CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

Mr. Moses Stroup Observes His Seventy-Third Anniversary by Having Many Friends for Dinner—Some Interesting History—Live News Notes and Personals from Bessemer City.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

BESSEMER CITY, March 7.—

About a hundred and fifty men, women and children from this section of Gaston and from Lincoln county gathered Saturday at the hospitable home of Mr. Moses Stroup, five miles west of here, to celebrate with him his 73rd birthday.

Mr. Stroup was enjoying good health and was in an interesting, reminiscent mood. With his comrades of the Civil war he talked over those stirring times. But Mr. Stroup does not live wholly in the past by any means. He is interested in the more modern way of farming and has a full equipment of the improved farming implements.

Mr. Stroup was a member of the lower house of the State legislature in 1890-'91 and at that time introduced the first prohibition bill ever framed for Gaston county. At that time there were forty-three government distilleries in the county and the whiskey sentiment was very strong.

A member from one of the transmountain counties, who proved to be a prophet, told Mr. Stroup if he pressed his bill it would defeat him for re-election, but nothing daunted at the prospect of one term in office, he did all he could to rid his county of conditions well-nigh intolerable.

In the campaign following he found considerable opposition and, failing to satisfy his constituents, as he thought, he withdrew from the race. However, he has always been proud of the firm stand he took, in the interest of his constituents.

Among those outside the community attending the celebration were Mrs. W. A. Kiser, Miss Annie Smith and Miss Mary Hahn, of Reepsville; Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Howell and Mrs. and Mrs. Hoke Huss, of Cherryville; Mr. and Mrs. Junius Beam, of Mount Holly; Mr. D. H. Coon, of Lincolnton, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Mauney, of Kings Mountain; Misses Zona Stroup, Knoxville Kiser and Myrtle Kiser, of Davenport College, Lenoir. The dinner was elaborate and the entire day was enjoyed to the utmost.

The first of a series of three debates to be held between sunnyside public school and Cherryville graded school was heard in the school building at Cherryville last Friday night. The query was, on the subject of compulsory education for North Carolina. Cherryville's debaters were Messrs. Vernon Harrelson and William Black. The speakers for Sunnyside were Messrs. sample Hager and Walden Weaver. All the young men acquitted themselves in a surprising manner and the full house that greeted them was highly entertained.

Cherryville won the decision from the farmer boys but the latter are already making preparations to meet their antagonists again.

The Red Men were here in large numbers Saturday night to attend the district meeting of the order. Mr. Phummer Stewart, of Charlotte, was expected to make a public address in the opera hall in the interest of Redmembership but could not be present. Mr. L. R. Pordeus, of Gastonia, addressed the people in an entertaining manner, which was followed by a banquet in honor of the visitors and a business meeting presided over by the District Deputy Sachem L. A. Reynolds, of Gastonia.

Miss Madge Paylor, for five seasons with Ivey's at Charlotte, and last season with one of the leading millinery stores of Raleigh, has rented the Robbins building and will open one of the completest lines of millinery to be seen in this section.

Miss Carrie Mauney, of this place, will be associated with her in the business. Their formal opening will be held March 30th and 31st.

For the third time in the last few years the home of Attorney Charles E. Whitney was found to be on fire early Sunday morning. Mrs. J. F. Scott, just across the street, first observed it and aroused Mr. Whitney and the neighborhood. After heroic work, the quickly organized bucket brigade was able to extinguish the blaze before much damage was done.

Mr. Julius Payne is quite ill with appendicitis at the home of his father, Mr. Zach Payne, living just out side of town. He was stricken suddenly last Sunday.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Metcalfe was buried last Monday.

Miss Mary McKeown, of Blackstock, S. C., is spending some time with the family of Mr. T. S. Royster. Mrs. Royster, who is in the Shelby hospital, is improving satisfactorily after a second operation for appendicitis.

Arrangements have been made for holding services for the county convicts here every two weeks. Rev. J. F. Armstrong conducted services for them the fourth Sunday afternoon and Rev. John Hall, of Gastonia, will preach the third Sunday afternoon in this month.

Miss Greene, of Thomasville, who takes the place in the graded school faculty made vacant by the resignation of Miss Crawford, is starting off with her work in a most satisfactory manner.—Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Perdue, of Gastonia, were the guests Saturday night of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Scott.—Mr. J. E. Hornbuckle, of Burlington, is here on business.

