He will probably build a nice dwelling on the place some time soon and give up his city residence for a country home.

THE CITY FATHERS MEET

PROMISED LOCAL CAR SERVICE JULY 1ST

Alderman Moore, Director of P. & N., Tells Council That Road Expects to Start Local Car Service July 1st—Prosecuting Attorney's Salary Raised—C. & N.-W. Must Lower Its Tracks at Once—Other Business Transacted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council Tuesday night a number of matters of business were transacted.

When the oft-repeated question arose as to when the P. & N. would inaugurate local car service in Gastonia, which according to the company's franchise was to have been done January 1st of this year, Alderman Moore, who is a director of the road stated that the company expected to have everything in readiness to begin this service by July 1st.

Of interest to autoists was the action taken in fixing the speed limits for automobiles at 10 miles an hour in the fire limits and 15 miles an hour in the sections of the city outside the fire limits. An ordinance was adopted imposing a fine of $10 for running automobiles and auto trucks within the fire limits without cutting off the mufflers; the ordinance also imposes a fine of $10 for any unnecessary opening of mufflers on motorcycles in any part of the city.

The question of permitting the erection of wooden buildings and the removal of old wooden buildings within the fire limits were brought up. J. Robert Jones, the contractor on Airline avenue, asked for permission to build a small shed or annex to the house he occupies. The matter was referred to the city attorney, Attorney G. W. Wilson, who appeared for Mrs. O. W. Davis and asked for permission for her to have her residence, a wooden structure in the fire limits, re-covered. It was ordered that this matter be investigated by the authorities. It is desired to let down the bars in this matter, as there would in all probability be many more similar requests.

The undertaker's city license, as it affected Mr. S. S. Sattlemire, a Lora merchant, was reduced from 25 to 15.

Pet Howell and James Starr, both colored, were excused from paying taxes on account of physical infirmities.

The salary of Prosecuting Attorney Belmont was raised from $300 to $500 a year.

The water and light committee was instructed to lay a water main from Airline avenue across the Southern Railway tracks on Marlboro street so as to connect with the C. & N.-W.'s new water spout.

An order was passed requiring the C. & N.-W. Railroad to lower its tracks in the city to a level with the city profile as per the recent survey. It was ordered that this work begin not later than June 25th and be completed not later than August 25. For every day after that date that the work remains uncompleted the company will be taxed with a penalty of $50.

City Tax Collector R. A. Batchford filed his bond of $10,000 and Mr. Rutter, superintendent of water and lights, filed his bond of $1,000, both of which were accepted.

The progress of the street work was discussed as were also the subjects of requiring locomotives to cease blowing their whistles in the city limits and requiring the railroads to build freight yards outside of the city limits.

CHERRYVILLE BONDS SOLD.

System of Water Works Soon to be Installed—Other News.

That the enterprising town of Cherryville is soon to have a system of waterworks is evident from the following taken from the Cherryville correspondence of The Charlotte Observer:

Cherryville's municipal bonds amounting to $31,000 were sold today to Sidney Spitzer & Co. of Toledo, Ohio. These bonds bear six per cent interest and are payable in 30 years. They were sold at par.

This means that Cherryville is to have a waterworks system, as soon as the contract can be let. Mr. J. Newton Johnston of Florence, S. C., has secured the engineering contract and is here making a survey of the town. The contract for construction will be let as soon as possible and it is hoped that the system can be completed before the winter rains.

Messrs. Self and Hoffman will begin the erection of a storeroom next to the city hall in a few days. The second story will be occupied by them as offices while the ground floor will be used as a storeroom.

The Cherryville Foundry Company has opened for business and has been turning out some good work.

The business men of Cherryville have begun work on their "Big Annual Celebration" to be held August 2, and are expecting a larger crowd than ever before. These celebrations have done much for the town and always attract considerable attention in this section.

Rev. Pat H. Massey, aged 50, living near Durham, was struck by a passenger train near that place Saturday and killed.

MR. S. J. HAND IS DEAD

PROMINENT LOWELL CITIZEN PASSES

One of the Most Widely Known and Influential Citizens of Gaston County Died at His Home Tuesday Night at 10:30 O'Clock—Survived by Wife and Nine Children—Funeral Wednesday at 4 O'Clock Conducted by Rev. R. A. Miller.

