

A Splendid Fifty Cent Pocket Knife ABSOLUTELY FREE

Several Hundred to be Given Away During the Next Six Weeks.

The Gazette has inaugurated a vigorous and active campaign for new subscriptions and is going to spend some money to get new readers. It now has the largest subscription list any newspaper in Gaston county has ever had but there are still hundreds of people who ought to be on our list who are not.

The offer we here make is the best offer ever made by a newspaper in this part of the country. Here it is:

From now until January 1, 1911, we will give to every new subscriber who pays for one full year, $1.50, in advance, a handsome pocket knife which does not retail for less than 50 cents anywhere and in most places is sold for 60 cents, and in addition will give them the paper free from now until January 1, 1911. It simply means we are giving you $2.20 worth for $1.50.

TO THE OLD SUBSCRIBERS who renew between now and January 1, 1911, we will send the paper for one year and give this handsome and useful pocket knife free. We give the old subscriber the same we do the new except in the matter of a few weeks time added to the subscription of the new reader.

The Gazette has been Gaston county's leading newspaper for more than 30 years and is still holding its own and gaining ground. It is published twice a week, Tuesdays and Fridays, eight pages each issue, and gives all the news of the town and county with state and general news condensed. It is the HOME PAPER for Gaston county people. This is the best opportunity you've ever had to subscribe.

Give your subscription to our solicitor, MR. A. E. BEAM, call in person at our office or remit by mail. In any case you will get the knife. If you are not convinced that it's a bargain—well, we'll know that you do not know a bargain when you see one.

HEARD ON THE STREETS

Something happened in the recent election which perhaps never happened before in Gaston county and rarely occurs anywhere. It was the election to an office of a man whom nobody knows or ever heard of. As well as can be learned there is no person in Gaston county having the name and it is hard to understand just how it came about. Over in Riverbend township John M. Feimster received 274 votes for constable and, as this was the highest vote for that office, he is duly elected. He has not put in his appearance as yet and the election officers are just a little bit puzzled to know what to do about Mr. Feimster. They would doubtless be glad for some one to come forward and lay claim to the name. When the township ticket was printed the printer, in some mysterious way, got the name of John M. Feimster under the head "constable" and, as no other name appeared there the people mostly voted the straight ticket and elected him. The size of his vote would seem to indicate that he is quite popular. Mr. John H. Beattie, who was not a candidate at all, received 34 votes, while Feimster received 274. The most striking feature of this unusual case is the evidence it adduces that too many of our people here and everywhere are a little too careless in casting their ballots. It has both a humorous and a serious side.

"I was on the train down the country the other night," said a traveling man, "and witnessed a little incident which was amusing. At a small station a highly intoxicated fellow, who had reached the hilarious stage, boarded the train, entering at the rear of the coach. He was singing loudly that little song entitled, 'My Wife's Gone to the Country.' Some sober wag at the front of the coach immediately raised the tune, 'I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now' and it required the combined efforts of half the passengers to prevent bloodshed and riot."

There is nothing which interests the average person more than the innocent witty remarks of children. One Gastonia Young America, aged about five, was given the task a few days ago of taking care of his 18-months-old baby brother, who, having recently learned to walk pretty well is greatly averse to remaining still for more than half a minute at a time. The little nurse had several times picked his baby brother up and placed him in the small rocker, only to see him leave it as soon as turned loose. About the third or fourth time the older child, placing his charge in the chair and placing his hand tightly against the little tot's breast, said very earnestly, "Baby you won't stay put." He had grasped the situation exactly and described it to a t.

The recent election was the subject for conversation in a nearby Gaston town the other day and a Gastonia man had drifted into the crowd to hear what was being said. One of the talkers had named over some precincts and townships in old Gaston which had gone overwhelmingly Democratic and then, through some process of mental gymnastics he jumped to national affairs and added in the next breath "And New York elected Dix, a Democrat, by a great big majority." A lean, lank looking fellow in the crowd, who had up to that time been listening, said in a very serious tone and evidently for the purpose of obtaining information, "And did that part of the county go Democratic too?" The Gastonia man is still wondering where that anxious seeker for knowledge has been all this thirty or more years of his life.

J. Armstrong Drexel broke all aeroplane altitude records in a flight at Philadelphia Wednesday in a Bleriot monoplane to a height of 9,970 feet.

Our pictures cost money—but they are worth it. Let's prove it to you. Green's Studio.

An Associated Press dispatch from Birmingham, Ala., dated the 23rd, says that Mrs. Willard Sullivan, of that city, daughter of Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, rector of the Church of the Advent, was the first lady in the South to take a trip in an aeroplane. She went up that day with Ely in a successful flight at the fair grounds.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

J. H. Kennedy & Co. Sells the Remedy that is Guaranteed to Kill All Dandruff Germs.

Of course you and every intelligent reader of The Gazette knows that dandruff is caused by a germ.

Dr. Sagerbund, the great French physician, proved this beyond a doubt.

In order to rid your scalp of filthy dandruff you must kill the germ. There is a hair dressing called Parisian Sage which is now sold in every town in America, that is guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair and scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

If you have dandruff get a large 50 cent bottle today and rid yourself of it. Remember that if dandruff germs are not destroyed in time, the hair will surely fall out and baldness will follow.

Here's proof of what Parisian Sage has done; it will do more. It is the finest hair grower and hair dressing in the world, and people who use it regularly will never grow bald. Mrs. John Stener, Evansville, Ind., writes on June, 2, 1910:

"I used Parisian Sage and found it very successful; it removes dandruff and gives the hair life. I only used two bottles. I know it is a cure for dandruff."

Large bottles 50 cents at J. H. Kennedy & Co's. and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every carton. 11-25.
