MOCK COURT TRIAL.

Interesting Event to be Held Tuesday Night at Central School Auditorium—Benefit Athletic Association.

In the auditorium of the Central graded school next Tuesday night, November 4th, at 8 o'clock there will be held a mock court trial, the proceeds to go to the Athletic Association. A nominal admission fee of ten cents will be charged. The event promises to be an interesting one and the young men who have charge of it hope that the citizens of the town will come out in force.

Prof. W. P. Grier, principal of the Central school, will be judge. The other court officers will be as follows: Clerk of the court, Koscoe Spencer; sheriff, Charleston Torrence. The criminal at the bar, a negro charged with the murder of a white woman, will be impersonated by Ray Stewart. He will be defended by Messrs. Max Abernethy and Ernest Warren. The prosecution will be represented by Judson L. Shannon as solicitor, assisted by Dana Caldwell. The State's witnesses will be Wilson McArver, Steve Morris and Harry Suggs while the witnesses for the defense will be Lamar Abernethy, who will impersonate the wife of the prisoner at the bar, Harry Cobb, Earl Dellinger, Fred Pearson and Bob Lewis. The jury will be chosen from the audience.

This promises to be a very interesting event. The young men engaged in it are busily making preparations and expect to give the audience its money's worth.

Pay for your laundry at the house and tickets will be redeemed with Dunlap Pony Contest Coupons by our collectors or at the laundry, Snowflake Steam Laundry.

SOCIAL ITEM FROM CHARLOTTE.

Wednesday's Charlotte Observer says: "Mrs. E. W. Mellon entertained at an elaborate dinner at her home on North Poplar street yesterday in honor of the Governor and Mrs. Locke Craig. Others present were Gen. L. W. Young, Col. S. Westray Battle, Col. T. L. Craig and Mrs. Craig.

SUICIDE IS AN EXCEPTION

Gradual Increase in Breaking of Law Among Younger Males Also Shown by Statistics.

New York.—That married men are better than single ones is the most remarkable feature of a report of an investigation made by the district attorney's office which has just been made public. Out of the 2,857 men convicted last year only 784 were married, as compared to 2,068 who were unmarried. The one startling exception is in the case of suicide, the report showing that among men who attempt to take their own lives the married outnumber the single three to one.

A comparison for the last nine years gives 7,670 convictions of married men for all sorts of crimes and 18,406 convictions of unmarried men. The report indicates that there is a gradual increase in crime among young men, the male criminals under the age of thirty years having increased in number from 1,700 in 1904 to 2,200 in 1912. During the last year many offenders were between the years of fifteen and twenty.

Assault charges now show 40 under twenty years and 64 from twenty to thirty years; third-degree burglary, 213 for the younger period and 205 for the older; grand larceny in the second degree, 184 criminals under twenty years, and 258 from twenty to thirty; petit larceny, 157 under twenty and 144 from twenty to thirty years; unlawful entry, 34 under twenty years and 22 from twenty to thirty years. The total shows 940 under twenty convicted last year, and 1,278 from twenty to thirty. Only 404 offenders from thirty to forty years were convicted.

The statistics for women prisoners show that two-thirds of the women brought to court were under thirty years.

ACTRESS DESIGNS HER TOMB

Sarah Bernhardt Is Busy Working on Monument That Will Embellish Her Tomb.

Paris.—Mme. Sarah Bernhardt is employing her vacation by carving a monument for the embellishment of her tomb, for which she has bought a desolate island off the coast of Brittany. She is working hard on a clay sketch of the complete conception with a young Breton woman as a model. The latter is sworn to silence and the design of the monument is kept a profound secret. It is said, however, by Mme. Bernhardt's friends, to be simple yet strangely moving in ideas. The tragedienne is reported to have said a short time ago that she had a horror of intrusting the erection of the monument to anybody else.

BABY HANGS SELF IN CRIB

Peculiar and Distressing Mishap to Little One Asleep in Its Little Bed.

Phoenixville, Pa.—Strangled to death in her crib, where she had been placed to sleep but a few minutes before, the ten-months-old daughter of John Hallman of this place was found by her father.

The child had literally hanged herself. The small body, with the feet a few inches above the floor, was found hanging by the neck between the bars of the crib.

