NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND UNDER MORTGAGE.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed from Miles W. Hanna and wife to J. L. Parrish, dated the 27th day of February, 1908, and recorded in M. D. Book 68, Page 180, which mortgage was assigned by J. L. Parrish to J. W. Culp and by J. W. Culp to me, I will sell the following described real estate at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Dallas, on Monday, December 5th, 1910, at 12 o'clock M.:

Adjoining the lands of S. N. Boyce, M. L. Mauney and others, beginning at a stone in Boyce's and Mauney's line, (said stone being 185 feet in the direction of North 84 2-3 East from said M. L. Mauney's corner on the east side of the old road) and runs from the said corner with Boyce's line North 84 2-3 East 87 1-2 feet to a stone on Boyce's line; thence North 8 1-2 West 250 feet to a stone; thence South 84 2-3 West 87 1-2 feet to a stone; thence South 1-2 East 250 feet to the beginning, containing one-half (1-2) acre more or less, and being the lot purchased by J. L. Parrish from J. P. Reid, by deed recorded in Book 67 of Deeds of Gaston county, Page 107.

This 29th day of Oct. 1910.

Mrs. Reed Worked Against Grant.

Asheville Citizen. One of the features of the voting Tuesday was the energetic work in behalf of the Democratic ticket by Mrs. Fannie J. Reed, at Biltmore. The deposed postmistress of that town, whom Grant found it necessary to file affidavits against, personally went to the polls, as the story goes and worked all day against Grant and the result was one of the wonders of the election. From carrying the precinct two years ago, Grant lost it this year by 96, Mr. Gudger leading the ticket.

The best time to be photographed like the best time to repent, is now, because one may never again have the opportunity. Better see Green.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Moore, of Lexington, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Walton, of Raphine, Va., who came to Charlotte to attend Synod last week, spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in Gastonia as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kennedy and Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Galloway.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Rufus Pinkney Rankin. Whereas it has pleased the Lord of the universe to remove, by death, our brother and co-laborer, Rufus Pinkney Rankin, therefore be it resolved by his fellow-stewards of Main Street M. E. Church South:

First, That in his death we have suffered the loss of one whose pleasure it has ever been to discharge with courage, fidelity and with signal loyalty to the trust involved, all duties officially imposed.

Second, That we shall long cherish this memory of him as of one who loved his church, supported her institutions and attended upon her ordinances—as of one who was ever zealous of her noble works.

Third, That we extend to the sorrowing wife, and the grief touched children expression of tenderest sympathy in their sad reflection hour, and points them to the poet's noble prayer:

"Forgive my grief for one removed, Thy creature whom I found so fair;

I trust he lives in Thee and there I find him worthier to be loved."

Fourth, That we send to the grief stricken widow a copy of these resolutions, furnish copies for publication in our local paper, publish in The Gastonia Methodist, and record in the minutes of the board of stewards.

It contains, in addition to the rules and regulations of the association a full list of the prizes offered for the various kinds of fowls to be exhibited. This is the fifth annual exhibition.

Small Wreck at Kings Mountain.

The Herald, 10th. Several cars on freight train No. 72, northbound, were demolished at the station here early Sunday morning. The cause of the wreck is unknown, but has been attributed to nearly every one connected with the company at this place. One car, loaded with fire-proof brick, and one loaded with cotton seed, were smashed into splinters and several were thrown from the trucks, tearing up the track on the main line and the side tracks. The platform of the freight depot was thrown down. A derrick and wrecking crew from Spencer were on the scene in a few hours and by Sunday night traffic was resumed. No one was injured.

You want good pictures, of course, and of course we want to make them. Let's get together on this proposition. Green's Studio.

A Merited Tribute.

Richmond Times-Dispatch. One of the most gratifying results of the congressional election in North Carolina on Tuesday was the election of Major Charles M. Stedman to Congress. This result is spoken of by those who appreciated him as "a long deferred reward," and we rejoice that it has come to him when he is in the very pink of condition and when he can be of immense service to his people upon whom he has never turned his back. A strong lawyer and most impressive speaker, a man with a level head and a big heart, he will do North Carolina and the South great service in Washington.

Instance of the Equality of Opportunity.

Baltimore Sun. The Governor-elect of Tennessee is Benjamin W. Hooper, less than 40 years of age, who does not know his real name, or who his parents were. He was found on the streets of Knoxville and committed to the care of an orphan asylum, whence he was taken 10 years later by Captain Hooper, of Newport, Tenn., who gave him his name and educated him. It is one of the splendid things about this republic of ours that the name a man makes for himself is the only thing that counts, the things he does, the only ones reckoned up when the people look about them for their leaders. From orphan asylum to the Executive Mansion! From nameless waif to Governor of a sovereign State! The way is always open in this country to those who work and strive and keep the faith.

Overworked Himself Because of Joy at the Democratic Victory.

Lenoir News. Uncle Bob Suddeth, a well-known colored man of this place, who voted the Democratic ticket in by-gone days before the franchise amendment to the constitution was passed, was found leaning against a box about noon the day after the election, looking woe-begone and sick. When asked what was the matter he said he was feeling sick from overwork. He said, "When I got up this mornin' and heered dat my fokes had got into der place ergin' I felt so good I went to work an' overdone myself and now I am putty near sick on account of it."

Anson Boy's Success as a Farmer.

Wadesboro Ansonian. There is a boy in Anson county who farmed on his own account this year, renting a small farm from his father. He did his own work and did not spend his nights in drinking and carousing around the community but got some wholesome pleasure at watching the results of his labor. He studied and followed the best and most up-to-date methods of farming and we have it on reliable information that he will clear not a cent less than $500 on the crop raised by himself, after rent and all other expenses are paid. He began during the first of the year and now has a few months to spend at another business, where he will clear a few dollars every week. The man who thinks and works is making money, the man who loaf and dissipates ought to starve.