Mr. S. J. Hand, one of the most prominent and well-known of the older citizens of Gaston county, died Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock at his home near Lowell. Mr. Hand had been in failing health for six months or more. In January of this year he suffered a stroke of paralysis which left him practically helpless. Since that time he has been alternately better or worse. A decided change for the worse came some days ago and since that time death has not been unexpected. Mr. Hand was nearly 72 years old and the complications incident to old age probably hastened his death.

Surviving the deceased is a large family of sons and daughters, two brothers, one sister and a wife. The brothers are Messrs. Alex and Jack Hand, the sister, Mrs. R. A. Groves, of Lowell, and the children: Mrs. Zoe H. Rankin, of Gastonia; Mrs. L. E. Rankin, of Lowell; Mrs. S. M. Robinson, of Lowell; Mrs. D. P. Stowe, of Belmont; Mrs. Ida Reid, of Lowell; Messrs. Parks Hand, of Lowell; J. K. Hand, of North Charlotte; Holland Hand, of Lowell, and Dr. E. H. Hand, of Pineville. One child died in infancy.

Mr. Hand was known throughout the county as a man of the highest integrity and honor. Men everywhere held him in the highest esteem. In his home he was hospitable, generous and free. The Hand home has become synonymous with hospitality and good cheer. It has been the scene of many a happy family reunion of the many children. Mr. Hand for many years had been a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church at Lowell and was a Christian gentleman of the highest character. Throughout his sickness and death he maintained the same courage and fortitude that had characterized him through life and died firm in the faith of his religion.

The funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. R. A. Miller, the former pastor of the deceased. There was present at the funeral one of the largest crowds that has ever attended such a service in Gaston county. Rev. Mr. Miller made a most touching speech over the body of Mr. Hand whom he loved as a brother and to whom he had ministered so long as a pastor.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. R. Anders, G. M. Gullik, John Gaston, J. P. Stowe, J. R. Titman and John Groves. The interment was in the Lowell cemetery.

NEARING COMPLETION.

Southern's New Passenger Depot About Finished—Laying of Concrete Around It to Begin at Once.

With the exception of putting a portion of the tile roof on, laying the concrete around the building and installing the electric light fixtures and the telephone and telegraph wires, the Southern Railway's new passenger station is complete. The building, a car load, was shipped from Chicago two weeks ago and should be here now. Messrs. Porter and Boyd, of Charlotte, who have the contract for the concrete work under the sheds and around the building, are on the ground and have part of the material ready to begin laying the concrete. The actual work will probably be commenced about Monday or Tuesday, provided the weather is favorable. It is presumed that the depot will be ready to be thrown open for use about July 1st.

Mr. S. B. Barnwell, of Gastonia, who had the contract to do the painting and decorating, is putting the finishing touches on the work. The walls of the interior have been finished in a buff color while the woodwork is handsomely finished. The furniture has been installed and is of a fine quality of oak. Mr. Barnwell is an expert at this kind of work and has done a splendid job on this structure, both inside and out. He was just recently awarded the contract for the painting of the new depot being built at Spartanburg Junction, S. C. He has a man there now and will leave for that place himself within the next few days.

It is understood that as soon as the new station is thrown open here, the old one will be torn down and moved to Belmont. A new tile roof will be put on it and new girders put in where necessary. It will be repainted throughout and will make a very creditable depot.

Prof. Moore Acting President.

A special from Columbia reads: "Prof. A. C. Moore, dean of the faculty, was selected as acting president of the University of South Carolina at a meeting of the board of trustees this afternoon. Resolutions of regret at the departure of the retiring president, Dr. S. C. Mitchell, were adopted. The meeting took place in the office of Governor Bleas with all members present."

Prof. Moore is a kinsman of Mr. A. E. Moore, of Gastonia. He is at the head of the department of biology and physiology in the University.

IRISH JIMMY NOW HERE

NOTORIOUS YEGG IN GASTON JAIL

Deputy Sheriff G. R. Rhyne Arrives from New York Last Night on Train No. 43 With Yeggman "Irish Jimmy" in Custody—Postoffice Inspector Gregory Also Here—Prisoner to Lie in Jail Till August Term of Court.

Deputy Sheriff G. R. Rhyne returned last night on train No. 43 from New York where he went last Tuesday night in response to a wire from Postoffice Inspector Gregory to Solicitor Wilson saying that "Irish Jimmy" was ready for delivery into the hands of the Gaston county authorities. Mr. Rhyne was accompanied home by Mr. Gregory and had with him the notorious yeggman and safe cracker, William Golden, alias William Dunn, alias "Irish Jimmy."

