Hon. McNinch Loves the Southern Laboring Man.

Every Republican who gets on the stump harps on the supposed protection that labor gets in the Robber Tariff-Trust-Big Interest scheme of government which that party administers. But labor gets no protection because they bring foreign labor in to compete with home laborers. Read of the mine disasters all over the country that occur weekly, and you notice that scores of Poles, Italians, Scandinavians or other low-grade foreigners were killed by the score. Those cheap foreigners were brought there by the tariff barons because they were cheaper and more easily managed by the owners. If the Republican party really wanted to protect the laboring classes they would not allow cheap foreign labor to come into the country and compete with Americans.

Here is McNinch, the man who is running for Congress on the Republican ticket in the Ninth district—on the stump he is forever talking—talking—talking—of protecting American workmen, while, when he had the chance of doing something, like all lip-protectors of labor, what did he do? Here is the story from The Charlotte Observer, and Mr. McNinch was mighty proud of it till he began running for Congress:

"Thirteen foreigners, en route from New York to Fort Mill, S. C., spent several hours in the city yesterday. In the party were four Poles, three Germans, three Scandinavians and four Hungarians. They came direct from New York over the Seaboard and left last night over the Southern for the works of the Charlotte Brick Company, located on the Catawba river, several miles from Fort Mill. This is the first installment of immigrants received by local manufacturing enterprises. Should these men, all of whom are young, strong and robust, work well, Mayor S. S. McNinch will secure others, a number sufficient to run his entire plant.

"This first installment of immigrants is more in the nature of an experiment than anything else. If the men work well, he will order others. The fact that these men are strangers will add to their worth, for they will have no occasion to be running about at night. Mayor McNinch believes that his experiment will work well. The men were secured through one of the immigra-

Men Be Sensible, Don't Let It Grow
More Conspicuous.

If you are beginning to worry about that spot right on the top of your head, where the hair is thin or has disappeared entirely;

Don't worry any longer.
Go to J. H. Kennedy & Co's. at once and get a 50 cent bottle of Parisian Sage.

If that won't check the falling hair, and cause new hair to grow; nothing on this earth will.

Dandruff causes hair to fall and baldness; dandruff germs cause dandruff.

Parisian Sage kills the germs; eradicates dandruff; stops falling hair and itching scalp, or money back at J. H. Kennedy & Co's.

It will cause the hair to grow, if the hair root be not dead.

It causes the hair to grow thicker, more luxuriant, and puts so much new life into it that it grows lustrous and beautiful.

The experiment with his foreign laborers, brought from New York to take the place of home laborers, because of the saving to himself, even after advancing $10 a head for railroad fares, was so satisfactory that Mr. McNinch's next efforts were directed towards holding those already corralled and attracting others to his colonies.

Mr. Webb at Lowell.

A large crowd was out last night to hear Congressman E. Y. Webb who spoke at Lowell. The speaking took place in a section of the Lowell Cotton Mill's new building which has not been equipped with machinery. The audience included a large number of cotton mill operatives who were most favorably impressed with Mr. Webb's address. He gave them sound Democratic gospel and told his hearers of the iniquitous tariff legislation which the Republican party has given the people of this country in defiance of their platform pledges of the last campaign. Mr. Webb made votes for himself and for the Democratic candidates in general. He was accorded a splendid reception by the Lowell people. Mr. Webb will address the voters at Dallas tonight. He is spending the day in Gastonia and is being greeted heartily by his hundreds of friends here.
