Tippling in Texas.

The anti-tippling movement, which, starting in the east, has rapidly spread over the country, has reached Texas. A charter has been taken out at Austin for the National Anti-Tippling Society. The constitution and bylaws of the society prohibit the giving of tips for any service, even on Pullman cars.

"The tippling custom has grown to be a burdensome tax on the traveling public," said A. P. Foute. "It costs all the way from 50 cents or 75 cents a day in the towns and small cities to $2.50 and $3 a day at the hotels in New York and other large cities. In order to get attention you have to tip everybody.

"You have to tip the elevator man. If you wish anything brought to your room the bellboy must be compensated. When you go into the wash-room a boy hands you a towel and begins to get industrious with his brush and whiskbroom, and as you get ready to leave he holds out his hand.

"The head waiters in the hotels get half the tips the waiters collect, and some of them in New York are worth as much as $200,000. It is folly for the individual to protest, for he gets the name of being a stingy crank.

"So the traveling salesman and the traveling public generally have started an organized movement against the evil. If the movement should succeed, the hotels will have to pay their own help, and the porters on sleeping cars will have to be put on the payroll of the Pullman company.

"Tippling is of European origin, but the traveler over there is out only a few pennies a day, and he does not miss the money. When the people of the United States adopted the system they ran the thing into the ground by chucking out quarters, 50-cent pieces and silver dollars, prompted to do so, no doubt by a desire to create the impression that they had more money than they knew what to do with."

The regular criminal term of Union Superior Court began today. There are three murder cases on the docket, one of them being the State against three brothers, Gus, Will and Winfred Belk, for the murder of Ben Hunter, August 8th. This case is of considerable interest because of the prominence of the defendants.

Jenkins-Jenkins.

A quiet home wedding was celebrated on Tuesday, October 25th, at the home of Rev. J. C. Harmon, pastor of the West End Methodist church, when Miss Cora Jenkins, daughter of Mr. J. G. Jenkins, became the bride of Mr. Richard Jenkins. The bride and groom went to their respective homes after the ceremony and attempted to keep the marriage a secret. It leaked out however, as secrets usually do. They will make their home with the groom's father, Mr. Christie Jenkins, near White & Jenkins' mill.
