PUTTING ON TOWN AIRS.

Loray Section Now Has Electric Lights-A Union Sunday School Organized....News Notes and Personals from West Gastonia.

Correspondence of The Gazette. WEST GASTONIA, Sept. 11. — The Sunbeams rendered a very interesting and appropriate program, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues and pantomines at the Loray Baptist church Saturday evening. September the 3rd. The church was crowded with spectators who enjoyed the occasion very much and the members of the society deserve merited praise for the excellent way in which the program was gotten up and ren-

West Gastonia is taking on the aspect of a real part of town daily. The electric wires have recently been extended out here. Mr. S. Settlemyer has already had his residence and store wired and quite a number of others are preparing to have the juice put into their homes,

The people of the Arlington and Gray mills have organized a union Sunday school which the people of all denominations residing there are cordially invited to attend. The serv-ices are being held in the school house at the Arlington Mill each Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

IN SESSION AT STANLEY.

Kings Mountain Presbytery Holds Pleasant and Profitable Session -Mrs. Sallie Moore Celebrates Seventy-Third Birthday-Personal Men-

Correspondence of The Gazette. STANLEY, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Sallie Moore celebrated her 73rd birthmay Tuesday at the home of her son, Mr Olin Moore, who lives at the old home place. The celebration was a very enjoyable occasion being in nature of a family reunion. All the children except Mr. C. C. Moore, of Rutherford College, were present, besides a large number of other relatives and friends.

The Kings Mountain Presbytery in session at the Presbyterian church here is proving a very enjoyable as well as an inspiring occasion, there being forty or more preachers and delegates in attendance. Rev. S. S. Oliver. of Kings Mountain, is moderator of the meeting. The old-fashioned picnic dinner is being served each day in the grove. One of the most interesting features of the occasion was the address Wednesday night by Rev. W. H. Hudson, missionary from China. All of the services are largely attended.

Gazette's Campaign to Raise Fund for Monument Which Daughters of Confederacy Will Erect Hearthy Engorsed-A Worthy Cause. From all quarters there are com-ng hearty words of endorsement from Gaston men and women of the project of the Gastonia Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy to erect in Gastonia a monument to the memory of the soldiers this county furnished to the Confederate army. That it is a labor of love which should promptly be performed is the opinion of all our patriotic people. Some outsiders have remarked that they were surprised somewhat that a county which figured as prominently in the civil war as Gaston had not ere this thus honored her veterans, both dead and living. That the monument, when erected, will adequately and eloquently set forth the love and reference which our people entertain for the heroes in gray is a foregone conclusion. It will be one of the handsomest Confederate monuments in North Carolina, one of which the builders, the veterans and all of us can well be proud.

The Gazette's campaign to raise the necessary $3000 by popular subscription is just getting a start. It will be short, lasting only till Octo-ber 15th, and the paper hopes that those who intend to contribute to this most worthy cause will not hold back but will send in their contributions promptly. As stated in Tuesday's Gazette all money sent or brought to this paper will be turned over promptly to the freasurer of the Gastonia Chapter U. D. C.

Every patriotic Gaston countianand that should mean every man, woman and child in the countyshould have some part, if only a small one, in the building of this monument which is to stand for all the years to come as a silent but eroquent witness to our interest in and love for our soldier boys of '61-'65. It is not a Gastonia affair by any means. It is a county affair and the ladies of the chapter hope that every town, hamlet and rural community will contribute towards its erection.

THE CHILDREN'S PART. As noted briefly in Tuesday's Gazette the shaft is to be surmounted by the life-size figure of some fa-Confederate soldier. The statement made Tuesday that it was to be the figure of Stonewall Jackson was a little premature. This part of the monument is to cost about $300 and is to be paid for by the J. D. Moore Chapter Children of the Confederacy. The chapter has not as yet selected the figure to be reproduced, having called a meeting for tomorrow for that purpose, However, it is understood that General Jackson is the choice of the chapter and it is altogether probable that his figure will be officially chosen at tomorrow's meeting to adorn as a cap piece the monument to be erected. The girls composing this chapter and their leader. Mrs. Thomas L. Craig, have worked zealously since the organization several years ago and have been very diligent in raising and conserving funds for this purpose.

INTO NEXT WEEK

Court Still on Criminal Cases and End of Docket Will not be Reached Until Some Time Next Week-Still 33 in Jail-Case of Smalipox Among Prisoners.

At the present rate at which cases are being disposed of the criminal part of the September term of Gaston Superior Court will continue well into next week. There are still 33 prisoners in the county jail awaiting trial. Among this number is one Annie Derr. colored, of Mount Holly, held on a charge of larceny, who has a mild case of smallpox. She was brought to jail September 2nd and was placed in one of the isolated rooms above the cells. None of the other prisoners was exposed to the disease. She was placed under quarantine and is still held there, though she is reported today to have almost completely recovered. As soon as she is entirely well she will probably be released from jail and the case against her continued until the next term of court. No uneasiness is felt by reason of her presence in the jail as all possible precautions have been taken by the health authorities to keep her entirely isolated.

NEW LAWYERS SWORN IN. Monday Judge Adams administered the oath to three new lawyers and they are now full-fledged attorneys. They were Mr. Ralph C. Patrick, of Gastonia, who recently passed the State board and who will locate in Gastonia for the practice of his profession; Mr. Louis Jones Hunter, of Charlotte, and Mr. Edolphus Eugene Hutchinson, of Rock Hill, S.
