Neely Dixon and Eph Holland Held Under Bonds of $600 Each on Charge of Committing Two Highway Robberies Here Saturday Night-Both from Bessemer -Got Only Small Amount-Police do Good Work.

Neely Dixon, alias "Slick" Dixon. and Eph Holland, two young white men, the first named about 18 years and wearing knee pants, and the other about 20 years old, were arraigned before Judge Jones in municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of committing highway ronbery and each was placed under a justified bond of $600 for his appearance at the December term of Gaston County Superior Court for trial on this charge. In default of bond they were committed to the county jail.

Dixon and Holland were represented at the trial by Carpenter & Carpenter.

The crimes for which these young men must answer were committed in Gastonia Saturday night about 9 o'clock, while many Saturday shoppers were still on the streets. The first hold-up took place near the Clara Mill when they forced young Sylvester Whisnant, who drives a wagon for the Ideal Grocery Company, to stand and deliver at the point of dangerous looking knives. From Whisnant they secured - $2.50. A few moments later, in the same neighborhood, they attempted to hold up Roy Kincaid and Bryant Curlee in the same manner but fall-They next held up R. C. Fairchild, a drayman living at the Armstrong Mill, on South York street in front of Mr. Parks Huffstetler's res- ness. idence. Here they made a waterhaul as Fairchild had no money on his person. Within a few moments police headquarters was notified of the hold-ups and Chief of Police Carroll, taking Fairchild with him in a buggy, started after them, going out West Franklin avenue. Coming upon the culprits Chief Carroll sprung from the buggy and nabbed one of them, believed to have been Dixon. pal of the Lowell graded school, was He quickly handed his man over to a Gastonia visitor Saturday. Returning to the buggy the chief found that his game had made a dash for liberty and had taken to the tall timbers.

Monument Unveiled.

The Gastonia Camp Woodmen or the World unveiled a monument Sunday at Bethel Presbyterian church near Clover at the grave of the late E. W. Joy. a deceased brother. The ceremonies were conducted by the team of the Gastonia Camp headed by Col. G. H. Narvin There were present Woodmen from several neighboring camps, together with numerous friends of the deceased.

Two Splendid Addresses.

Miss Minnie Alexander, a missionary of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church in India, who is at home on a leave of absence, delighted two large audiences at the A. R. P. church Sabbath day, speaking at both the morning and evening hours. At the evening service numbers of people were turned away, the house not being sufficiently large to accommodate all who wished to hear her. "General Missionary Condi-tions in India" was her subject in the morning and in the evening she spoke on "Methods of Evangelizing in Tent Work in India." Her descriptions of 'the actual experiences of herself and co-workers was intensely interesting. Miss Alexander's home is at Huntersville, Mecklenburg county, and five of the other six missionaries of the A. R. P. church in India are from the same county. She has been in India for the past seven years and brings encouraging news of the work and prospects for evangelizing that country. She expects to remain in this country until next fall.

Slayer of Frank Mauney Sentenced to Two Years in Penitentlary-Negro Given Seven Months for Manslaughter-Criminial Court Adjourned Friday Night-Civil Court Now in Session With Judge Justice Presiding.

By consent of the attorneys for the defense and the prosecuting attorneys a verdict of guilty of manslaughter was entered on the court records Friday evening at 6 o'clock against W. S. Davis for the killing of Frank Mauney at Harden on August 23rd last and Judge Webb sentenced the defendant to two prison at Raleigh. After considering the case for four or five hours the jury had found it was unable to agree upon a verdict and the consent judgment was made.

Davis' trial consumed all of Thursday and Friday. In the prosecution Solicitor Wilson was assisted by Mangum & Woltz and S. B. Sparrow while the defense was represented by S. J. Durham and Carpenter & Carpenter. During the trial Davis' aged mother sat by his side and his wife and several children sat nearby. The case was a hard fought one on both sides. Davis was originally from Caldwell county but moved West and lived in Oklahoma for twelve or fifteen years before moving to Harden. Sheriff McLean has taken him to Raleigh to begin his sentence.

Otho Volentine, the negro charged with the murder of Bertha Steele, a negro woman several weeks ago near Lowell, was found guilty or manslaughter and was sentenced to seven months on the county chain special week's term for the trial of civil cases was begun yesterday morning with Judge Justice presiding and will continue through the week.

It is understood that more than half the capital stock has ajready been subscribed. The Gazette is not at liberty to day to give the names of the primoters but expects to be able to farnish the public with some definite information relative to the enterprise in Friday's Issue. Suffice it to say that the promoters are business men and property owners of West Gastonia.

Preparations Making for Annual Chrysanthemum Show Under Auspices of Woman's Betterment Association-Friday and Saturday the Dates; Realty Building the Place - Exhibition of Flowers

Promises to be Fine. Chrysanthemums again, in all the colors and varieties known to the lover of flowers, will be seen Friday and Saturday of this week in Gastonia at the fifth annual floral fair under the auspices of the Woman's Betterment Association. It is to be held in the Realty building in the store room recently vacated by years at hard labor in the State Moore's Selz Shoe Store. This is one of the best possible locations in town for such an event and the ladies were exceedingly fortunate in being able to secure it. For the past several days carpenters and others have been busy in this room erecting the booths and putting things in ship-shape for the fair. The Floral Fair committee, composed of Mesdames D. E. McConnell, J. F. Thomson and W. J. Clifford, has been busy for several days past making final preparations for the fair. They are assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. D. A. Garrison, fancy work; Mrs. J. F. Thomson, dolls: Mrs. B. H. Parker, cake: Mrs. C. I. Loftin, candy; Mrs. W. F. Michael, milk; Mrs. R. M. Johnston,

As heretofore the admission fee will be 10 cents, one fee admitting the purchaser as often as desired during the two days. On Friday the P. & N. will give a special rate of one and one-half fare for the round trip from all stations on the line. From Charlotte this will be 85 cents. Unless the weather should prove to be very unfavorable the ladies expect the largest attendance in the history of the fair. Last year about 900 tickets were sold. This year they expect the number to run to more than 1000.

