Rock Hill will please sit up and take notice that Gastonia has street cars running—not horse cars but "shore 'nuff" electric cars. And the folks are ridin' 'em, too, don't you forget it. And while we're acallin' of Rock Hill's attention to this we should not fail to remind her not to forget that we have gas on the way.

Farmers as well as business men, in fact everybody, will find Secretary of Agriculture Houston's address, published in today's Gazette, profitable reading. He reviews conditions as they exist and suggests solutions for some of the serious agricultural problems we are facing. It is a little lengthy but its value is such that we considered it worth publishing in full for our readers.

—Mrs. R. C. Warren, Mrs. W. N. Davis and Mrs. R. L. Davis spent yesterday with friends in Shelby.

—Miss Lena Glenn is among the Gastonians in Charlotte today to see "Ben Hur."

—Mr. Ben Douglass has accepted a position with the Ford Undertaking Company.

—Mr. D. R. LaFar left Monday for Charleston, S. C., on a week's visit to relatives.

—Misses Gertrude and Mamie Smith, Mamie Davis and Ethel Kincaid spent Sunday at Belmont as the guests of Miss Mamie Stowe.

—Mr. Ralph Padgett has accepted a position as salesman with the Torrence-Morris Company.

—The ladies of the First Presbyterian church are observing this week as a week of prayer. Services are held at the church every afternoon at three o'clock.

—Miss Lillian Waldrop, of Hendersonville, arrived yesterday to spend several days with her cousin Miss Lowry Shuford. She came from Hickory, where she visited her aunt, Mrs. Annie Parker.

—Mrs. W. H. Jenkins and Miss Willie Jenkins returned Friday from an extended visit to friends and relatives in Charlotte and Salisbury. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harry E. Jenkins, of Salisbury, who will be their guest for some time.

—Mr. John C. Puett, of Dallas, went to Charlotte this morning to attend the meeting of the North Carolina Drainage Association. Mr. Puett says that the work of dredging Long Creek is progressing nicely. To-date about three and a half miles has been dredged.

—Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Higgins, of Spartanburg, S. C., are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Long. Mrs. A. E. Folger, of Greenville, S. C., Mr. Higgins' sister, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Long.

—Mr. S. W. Bradley has accepted a position as superintendent of the dredging operations on Buffalo and Muddy Fork creeks and their tributaries in Cleveland county. The work will include about 25 miles of channel, and will be done with two dredge-boats.

—Messrs. Craig & Wilson, livestock dealers, have received two additional cars of stock recently, one car of well broken Tennessee mules and one car of fine brood mares. Watch for their advertisement in Friday's Gazette.

—Miss Marie Torrence left yesterday for Gaffney, S. C., where she is to be a bridesmaid tomorrow at the wedding of her friend, Miss Irene Wheat, and Mr. O. P. Richardson, of Spartanburg. The wedding is to be solemnized in the Presbyterian church at Gaffney.

—Messrs. J. L. Beal & Co. are having materials placed for the construction of a two-story brick building, 24 by 65 feet on East Airline avenue on the site now occupied by a small frame building adjoining the Gastonia Garage. It will be occupied when finished, by Mr. R. D. Lewis' bicycle shop.

—The Gazette directs the attention of its advertisers—also those business men who are not advertisers—to the announcement on page seven today of our holiday trade edition to be issued December 9th. The best way in which you can reach the buying public in Gaston is through the columns of The Gazette.

—The Ford Undertaking Company has moved from the corner of Marietta street and East Main avenue to one of the new Ragan store rooms a few doors east on Main avenue. The building vacated by this company as well as the one adjoining, occupied by the Ideal Grocery Company, are to be remodeled by the owner, Mr. G. W. Ragan, and made uniform with the new building adjoining them on the east.

ADDITIONAL SOCIAL

BRILLIANT RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MRS. MASON.

One of the most elaborate and enjoyable social affairs of the season was the reception given Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock by Mrs. O. F. Mason and Miss Katherine Mason at their beautiful home on South Oakland street in honor of Mrs. George B. Mason. The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. J. Lean Adams and Mrs. C. K. Marshall and were ushered into the parlor by Mrs. Joe S. Wray. In the parlor the decorations consisted of white and pink chrysanthemums. In the receiving line were Mrs. O. F. Mason, Mrs. George B. Mason, Mrs. R. P. Rankin, Mrs. R. Kenneth Babington, Mrs. S. N. Boyce, Miss Katherine Mason, and Miss Lucy Boyce.

From the parlor the guests were shown into the library by Mrs. P. R. Falls and Mrs. J. W. Timberlake. Here the receiving line was made up of members of the Original Thirteen Club including Miss Marie Torrence, Miss Neil McLean, Miss Ann McLean, Miss Blanche Gray, Miss Myrtle Gray, Miss Jennie Pogram, Miss Hallie Torrence, Miss Lois Torrence, Miss Clara Armstrong and Miss Johnnie Adams. The decorations in the library were yellow chrysanthemums. From the library the guests were shown into the dining room by Mrs. S. J. Durham and Mrs. L. F. Wetzel. In the dining room the decorations were white chrysanthemums, while the table was lighted by crystal candelabra with green candles and green shades. Mrs. A. L. Bulwinkle, Miss Eleanor Reid and Miss Ethel Pierce presided, assisted by Misses Lucile Mason and Pauline McFadden. Sandwiches and coffee, white and green salads were served. From the dining room the guests were shown into the hall, where Mrs. E. W. Gilliam presided, assisted by Miss Katie Lee Lewis, Miss Kate Carpenter and Miss Ruth Mason. Frozen punch was served. The decorations in the hall were red chrysanthemums.

During the hours of the reception about one hundred and seventy-five ladies called and enjoyed the splendid hospitality of the hostesses.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Misses Edith Robinson, Virginia Robinson, Frankie Leonard and Mary Reid, of Lowell; Mrs. W. T. Love, of Spencer Mountain; Mrs. F. H. Robinson, Mrs. C. C. Cornwell, Mrs. Summey Cornwell, and Miss Stella Lewis, of Dallas, and Mrs. Frank Carpenter and Mrs. O. B. Carpenter, of Stanley.

—The new addition to the First Presbyterian church, work on which has been in progress for several months, was sufficiently completed to be used for the first time Sunday. The new arrangement of the interior of the church not only adds greatly to its seating capacity, but is a very great improvement in every way.

—What might have been a disastrous accident occurred just before noon today when the automobile belonging to Padgett & Saunders, which was being driven by a negro boy named Lineberger, ran into the standard which held up the large electric sign in front of the P. & N. terminal station on Main avenue and completely wrecked the sign. The automobile was considerably damaged, the front axle being badly bent. The negro was engaged in cleaning up the machine, and while no one was watching him, tried to run it. He got it started but couldn't stop it and it might have been the cause of worse damage or fatality if it had not run into the iron post. The negro was arrested.

The United States may command everything I have except my integrity and the loss of that would effectually disable me from serving them more

NO man's integrity and credit ever rebounded more to the benefit of his country than those of Robert Morris.

When exhausted credit threatened alarming consequences to the Colonies, Morris sacrificed his personal interests, his ease and happiness, and from his private resources and credit furnished the money that replenished the war chest and saved the cause.

Credit Is Resource

Without his spotless character and sound financial policies, Morris could not have gained the confidence of the money powers and rescued financially the stricken Colonies.
