Former Minister to Greece is Caustic. Asheville Dispatch, 9th. Hon. Richmond Pearson, former Republican Congressman from this district and later United States minister to Greece, when asked how he explained the clean sweep of the State, said: "Four causes were operating concurrently to produce the result. First, keen disappointment at Mr. Taft's constant preference of Democrats over Southern Republicans; second, the illogical, inconsequent and grotesque action of the Greensboro convention in trying to endorse Mr. Taft without qualification and in the same breath nominating to our highest tribunal the identical men whom Mr. Taft had severally and successively inspected, insulted and turned down for an inferor office: third, the ambiguous, impudent and obviously deceptive plank on local self-government; fourth, but greater than this, than these, than all, saddling upon the Republican party the Responsibility for alleged acts of Mr. Marion Butler, committed or performed at a time when Mr. Butler was fighting the most cher-shed principles of the Republican party and assailing its most beloved and most honored leaders. This orm of vicarious punishment stands

MR. PEARSON ON THE RESULT. and Mr. Aycock must have laughed in their sleeves while the remorseless work proceeded.

"I believe that the fierce and passionate denunciation of Mr. Butler hurt the Republican cause less than Mr. Butler's admission that while holding the State's highest commission he prosecuted and later collected a claim against the sovereign power which had thus honored him. There is no statute law against such an act, because until now it has been considered unnatural, if not impossible for United States Senators are like ambassadors and not even a Tallyrand or a Machiavelli, though each was a genius of ardent and daring nature, ever prosecuted a claim against the government whose highest credentials he bore. It may be said without harshness or intemperance that this act alone disqualified Mr. Butler now and forever from becoming the Republican leader of North Carolina.'

A dispatch from Duke says that the Erwin Cotton Mills, which have been running on short time for several months, have started up full time, six days in the week, and the owners announce that they will make full time from now on if the signs of the times keep bright.

Fire at Asheville Tuesday night otally destroyed Trinity Episcopal church, entailing a loss of about $40,000 with insurance of only $14,-000. The structure was elected in 1881 and was one of the handsomest houses of worship in the city.

A dispatch from Monroe under date of the 11th states that the Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Charles B. Plyler who was convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of Carter Parks, his brotherin-law. Plyler will be electrocuted but the date has not yet been set.

Dr. Thomas R. Little one of Greensboro's most prominent young physicians, died at his home there luesday from unknown causes. His family was away and when he was found by his brother-in-raw he was in a dying condition. The supposition is that, in a fit of coug.': g, he broke a blood vessel.

An Associated Press dispatch sent out from New York Tuesday says that reports from various parts of the country indicating a fall in the price of meats are reflected by simflar reports from local dealers. Another dispatch from Cincinnati says that meat prices have dropped sharp ly in the past few days there, bacon leading with decline of five cents a pound.

Robin J. Cooper, charged with the murder of United States Senator E. W. Carmack, of Tennessee, was given a verdict of not guilty Tuesday in the criminal court at Nashville. When the case was called the attorney for the State recommended such a verdict and the case was not tried. This is the closing scene of one of the greatest tragedies ever enacted

A very interesting case is being tried in the United States circuit court at Columbia, S. C., in which the United Commercial Travelers Association is resisting the payment of a $5,000 accident policy to the widow of W. G. Houghton, of Spartanburg. The defendants claim that the bloodpoisoning which caused his death resulted from a finger scratch on his nose, his widow claims that the bloodpoisoning resulted from being struck by the nozzle of a hose accidentally.

Small Consolation.

Greensboro Record

There is just a little consolation for the Morally Stunted in the election returns. Florida and Missouri killed State-wide prohibition, but it is a long way to go to get a drink.

FINED FOR OUR FOLLY,

Some Startling Comparisons Showing the Wasteful and Extravagant Admiristration of Our Government-More Spent for Preparation for War in Time of Peace Than for the Education of Our Exchange.

Rube, you and John Henry sit down here for a few miputes, I want to talk to you.

I want to try to pound an idea into your heads.

I want you to listen to me with perseverance and papatience.

In this country there are, in round numbers, sixteen million children attending the common schools. To educate these in the common

That means about $3.35 expense for each man, woman and child in the country, or about $20 annual ex-schools it costs $330,000,000 per an-

You don't begrudge that, for it is in a good cause. You don't want your children to grow up ignorant pense for each family of six persons.

Just keep those figures in your head-what it costs to educate your children.

There is another expense that you, perhaps have not thought of.

The appropriation for 'be support of the army in this year of our Lord is $96,000,000; for the navy $132,000,000, aggregating $385,-000,000 for the cost of war, when we include the pension list.

In other words we are paying out more for war by $55,000,000 than it costs us to support our common school system.

And yet we have no war, and no prospects of any.

Think of it! $385,000,000 per annum for something we haven't got, don't want, and are not at all likely

This means $4.25 a year each for each man, woman and child in the nation, or $25 for each family of six. That would put a thousand pounds of flour in the home of every family in the land, It would furnish bread the year round for every workingman's family in the United States.

The United States has no use for a large army and navy.

It got along very well without them up to within a few years ago. In 1891 the appropriation for the army was only $24,206:000.

In 1910 it has jumped to $96,-

In 1891 the appropriation for the navy was $24,136,000.

In 1910 it has jumped to $131,-

As between the United States and other nations there is no excuse for war, and no such contingency is likely to arise

There is no nation of any size or importance on earth that can afford to go to war with us. Our trade relations with them are such that peace is more profitable to them

We contribute more than any two nations to the feeding and clothing the world.

War could only prove profitable to the American manufacturers, rich contractors and bloated money

And it is this "power behind the throne" that is responsible for the increase in army and navy appropri-

Behind these appropriations, this increase of the army and navy, is a purpose so sinister in its design and diabolical in its nature as to make hell itself blush for shame.

Roosevelt's Mistake. New York Herald.

Aeosop's fable of the ass that carried the idol is recalled by Mr. Roose velt's conduct since his return from Europe. Seeing all the people as he went along bend themselves in reverence, the animal fancied that he it was to him they were paying obeisance, and in consequence picked up his ears and flourished his tail. Mr. Roosevelt, received abroad as a former president and hob-nobbing with potentates, fancled that it was to him and not the nation that obseisance was paid, and came back with the megalomaniac notion that he was greater than his country.

He foolishly fancied that he could brow-beat and bully the voters of this State into accepting his personal representative for their governor and the people of the United States into accepting his revolutionary and ruinous "policies." He doubtless this morning has a truer measure of his own stature. He is not having a "corking time," but he knows more and now possibly will give us