Mr. Rhyne and the now near-norded prisoner were greeted at the train by a crowd of Gastonians, eager and curious, despite the fact that the hour, 11:30 o'clock, was late. Twice before, yesterday morning on No. 37 and again last night on No. 35, was the crowd treated to a disappointment when the sheriff and the prisoner failed to appear. Managed by his right wrist to the left arm of Mr. Rhyne by a pair of shiny steel bracelets, "Irish Jimmy" was taken last night to the Gaston county jail and lodged there for safe keeping.

This morning about 8 o'clock when The Gazette man called at the jail for a possible interview with the prisoner, Mr. Rhyne was just ready to carry breakfast up and the reporter went along. "Irish Jimmy" was just waking up from a good night's sleep. Yawning and stretching himself, he immediately asked for a cigarette. "Irish Jimmy" is a low, stocky built man, about five feet, two or three inches in height, weighing 150 pounds, more or less. He has a fairly good looking face, small grey eyes and is clean shaven. His facial appearance is some what marred by the absence of one of his front teeth. His general appearance is not that of a professional crook.

When asked by the newspaper man if he would talk any concerning his alleged crime, he said, as has been before given, that he knew nothing at all of this country, that he had never been in North Carolina before so far as he knew. When asked about himself, his birth, occupation, etc., he talked rather freely and like the proverbial Irishman had a twinkle in his eye and was always ready for a joke.

"I was born in Ireland in 1868," he said, in response to questions, "and came to America with my parents when I was too young to remember. My mother is living, but my father has been dead for several years. I followed the trade of a molder in a cast iron factory until rheumatism affected my arm so that I could not work. When I was arrested in Albany this spring, I was trying to make a living selling fountain pens on the streets. I have been married about 18 months and the worst thing about my arrest and imprisonment is the way it is affecting my wife."

Golden or Dunn, whoever he is, gives promise of being a model prisoner. He is quiet and orderly and talks freely with the other prisoners in the jail. Mr. Rhyne had not the slightest trouble with him on the way down from New York. Until the August term of Superior Court he will be confined in jail. There will be no preliminary trial as a true bill of indictment was found against him in Dallas some four or five years ago.

More Cold Weather Records.

Mr. A. C. Stroup, of the Gaston Seed & Provision Co., tells The Gazette that the assertion that the cold spell of the past few days was the coldest for June in 50 years is erroneous. Mr. Stroup has for many years kept a daily diary and has the weather records for the past twenty years or more for this section. He says that on the 17th day of June, 1895, eighteen years ago, there was a considerable frost in this immediate section. Vegetation was affected, some though the frost was not heavy enough to kill corn and cotton. Fires were much in demand. His records, however, do not show whether there was any snow in the mountains of this State.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE IN SALISBURY.

Miss Nell McLean returns today from Salisbury where she has been visiting Miss Marie Hardin. Tuesday night there was given a delightful dance in honor of several visiting ladies. The dance was one of the largest ever given in Salisbury, there being from 50 to 60 couples on the floor. The Salisbury Evening Post says:

"One of the most beautiful and brilliant affairs of the season was the initial dance which the members of the Stonewall Club gave last night in their handsome new club room on South Main street. The rooms which are most attractively decorated with college pennants presented a lovely scene and the affair proved one of the most delightful ever given in Salisbury. Dancing began at 9:30 and continued until 2 o'clock, a string orchestra furnishing inspiring music.

"The entertainment committee, who so efficiently arranged and carried out all details, making the affair a notably successful and enjoyable one is composed of the following young men: Messrs. Carson Gorman, Ernest Russell, Emert Shields, Charles Denny and Fred Moore."

Among those dancing were Miss Marie Harin with J. B. Fisher, Susie Turner with Jack Hardin, Evelyn Blake of Charlotte, with Ernest Hardin, Marguerite Brittain with Henry Fairley, of Monroe, and Nell McLean with Locke McKenzie.

DILLING-SMITH WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

Handsomely engraved announcement cards were issued today reading as follows:

Mrs. Nancy Allee Smith announces the marriage of her daughter Clara to Mr. Marshall Dilling on Thursday, June the twelfth Nineteen hundred and thirteen Gastonia, North Carolina.

