SPANIARDS EXPELLED.

Generals Villa and Carranza Driving Out Spanish Subjects From Mexico—Washington Displeased.

Juarez, Mex., April 7.—Despite expressions of Washington's unofficial displeasure at the expulsion of the Spanish colony from Torreon, the purpose of the rebel leaders in this regard was unshaken today. It is learned from an authoritative rebel source that General Carranza and General Villa are in thorough accord on the matter and that Spanish subjects throughout the republic, as fast as other states may fall into constitutional hands, will be treated as at Torreon and Chihuahua.

George C. Carothers is known to have talked with General Carranza on the Spanish question today. The American and the first chief of the revolution conferred for half an hour. When Carothers emerged he was besieged by anxious inquirers, but he rushed to his automobile without answering questions, shaking his head negatively.

The purpose of the conference leaked out late today through sources which hitherto have proved reliable. It was said Carothers informed Carranza that the summary expulsion of the Spaniards was considered gravely at Madrid, and without favor at Washington. The general replied that evidence of Spanish conspiracy against the revolution was overwhelming in all parts of the country, that their expulsion was not only just but the part of wisdom. He pointed out that popular suspicion against these foreigners was so general and deep-seated that their expulsion at least would remove them from danger at the hands of an incensed soldiery. Discipline, he explained, but individual exceptions are to be considered.

The policy of expulsion includes all Spanish subjects in Mexico.

Many Spaniards are naturalized Mexicans, and they are not embraced in the general order, although many already have fled the country and others are under suspicion.
