained the case. He merely interchanged it with July, but when he asked them how was that for high, they fairly inundated him with smiles, and have since been doing about twenty miles.

The autumn equinox will come around, And Roosevelt, by that time eastward bound, Will aid it in the making of such storms As they may find necessary to a few reforms.

And then the sun will turn still softer yet, And the bold October, having duly set His planes, and carefully put on his brake, Will see what sort of landing he can make.

The Democratic campaign in the State will be opened at Statesville Saturday, September 3rd, by ex-Governor Aycock. State Chairman A. H. Eller has opened headquarters and is now preparing the Democratic handbook which will be ready for distribution within the next ten days or two weeks.

What a Woman Cannot Do. Youngstown Telegram. Resist a Friday bargain sale. Dislike any man with an automobile. Like a woman more attractive than herself. Pose as a saint when she has temper plus. Forget an engagement with a man she loves. Learn how to throw in the direction she intends. Keep her curiosity from running away with her. Smoke cigarettes and call herself a "perfect lady." Be calm when a man keeps her waiting five minutes. Resist the dictates of fashion no matter how expensive. Make love to another woman's husband and call it platonic friendship. Ask a man to marry her no matter how sure she is of his love.

A GOOD WAY TO USE HYOMEL. Besides breathing through the inhaler a few times a day, many catarrh sufferers write that they find inhaling Hyomel from a bowl of steaming water each night before retiring a great aid in curing stubborn cases. Try it; it's very simple; gives quick relief and makes you breathe easier.

Fill a bowl half full of boiling water; pour into the water a half teaspoonful of Hyomel, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe through nose and mouth the medicated antiseptic and healing vapor that arises.

This method relieves that stuffiness at once and makes your head feel clear. You can get a bottle of Hyomel at druggists everywhere, or at J. H. Kennedy & Co.'s for only 50 cents. Ask for extra bottle Hyomel Inhaler.

But bear in mind if you want a Hyomel inhaler you must buy a complete outfit which only costs $1.00. But as stated before; if you already own an inhaler a bottle of Hyomel costs but 50 cents. Hyomel is guaranteed by druggists everywhere and by J. H. Kennedy & Co. to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, rose fever, asthma and croup, or money back. Try it on that generous basis.
