In a speech at Maryville, Ohio Saturday Senator Joseph B. Foraker, a "stand-pat" Republican, denounced Mr. Roosevelt's "new nationalism" as treason and proceeded to deliver his mind as to the ex-President. So are the Republicans divided among themselves—and it spells Democratic success in the next presidential election two years hence.

October 29th has been set aside by the State Democratic executive committee as "young men's day in North Carolina," this being in response to the wide interest created by the open letter of ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis issued last week and which was a clarion call from this venerable and able man, "the grand old man of North Carolina" as he is lovingly called, to the young men of the State to join the ranks of the Democracy, the party which saved the State from disgraceful condition into which Republicanism had plunged it and which has placed this commonwealth in the forefront of Southern States. The Gazette published this letter in its issue of last Friday and hopes that it was widely read by the young men of Gaston.
Let the young men of Gaston county who have the best interests of their native State at heart and who want to see her continue to grow and prosper, join hands with the Democratic party. They will never have cause to regret such action.

The most disgusting spectacle afforded the American people today is that which is presented by Theodore Roosevelt, the self-appointed leader of the Republican party who goes about the country, as a private citizen, bragging about what he'll do for the trusts when he stands convicted on his own record of not only failing to lift his own hand to stay the outrages perpetrated by the sugar trust and other rapacious combines when the opportunity presented itself but who actually used for campaign funds money from the pockets of Harriman and other trust magnates.
He is the most blatant demagogue and the most egotistical politician running loose on the American continent today. And yet the Hon. I.
M. Meekins, a Republican of standing in this State, addressing a Gastonia audience last Friday night said that "Theodore Roosevelt is the most matchless man on God's earth today." This demagogue, run mad with egotism, is after the Republican nomination for president. We hope he'll get it for we do not believe he could possibly defeat a Democrat of the type of Harmon or Gaynor.

Shops Not for Newton.

Catawba County News.
Nothing doing in railroad shops.
President Felmster of the Booster's Club, who wisely wrote direct to Superintendent Nichols, learns from that official that Newton isn't in it for various and sundry reasons. It was a false alarm. The next thing is something else. However, if we loyally support what we got we will be doing good business.

do work that will admit of any critiit has got to pass our inspection before it is submitted to yours. Its Good works will do more than
