MISSIONARY UNION.

A. R. P. Body Met at Rock Hill—Gastonia Lady Elected President. Yorkville Enquirer, 24th.

There was a pretty full attendance on the annual convention of the Woman's Missionary Union in Rock Hill, on Tuesday night, Wednesday and yesterday, and the meeting was quite a success from every standpoint. Mrs. Nannie M. Bonner of Due West, presided.

The convention was welcomed in an address by Mrs. Roddey Miller and greetings from the local churches were responded to by Mrs. Ira B.

Jones. Miss Janie Love, a returned missionary from Mexico, delivered a message from that country, telling of the manners and customs of the people, their need for the gospel, and the methods that were being pursued in the effort to improve their religious life.

Mrs. K. P. Flenniken of Winnsboro, made a talk in which she recognized the great work that the missionaries were doing, and missionaries present made appropriate responses.

Quite an interesting incident was the recital of the Twenty-third Psalm by a little Mexican girl, who came from Mexico with Miss Jennie Gettys of Lesslie.

The reports of the officers showed a good deal of work done, and a healthy condition of the Union generally.

Miss Minnie Alexander, one of the church's missionaries to India and who, after a stay of seven years in that country is at home on her first furlough, gave a most interesting and instructive talk of her work in India. Miss Alexander spoke of the noble work that she and other missionaries were doing in this far-away land and told many interesting things of the people there, illustrating her talk by a number of articles. She had a number of lovely hand work pieces, some of it being done by the men and boys. The costumes of the country were illustrated by Misses Jean Roddey Black, Alethia Fennell, Agnes Barron and Master John A. Black who were dressed in some costumes that Miss Alexander had with her. Miss Alexander sang a song in Hindu and closed her very interesting address by reciting the Lord's Prayer in the Hindu language.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President, Mrs. A. F. Whitestides of Gastonia, N. C.; first vice president, Mrs. J. Roddey Miller, of Rock Hill; second vice president, Mrs. E. B. Hunter, of Sharon; third vice president, Mrs. K. P. Flenniken, of Winnsboro; recording secretary, Mrs. Ira P. Ransom, of Charlotte, corresponding secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. T. Bigham, of Chester; presbyterial secretary, Mrs. A. G. Brice, of Chester; junior secretary, Mrs. S. B. McLaughlin, of Charlotte; thanks offering secretary, Mrs. E. A. Carson, of Charlotte.

The next meeting of the Union is to be held at Winnsboro.

Lost His Right Hand.

Mr. Haywood Shuford, son of Mrs. T. E. Shuford, of Gastonia, had the misfortune Friday night to have his right hand so badly mangled that it was found necessary to amputate it just above the wrist. He is now in a hospital at Chester. Mr. Shuford is a flagman on the C. & N. W. and helping to make up a train in the yard at Chester when the accident happened. He is about 17 years old and a brother of Capt. Tom Shuford, a conductor on the same road. His numerous friends in Gastonia will regret to learn of his misfortune.

COLORED FLORAL FAIR.

First Exhibition by Colored Women's Betterment Association November 6 and 7—Lecture by Dr. C. H. Shute.

The first floral fair to be given by the colored Women's Betterment Association will be held Thursday and Friday, November 6th and 7th, in Winona Hall on North York street near the Highland graded school. This association was only organized in June and this is the first event of the kind it has attempted. The doors will be opened at noon each day and the night exercises in connection with the floral exhibit will begin at 8:30 o'clock. An admission fee of five cents will be charged.

On each of the two nights a literary program will be rendered. Friday night Dr. C. H. Shute, formerly principal of the Highland school here but for the past several years on the faculty of Biddle University at Charlotte, will deliver a lecture.

Prizes will be given for the finest flowers. The judges will be Lizette Humphrey, of Dallas; Ferris Pressley, of Bessemer City; G. W. Leeper, of Kings Mountain; Hattie Simmons, of Biddleville.

The officers are as follows: Fannie Avery, president; Sarah Hetherington, vice president; Janie Smith, treasurer; Yula Hoffman, secretary.

ELECTS OFFICERS.

New Real Estate and Insurance Company Getting Ready for Business—To Develop New Properties.

Since the receipt of a charter a few days ago, as mentioned in a previous issue of The Gazette, the Price Real Estate & Insurance Co.'s stockholders have held a meeting and elected the following board of directors: J. P. Reid, S. N. Boyce, J. L. Price and W. G. Queen. The directors in turn held a meeting and chose the following officers: President, J. P. Reid; vice-president, S. N. Boyce; secretary and treasurer, J. L. Price.

This new concern has a paid-up capital of $10,000 and an authorized capital of $50,000. It will handle life, fire, health and accident insurance, rentals and real estate. One of its aims will be to develop new properties, build and sell houses, collect rents, etc.

In the insurance department the company will represent the Durnam Mutual Life Insurance Co., the successor to the Catawba Mutual, and the Philadelphia Life and Michigan Mutual, both old line companies of reputation. Among the fire insurance companies they will represent, will be the Citizens Fire Insurance Company and the Hanover Fire Insurance Company.

The offices of the company will be in the Realty building, probably on the first floor in the quarters now occupied by the Clara, Dunn, Atmstrong and Monarch Mills. The latter will move soon into the store room in the Realty building recently vacated by Moore's Royal Selz Shoe Store.
