HAS FINE OPENING.

North Carolina Medical College Opens With Largest Attendance in Its History Despite Fight Made on it By Carnegie's "College Trust" and Forsyth Society.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Sept. 22. —
The North Carolina Medical College, the formal opening of which took place a few days ago, has begun what promises to be the most satisfactory year's work in its long and useful history. In the face of the bitter and unjust criticism at the hands of the Forsyth County Medical Society and of the Carnegie Foundation, which to all appearances is a sort of "college trust," the college opened with the largest attendance in its history and the attendance of friends at its opening exercises was larger than ever before. The total enrollment last year was 110. This year it is believed that it will reach 120 or possibly 125, the attendance during the opening days being considerably in excess of the attendance during the same period last year.

A survey of the situation at present indicates clearly that the attacks upon this honored and useful institution will result in decidedly more good than harm. The attacks have served to rally the students, the alumni and the friends of the college and of education in the State to its support and now it presents a defiant, confident front while it pursues the even tenor of its way, fitting young men to heal the sick and care for the health of the State.

The American Medical Compend ridicules the arraignment by the Carnegie Foundation, which embraced a large majority of the medical colleges of the country, "as a piece of monumental impudence it certainly stands without a peer."

CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby wish to express our gratitude and thanks to the people of the neighborhood of Costner for their respect, kindness and assistance to us during the illness and at the death of our little infant daughter, Evelyn Mea, who died September 18, 1910.

Court Adjourns.

Gaston County Superior Court, which has been engaged the past week in the trial of civil causes, adjourned yesterday and Judge B. F. Long and the visiting attorneys left for their respective homes. A number of cases were disposed of at this term. In the case of Altman vs.
Western Union Telegraph Co., for damages in the sum of $2,000, the jury, after being out nearly forty-eight hours, returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $500.
This case has been on the docket some time and was a hard fought one. Altman was represented by Mr. G. W. Wilson, of Gastonia, while the defendant company was represented by Mr. C. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, and Mr. O. F. Mason, of Dallas.

Dr. S. W. Fain Dead.

Relatives here have heard with regret of the death at his home in Dandridge, Tenn., last Saturday night of Dr. S. W. Fain. His wife, who survives together with five children, was Miss Mary Clark, a native of York county, South Carolina. Dr. Fain had been ill for a long time and had sought health at many places but with no success. He was in Gastonia last year when he accompanied the body of Mrs. Fain's mother, Mrs. Mary J. Clarke, from Dandridge to Yorkville for burial. He was also here a few months later on business and had numerous friends here and in York county to whom the news of his death will bring sorrow. Deceased was 41 years of age and was a physician of ability.
His widow is a cousin of Mr. W. Y. Warren and of Miss Cora Clarke, of Gastonia.

Wants to Know What Kind of Taste Gastonia Have.

Greensboro Record.
What is the population of Gastonia? It is averred that $1,000 a month is spent in that town for near-beer. What kind of taste have the residents up there? What is more, what kind of taste have they to devour the stuff?
