capita, which means a tax of only one-fourth of a cent on every one hundred dollars worth of the State's property. Our appropriation to the State Sanatorium for the Treatment of Tuberculosis is so small that it is necessary for the few who enter to pay a dollar a day for treatment. The appeal of this woman is only one of many such appeals; she simply represents a class. It is hoped that the State press will bring this vital matter to the attention of those whom it concerns. It is really every man's business whose heart is warmed with a real sympathy for suffering, helpless humanity.

What will you have your State do? If it is your duty to help save these lives, tell your representative in the next Legislature to assist in making adequate provision for the public health.

—Mr. Ed Killian, of Atlanta, spent Wednesday and Thursday here with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. L. C. Killian. He came to attend the Killian-Winget wedding. Ed is another old Gastonia boy who is making good away from home. He is proof-reader on The Georgian, a position which he has held for the past year or two. He is also an expert linotype operator. His many friends here were pleased to see him again.

Fancy and plain articles of various descriptions will be found on sale at reasonable prices in the fancy work booth during the Floral Fair.

May we suggest that you call us up and make an appointment for a sitting? Phone 147. Green's studio.

The little ones feel at home in my studio. The hundreds I have photographed prove this. Nice weather permitting, bring them. Best work. Newest styles. At Green's.

—One of the best posted and most prominent cotton manufacturers of this section told the reporter this morning that for the past two or three days cotton had brought a higher price on the Gastonia market than at Charlotte, McAdenville or any other market in this section. The local market closed yesterday at 14.75 and opened at the same figure this morning.

If you want a nice residence on the proposed street car line see W. B. Biggers, 617 East Franklin.
