—Miss Ola Huffstetler was operated on at the City Hospital for appendicitis last week and is recovering nicely from the effects. Her brother, Mr. Foster Huffstetler, who was detained on account of her illness, returned Monday to Westminister School, Rutherford county. He was accompanied by Mr. Ross Jackson, of Clover, S. C.

—Following the cool spell of last week the weather is now ideal for fall. Cotton is opening very rapidly and is being picked hastily. The farmers are as busy as bees. The cotton patches are full of negroes and the man who goes out to look for a darkie to do an hour's work will likely search in vain. Many of the housewives are also having to do their own cooking—cook's gone to the cotton field where she can make twice as much as in the kitchen.

Don't fail to visit Wolcott's Model Shows this week, beginning Monday, September 19th. See Dolleta, the smallest mother on earth, 27 inches high and has a baby three years old with her. You will see her every day at the show grounds.

His Mistake. Edward—What do you think I carry in my watch case, darling? It is always the stamp of your last letter. Your lips have touched it, and mine often kiss the place where yours have been. Angelina—Oh, Edward! I'm awfully sorry, but I always use Fido's damp nose.—Illustrated Bits.

His Birthday Present. Fair Customer—I want a birthday present for my husband. Dealer—Yes, mum. How would this old clock suit you? Fair Customer—Let me see. I've got a corner in my boudoir that will just do for it! And I've been wanting an old clock for a long time. Yes, that will do!"

To Be Noble. Most of our unhappiness comes about because there is in us a scrap of the infinite that is not satisfied with finite things. There is a longing in the human heart to unfold into a better life. To do and to be noble is the deepest desire of every heart.—Dr. Henry van Dyke.

GASTON LOAN & TRUST CO.

The Wolcott's Model Shows pitched their tents Monday in the city of Gastonia and stay for one solid week. One of the feature attractions is the big Hippodrome, the only one of its kind under canvas traveling the road. The following actors will take part in the hippodrome: E. Kirk Adams & Co., the world's greatest knife throwing act; the two Pyros, comedy acrobatic barrel jumpers; Prof. Martin, the American Jap juggler, Bobby Zenoro, contortionist; the two Mitchells on the revolving breakaway ladder act. The Hippodrome is equal to any seen with the big shows. One performance each and every night. The only thing small about the Hippodrome is the price and the seats are free to everybody.