UNION NEWS.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

UNION, March 6.—An interesting meeting has just closed at Union.

Rev. C. H. Little, of Charlotte, had been asked to be with Rev. George A. Sparrow, in holding the meeting, but at a late date found he was unable to be present. So all of the services were conducted by the pastor alone. On Friday morning the subject of the sermon was, "The Cross, the Source of Life;" Friday evening, "Praising God;" Saturday morning, "Why Church Members Should Attend Church;" Saturday evening, "Covetousness, and Its Evils;" Sunday morning Mr. Sparrow's sermon was an eloquent description of Heaven. It was divided into five sections. Will man need any Heaven, what proof is there of its existence, where it is, what it is and what we shall do there. This was followed by the communion service. Sunday evening, notwithstanding the inclement weather, there were a number present. The subject was, "The Grace of God." This closed the meeting.

The neighborhood has been quite gay this week. Misses Clara, Ethel and Mabel Patrick have been at home. Miss Pearl Henderson has also been at home.

Rev. George A. Sparrow will be absent part of this coming week. He will be at Rutherfordton where he will have part of the program of a home mission conference.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

LANE GETS FOUR YEARS.

Young White Man Convicted of Two Serious Crimes—Criminal Court Adjourns—Civil Docket Taken Up This morning—May Adjourn Tomorrow.

Horace Lane, a young white man, was yesterday convicted in two cases, one for seduction and the other for abortion, and was given a sentence of two years in each case. His trial consumed practically the entire day.

Criminal court adjourned yesterday evening after being in session for seven days. The civil docket was taken up this morning, the session so far today having been taken up with the trial of the case of Rankin vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway. It is understood that court will probably adjourn some time tomorrow, as Judge Biggs is called to Durham on an important mission.

Other criminal cases disposed of since Friday are as follows: O. E. Hallman, illicit distilling, 15 months on the roads. Forest Elmore, affray, fined $10 and costs.

John Hoyle, removing crop, to pay Henry Williams $6 and one-half the costs. Henry Patten, carrying concealed weapons, four months on the roads. Amos Whitaker, gambling, fined $10 and costs.

Labe Wilson, assault with deadly weapon, fined $75 and costs. Ernest Lineberger, gambling, fined $10 and costs. Ernie Walls, retailing, fined $25 and costs.

George Torrence, assault, fined $10 and costs. Harry Merrill, larceny, judgment suspended on payment of costs. J. R. Deaton, disposing of mortgaged property, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Will Stowe, convicted several days previous of larceny, was given six months on the roads.

GREATER GASTONIA BILL PASSES

Wins Out by Small Majority Over Strong Opposition

General Assembly Last Night Passed on Act Extending City Limits of Gastonia—New Boundaries Take in Loray and Gray Mills on West, Clara and Dunn on South and Holland on North—Bill Enrolled for Ratification and Governor Expected to Affix His Signature to it To-day—A Great Forward Movement.

It is Greater Gastonia.

The bill to extend the city limits of the town of Gastonia passed the lower house of the General Assembly about 11:30 last night and was enrolled for ratification. Only the Governor's signature was necessary to make it of full force and effect. This, it was expected, would be affixed today.

Below is given the full text of the bill. This act extends the limits about one mile on the west, taking in all of the Loray and Gray Mills properties together with much other individual property; and about one-quarter of a mile on the South, East and North, taking in those portions of the Clara, Dunn and Holland Mill settlements which have been outside. A reading of the text of the bill will furnish detailed information to the reader.

By the enactment of this law Gastonia's population is increased something like 4,000, perhaps a little less, probably a little more. This gives Gastonia now a population of just about 10,000.

This is perhaps the greatest forward step the town has taken in ten years. It means great things for the town's future. At the same time it imposes larger and increased responsibilities but there is no doubt but that our people will be equal to any emergency which the new order of things may bring about.

There is universal rejoicing in Gastonia over the success of this bill. Every inch of ground was warmly contested and it required a very strenuous fight to put it through. Senator Carpenter and Representatives Stroup and Kendrick were loyal to Gastonia and the county in fighting for its passage. Mayor Craig, Col. Armstrong, Alderman Separk and others left no stone unturned to win success and they won it. It only remains for every citizen to rally to his town and work for its future welfare.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF GASTONIA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do Enact: Section 1. That chapter one hundred and forty-eight (148) of the Private Laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one be amended as set out herein, to-wit:
