Personals and Locals.

Lee Morrow, of Hamlet.
 —Miss Zeldia Long has as her guest for a few days Miss Robbie —Miss Eunice Robinson leaves Tuesday for Concord to enter the Laura Sunderland School.

—Mrs. Dr. Marshall Neill, of Clover, S. C., was the guest yesterday of Mrs. J. Lean Adams.

—Rev. Edward Long, of Marion, was a business visitor in Gastonia yesterday.

—Miss Nena Rhyne left last Thursday for High Point where she has a position as teacher in the city schools.

—Mr. E. D. Atkins returned today from Monroe where he attended the district meeting of Odd Fellows in session Wednesday and Thursday.

—John Robinson's circus is in Charlotte today and a number of Gastonians went over to take it in. The show is exhibiting this year under the auspices of the Shriners.

—Mr. V. E. Long and daughters, Misses Bertha and Zeldia Long, of Gastonia, and Miss Etha McPhail, of Mount Olive, returned yesterday from a delightful ten-days trip to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

—Coburn's Minstrel will be at the opera house Monday night, opening the theatrical season here. This aggregation has been here every season for a number of years and invariably plays to a good house.

—Miss Emma Bell arrived Tuesday from Richmond, Va., to accept a position as milliner for Lebovitz department store. She is an expert milliner and has recently spent some time in the millinery markets familiarizing herself with the latest styles.

—Mr. A. K. Loftin and sons leave this week for Altavista, Va., to build a cotton mill and tenant houses. Mrs. Loftin will visit her parents in this county and friends in Gaston, before she joins them at Altavista.—Lincoln County Times, 20th.

—Forty-nine acres of land, a part of the Jacob Rhyne place lying on the west side of the York road, two miles south of Gastonia, was sold this week to Mr. W. T. Rankin and brought a good price. This is said to be one of the best pieces of timbered land anywhere near Gastonia.

—Mr. W. B. Hunter left Wednesday night for Philadelphia to resume his studies in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. This is Mr. Hunter's last year, he having already spent two years in the medical department of the University of North Carolina and one at Philadelphia.

—"Look who's here next Monday night." Coburn's Minstrels at the opera house. Ed C. Hayes, Hi Tom Ward, Billy Blackwell, Spike Duross, Allen Settle, Hal Orwin, as the laugh getters. Can you beat them? It's a great show "Cobe" has got together this season. Don't miss it.

—Cotton is coming in rapidly. Yesterday the Southern Cotton Oil Company's gins here turned out 32 bales. They are expecting 40 today. The weather is ideal for cotton-picking and the farmers are adhering to the old adage, "make hay while the sun shines"—except it's cotton instead of hay.