In some unaccountable way the child had forced her small body through its bed, a wedge of bed-covering preventing the head from following.

HELD FOR TEASING DAUGHTER

New York City Girl Says Her Father Harps on Style of the Dress She Wears.

New York.—Miss Elsie Lewis of Jesamine avenue, Yonkers, had her father, Loren Lewis, locked up for teasing her too much.

Lewis and the daughter have not been on good terms for some time and occasionally when he meets her he flatters her in a manner that gets on her nerves, declares Miss Lewis. Usually he harps upon the style of her dress.

Judge Ellis tried to get her to agree to give him another chance, but she insisted that he be given the limit. Lewis was therefore remanded.

To Make Body Transparent.

Philadelphia.—Physicians of the Hahnemann Hospital and Medical college are perfecting a process, based on discoveries of a fluid by a German scientist, which will make the human body transparent after death. Students can study the veins, muscles and bones far more easily by the new method it is said. The fluid cannot be used before death.

Fine Children $404.

Montclair, N. J.—A package containing pennies, dimes and nickels worth $404, representing fines imposed upon school children who damaged school property which caused loss to the taxpayers, was sent to the office of Town Treasurer Wendell by the local board of education. The package weighed 64 pounds.

Man Caught in Own Trap.

Windsor, Mass.—Sewing several fishhooks in his wallet as a precaution against pickpockets, Albert Smith, a farmer, started to see the circus here. Lately he espied a candy stand and plunged his hand into his pocket for the wherewithal. The crook trap worked perfectly. A surgeon separated Smith from the fishhooks.

The club's next meeting will be with Miss Marie Torrence on Tuesday afternoon, November 11th.

ATTENDED WEDDING IN CHARLOTTE.

Mrs. E. C. Wilson went to Charlotte Tuesday afternoon to be present at the marriage Wednesday evening of Miss Sarah White Wilson and Mr. John Austin Tate. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wilson, the former being a brother-in-law of Mrs. E. C. Wilson. The wedding took place at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening in the First Presbyterian church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. W. J. McKay, of Sumter, S. C., assisted by Rev. D. H. Rolston, pastor of the church. The wedding was an important social event of the week in Charlotte, both parties belonging to prominent families.

BRIDGE CLUB WITH MRS. HARPER.

The Auction Bridge Club met on Wednesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. J. V. Harper at her residence on South Marietta street. Beside the members of the club Mrs. T. A. Wilkins and Mrs. J. Holland Morrow were present as guests, two new members, Mrs. George B. Cocher and Mrs. C. K. Marshall, were added to the roll of the club. A delicious oyster course, with olives, crackers and celery, and hot coffee were served. It was decided to hold the meetings of the club after next week only once every two weeks, each alternate Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting next Friday afternoon will be held with Mrs. F. L. Smyre at her home on South York street.

STATE CONFERENCE OF THE D. A. R.

MASON-RANKIN ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Handsomely engraved announcement cards reading as follows were issued yesterday morning: Mrs. Rufus Pinkney Rankin announces the marriage of her daughter Sarah Violet to George Bason Mason on Wednesday, October the twentieth

Nineteen hundred and thirteen Gastonia, North Carolina.

At Home Gastonia, N. C.

The marriage of these two popular young people came as a surprise to the majority of their friends, only the families and a few very intimate friends knowing of the event beforehand. The vows were taken at the Rankin home on South York street Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. E. Abernethy, pastor of Main Street Methodist church, officiated and the ceremonies were witnessed only by members of the immediate families. There were no attendants, the entire affair being very simple. Mr. and Mrs. Mason left Wednesday night for a bridal trip to Washington, New York and other points of interest in the North. Soon after returning to Gastonia they will probably go to house-keeping.

The bride is one of the most charming members of Gastonia's younger social set and is popular with a wide circle of friends. She attended Elizabeth College at Charlotte and has many friends in that city. The groom is one of the city's promising young lawyers. He is a graduate of the law department of the State University and is associated with his father, State Senator O. F. Mason, in the practice of his profession. He is also assistant city prosecuting attorney. He is a young man of splendid equipment and abilities. Their numerous friends will wish for Mr. and Mrs. Mason a life of long wedded bliss together.
