The Chester (S. C.) Lantern announces that it has bought additional equipment and will soon enlarge to an eight-page paper. Editor Caldwell is giving his subscribers a clean, newsy paper. Here's wishing him a continuance of the success which has made it possible for him to make these improvements.

With the biggest crop of corn, wheat and oats ever raised in the county's history and with a pretty good cotton crop (which will bring around 15 cents if not more) Gaston county farmers are better fixed than at any time since Gaston was a county. We should all rejoice and be glad that we live in a section which yields such beautiful harvests.

McNinch now has some company.
Mr. Iredell Meares, whom the sixth district Republicans have nominated for congress, is also an ex-Democrat, so they tell us. And they do say, also, that he quit the Democratic party because he couldn't land a job.
Notwithstanding the little row among sixth district Democrats over their candidate, Mr. Meares will, we believe, be right along with Mr.
McNinch in November when the ninth district Democrats "return" the latter to his business office in Charlotte. This is a Democratic year when it comes to electing Congressmen.

Postmaster General Hitchcock draws his salary all the time from Uncle Sam and has plenty of official duties to keep him busy. But he is out in the West campaigning for the Republicans. District Attorney A.
E. Holton also draws his salary from Uncle Sam and ought to be attending to his official duties. But he's not. He's also galavanting around trying to help save the old sinking ship. He is scheduled to speak in Gastonia tomorrow week along with Mary Ann Butler. Just one more evidence of Republican misrule. As long as the G. O. P. holds the reins it will continue so.
When the whole army of government employes takes the field in defense of the administration it's strong evidence that, like a drowning man, they're grabbing at straws.

The Gazette notes with pleasure that Editor Eury of The Herald, published in our neighboring town of Kings Mountain, has decided to discard the credit system as regards his subscription business. In this week's issue he announces that on October 15th he will "chop off" every name on The Herald's subscription list that is not marked up in advance, and that after that date only those who come across with the cold cash will be numbered among the paper's subscribers. No variation whatever will be made from this rule, it is stated. The Gazette was the first newspaper in this section to adopt the cash system and stick to it. We did this a year ago this coming November and have never had occasion yet to regret our action. The cash system is the only system on which to successfully conduct a weekly or semi-weekly newspaper and sooner or later all who are in the business must realize this fact and quit extending credit.

There will be an old-time singing at Pisgah church next Tuesday night. The public is invited.

Gastonia Read These Items Twice A Week—They're Money-Savers for You.

—When you want Nunnally's fine candies fresh you'll find them at Kennedy's white front drug store.

—Manager Small has something to say about the Song of the Singer.
Hear him.

—Poole's new grocery has a list of tempting things for the table.
See their adv. and it will make your mouth water. Phone 107.

—Coffey is headquarters for wagon and buggy repairs, rubber tires, horse shoeing, painting, etc. They do it neatly and cheaply.

—Miss Lillian Atkins will resume her piano and violin classes September 15th, 323 East Franklin avenue.
She will add this year a student's orchestra.

—The Swan-Slater Co. wants to fit out that boy who's going off to school. Their fall line of clothing and gents furnishing goods is now complete. See adv.

—Don't trifle with your eye-sight, it's one of your priceless possessions.
You can consult the Torrence-Morris Company, opticians and jewelers, without cost.

—Mr. Charles E. Lineberger gives notice that he has qualified as administrator of the estate of the late William S. Lineberger, of Gaston county.

—The Lumina moving picture theatre, W. H. Dellinger proprietor, will be open all day Monday and will have a most comfortable place; electric fans, ice water. Splendid reels tonight and tomorrow.

—Dr. T. C. Quicquel, formerly of Lincolnton, has located in Gastonia and has offices 213 and 214 in the Realty building. His practice is limited to diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat.

—The buyer for the J. M. Belk Co. is just back from the Northern markets where he bought fall and winter goods. In their adv. today some of these are listed. Look it up and read.

—You can put Cortright metal shingles on an old roof, right over wooden shingles, and make your roof fire-proof. That's what Long Brothers, the local agents, say in their adv. today.

—On account of the Catawba County Street Fair November 2, 3 and 4 the C. & N.-W. Railway will sell tickets at reduced rates, about which they tell you in another column.

—If you are an heir of Robert Potter, who is said to have left this section more than fifty years ago, Attorney W. H. Lewis has something that will interest you. It is something about a million-dollar estate. See adv.

—Persons interested in real estate at Bessemer City (which town by the way, has just taken on new life) will be interested in the adv.
in this issue of C. A. Kiser, mortgagee. He will sell several lots on October 3rd at public auction.

—Notice is given elsewhere in this issue of the meeting of the Gastonia Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, which is to be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. D. A. Garrison on Dallas street.

—Now that Gastonia has a new cemetery and many people are buying lots, some of our readers are doubtless thinking of buying a nice monument. If so see Chas Ford, who is Gastonia agent for the Queen City Granite & Marble Works, of Charlotte.

—We don't know what's up in the clouds, besides rain (looks like there's not much left up there now since the recent downpours) and the Gastonia Furniture Company does not know either but they do know they have some jim-dandy furniture and they tell you about it elsewhere.

Come to Gastonia next Monday.

We want to sell you your next Stove or Range. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back, Gastonia Furniture Company.

A special from Richmond, Va., to yesterday's Charlotte Observer says that M. L. Peaden, aged 30, a farmer of Pitt county, this State, is threatened with entire ossification of limbs and body. He is in the Retreat for the Sick in that city.
Physicians who have examined him are puzzled. Some of them believe that his affliction is due to a case of hookworm for which he was treated some months ago.

Big shipment of 9x12, 6x9, 36x72 and 27x54 Axminster Velvets and Wilton Rugs just in at Gastonia Furniture Company.

Come to Gastonia next Monday.

Anson Farmers Endorse Torrens System.

Last Saturday the Union farmers of Anson county held a big picnic at Brown Creek. The Ansonian, in reporting the event, says among other things:

"One of the most important matters before the Union and the non-Union men present, was the following resolution, discussed and adopted:

"We, the members of the Farmers' Union and citizens of Anson county, in mass meeting assembled, believing the Torrens System of registering titles to be the simplest and best method, do request our representative to use every legitimate means to enforce the use of the Torrens System of registering land titles."

A dispatch from Durham under date of the 29th says that General Julian S. Carr, commander of the United Confederate Veterans of North Carolina has chartered at his own expense a special train to carry North Carolina veterans to the reunion at Norfolk, Va., this month.
