Reduce the price at the expense of quality. The PRICE of an article is forgotten long before the QUALITY and the idea which originated in one lone window with two or three watches as a stock of Jewelry—quality first and then price—has given us a Quarter of a Century of unequalled success in the Jewelry Business.

Everything in Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Millinery, Etc.
 Gastonia, North Carolina

Town and County.

—Are you boosting Gastonia?
 —Soon the gobblers that gobble will gobble no more.
 —Mr. S. J. Hand, of Lowell, was a Gastonia visitor yesterday.
 —Mr. J. R. Lewis, of Dallas, was in Gastonia on business yesterday.
 —And then will come Christmas. Already the young folks are beginning to talk of Santa Claus.
 —The farmers are all busy. Most of the cotton is picked and wheat sowing is the order of the day.
 —Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Craig, of route one, Belmont, are among today's shoppers in Gastonia.
 —Chief of Police G. Lee Beam, of Cherryville, was a business visitor in Gastonia yesterday.

 —The merchants are preparing for the Christmas trade. Soon the stores will begin to take on the usual holiday aspect.
 —William H. Lewis was re-commissioned by Governor Kitchin on yesterday as a notary public for Gaston county, and will be sworn in today by the Clerk of the Superior Court.
 —A number of Gastonians will probably go to Richmond next Thursday to witness the Thanksgiving football game between the teams of the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia.
 —Among today's visitors to Gastonia is Mr. J. M. Cherry, of Mount Holly, route one. Mr. Cherry paid The Gazette office a pleasant call. He has been taking The Gazette for many years and says he could not keep house without it.

 —His many friends will learn with pleasure that Mr. A. M. Smyre, who has been ill with pneumonia for the past two weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. M. Jones, on York street, is greatly improved. He has so far recovered that he expects to be up within the next two or three days.