The wedding was quietly solemnized at 9 o'clock last night at the bride's home on Columbia street by Rev. J. J. Beach, pastor of East Baptist church, assisted by the groom's pastor, Rev. J. E. Abernethy, of Main Street Methodist church. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few of the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dilling left on the 9:30 interurban car for Charlotte, from which point they went on a wedding trip of several days. After their return they will make their home in the city.

Both bride and groom are well-known and popular and have a wide circle of friends to whom the announcement of their marriage will be of very great interest. The bride has been for some time stenographer for Solicitor G. W. Wilson and is a young woman of many admirable traits.

Mr. Dilling occupies a responsible position as superintendent of the Avon Cotton Mill and is recognized by his business associates as one of the most successful and experienced mill managers in the county. He was recently elected as a member of the city council and having been assigned to important committees is doing valuable service in the administration of the city's affairs.

DULS IS NAMED JUDGE

A CHARLOTTE MAN IS APPOINTED

Governor Craig Appoints Mr. Charles H. Duls, of Charlotte, Judge of the Fourteenth Judicial District Recently Created, Composed of Gaston and Mecklenburg Counties—He Accepts—Short Sketch of Appointee.

Gaston countians will be interested in the following from this morning's Charlotte Observer:

Governor Craig at Asheville yesterday appointed Mr. Charles Henry Duls of the local bar the first Superior Court Judge of the Fourteenth Judicial District and Mr. Duls accepted.

The announcement does not come as a surprise, as it had been practically a foregone conclusion for some weeks that Mr. Duls would receive this honor. He had the endorsement of a host of his fellow-practitioners at the Mecklenburg bar, and was backed by a record which attested his ability as a lawyer, his sterling integrity of character and his fidelity in the service of the Democratic party.

There are numbers of lawyers at this bar who would grace the judicial emine but it is doubtful if there is one with a sounder knowledge of law than Mr. Duls and it is certain that there is none who is a more indefatigable worker. It may be prophesied at the very beginning of his career that none of the criticisms leveled at indolent judges will ever be directed at the Mecklenburg man.

Mr. Duls was born January 7th, 1861, at Charlotte, being the second son and child of Jacob Duls, a merchant, a man of force and high character and Wilhelmine Elts Duls, a pious and refined woman of strong intellectuality. They were naturalized Germans, residing from the later '40's until death, first in Charleston, and later for many years in Charlotte. Mr. Duls received a private school and academic education and also special courses under tutors. He studied law under the late Col. Hamilton C. Jones, completing the law course at the University of North Carolina, was licensed to practice law in August, 1887, at once forming a law partnership, which has continued for 25 years, with ex-Solicitor Heriot Clarkson. He was representative from Mecklenburg in the Legislature of 1901; State Senator in 1905; attorney for City of Charlotte for four years, 1901-1905. He was the first president of the Mecklenburg County Bar Association (1912); was married June 8, 1899, at Camden, S. C., to Miss Louisa DeSaussure Davis, a charming and accomplished woman descended of long lines of worthy and notable ancestors, both maternal and paternal. They have four children, one little girl and three boys. Mr. Duls is a member of the Lutheran Church.

Another Instance.

Another example of the way in which Gastonia merchants are being discriminated against comes from the Harry-Baber Company. On a carload of flour from Sebewaing, Mich., the freight rate is 18-12 cents to Virginia cities. From those junction points to Gastonia, the rate is 27 cents.

Ice Cream Supper.

The Philathea Class of the Franklin Avenue Methodist church in West Gastonia will give an ice cream supper on the church grounds Saturday night, June 14th, for benefit of the class. The public is cordially invited to attend.

B. & L. Series to Mature.

The Gastonia Mutual Building & Loan Association will mature its Series No. 5 with the last payment in this month. The series consist of 147 shares of a total value of $14,700, of which $10,000 will go to cancel mortgages and the remainder will be paid to the shareholders in cash. The new series, No. 18, will be opened the first Saturday in July as usual, and subscriptions of stock in it are being received now. The building and loan has become a well known and highly useful institution in Gastonia and Secretary McLeod expects the new series to be one of the largest in point of amount of stock subscribed that has yet been issued.

- (Wollenhaupt), Miss Ruth Mason.
- 13—Hungary Mignonne (Koelling), Misses Mary Costner, Mary White, Ruby Spencer and Verne Arthurs.
- 14—Grand Polka de Concert (Bartlett), Miss Moena Hand.