As usual a feature of the show will be the refreshments. In the past the universal verdict has been that one gets more to eat, and better, for the money at the Gastonia floral fair than any where else. Fol-

MRS. J. B. WHITE DEAD.

Well-Known Dallas Lady Passes Away After Brief Illness-Funeral and Burial Sunday Afternoon.

Following a critical illness of about ten days Mrs. J. B. White died home in Dallas. Ten days previous she was stricken with paralysis and never rallied. Her death was not unexpected by her family and friends as it was realized from the Lincolnton to attend the funeral of first that it was a matter of time

Following funeral services conducted at the grave by Rev. A. T. Lindsay, pastor of Pisgah Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, of which deceased was a member. Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the body was laid to rest in the old White family burying ground at White &

Jenkins mill. Deceased was the widow of the late Mr. J. B. White, for a great many years one of the county's most prominent citizens, having served he county for 12 years as clerk of the court and represented her in the General Assembly for several terms. He died about a year ago. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Evon L. Houser: three brothers, Messrs. Jas. E., Robert A. and George W. Falls and one sister, Mrs. W. M. Crawford. all of this county. She was in her 57th year, having been born June of many noble qualities of mind and teem by a large circle of friends.

To Ride Watershed.

The water and light committee of the city council, of which Mr. V. E. Long is chairman, has employed Mr. J. L. Brown to ride the city s watershed on Long Creek and he will devote his entire time to the job. Mr. Brown will spend every day on horseback going over the watershed. It is 20 miles long and has a maximun width of 10 mues. It will require about a week's time to cover the entire shed. This is a step taken by the committee in the interest of pure water and the health of the people. Gastonia has always been proud of her water and with this new precaution there will hardly be a possiblity of its becoming contaminated. Occasionally the laws protecting this watershed are violated, such violations being almost invariably due to ignorance. Yesterday a party living on the water-shed was prosecuted and convicted for violating one of these laws. The guilty party's violation was evidently due to ignorance and he remedied the matter at once.

Next Sunday and Monday to Be Given Over to Missionary Services in Local Churches-Speakers Representing the United Missionary Campaign Movement Will Spend Ino Days Here.

As formerly announced, the speakers representing the United Missionary Campaign will spend next Sunday and Monday, November 2 and 3, in Gastonia, and these two days will be given over to special services to be conducted at the various local churches by the visiting ministers.

The list of speakers is as follows: Prof. R. E. Gaines, D.Litt., of Richmond College, Richmond, Va.; Rev. R. W. Patton, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., General Secretary of the Laymens Movement for the Episcopal Church; Rev. E. C. Cronk, D. D., of Columbia, S. C., General Secretary of the Lutheran Laymen's Movement; Rev. S. R. Gammon, D. D., a Presbyterian missionary to Brazil; Rev. C. J. Thompson, D. D., Field Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention; Rev. L. B. Padgett, Field Secretary of the Inter-Denominational Laymen's

Missionary Movement. One of these speakers will deliver an address at each of the up-town churches Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon there will be a meeting for men at Main Street Methodist church, which will be addressed by one or two speakers, and a similar meeting for ladies at the First Baptist church. Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock in Main Street Methodist church there will be a mass meeting of all the churches, the speaker to be announced later. The committee having the program in charge pects to have all the details of the program completed and ready for publication in Friday's Gazette.

SOUTH FORK ASSOCIATION.

Largely Attended Annual Meeting Held at Mount Holly Last Week-Associational Paper.

session Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week in the Mount Holly Baptist church, of which Rev. D. E. Vipperman is pastor, was one of the most largely attended and interesting meetings held in recent years. The opening sermon was preached Thursday morning at 11 o'clock to a large congregation by Rev. J. J. Beach, pastor of East Gastonia Baptist church. At the first business session held Thursday afternoon the old officers were all reelected as follows: Osborn Brown, of Long Island, moderator; J. D. Elliott, of Hickory, vice-moderator; J. F. Click, of Hickory, clerk; Mr. D. P. Dellinger, of Gastonia, treasurer. Dr. Livingston Johnson delivered a strong address on State Missions Saturday evening at 6 o'clock at her and Wake Forest College was represented by the president, Dr. Poteat. Rev. W. N. Johnson, pastor of the Wake Forest church, was present in the interest of the movement to erect a large church at Forest College. The Baptists of the State are raising a fund of $30,000, which will be supplemented by a fund of $15,000 to be raised by the people of Wake Forest and will be used for the erection of a handsome house of worship at the college.

The association voted to endorse the plan of a number of ministers and influential laymen of the church to establish an associational paper. and the matter was referred to a committee, of which Mr. A. W. Setzer, of Malden, is chairman. The reports from the various churches composing the association were especially fine, showing a good year's work in all departments. The next meeting of the association will be held at Macedonia church, five miles from Maiden, and the opening sermon will be preached by Rev. W. C. Barrett, pastor of the First Baptist church of Gastonia.

Moved to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ferguson will leave this evening for Bartow, Fla., to join their son, Mr. Newton C. Ferguson, who left Gastonia about ten days ago. They expect to make their home in the Land of Flowers in the future. Theiry many friends regret to see them leave. Mr. Ferguson has sold his house and lot on Chester street to Mr. R. R. Ray, of McAdenville.
