GASTONIA AND GASTON

LATE EVENTS IN TOWN AND COUNTY

Appointed Delegate.

Mr. R. B. Babington, of Gastonia, has been appointed by Governor Craig a delegate from this State to the National Conference of Charities and Corrections to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., May 10-17. Mr. Babington expects to attend this conference. As president of the North Carolina Orthopaedic Hospital, for the establishment of which funds are now being raised, Mr. Babington is greatly interested in this line of work.

A Small Fire.

A house at the Old Mill occupied by Mr. L. R. Scronce and family caught fire Sunday morning between midnight and 1 o'clock and was damaged to the extent of about $100. While the property loss was small the fire came near proving fatal to Mr. and Mrs. Scronce. When they awoke the room was full of smoke and, after some difficulty, they succeeded in escaping through a window. The department responded promptly and put out the fire.

Mr. Mann Here.

Among the visitors in the city Saturday was Mr. J. S. Mann, superintendent of the State Prison at Raleigh, who is a candidate for State Treasurer Lacy's job. Mr. Mann is a native of Hyde county. While here he was the guest of Mr. Carl E. Carpenter. Mr. Mann says he believes in rotation in office and that Mr. Lacy has been on his job for sixteen consecutive years. Time for a change he says, and he will doubtless find many of the same opinion. Mr. Mann met many Gastonians while here and made an excellent impression upon them.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

Alexis Commencement.

Prof. J. W. Dellinger, principal of the Alexis graded school, was in Gastonia Saturday attending the county school commencement. He states that the commencement exercises of the Alexis school will take place April 7th and 8th. On the night of Friday, the 7th, at 7:30 o'clock the recitation and declamation contests will be held. Saturday morning, the 8th, at 10:30 o'clock Rev. W. E. Abernethy, of Shelby, will deliver the literary address. As an orator Mr. Abernethy ranks with the best in the State and the Alexis school was fortunate indeed in being able to secure him. Saturday night at 8 o'clock a dramatic entertainment will be given by the pupils of the school, this closing the commencement program. The year just closing has been a most successful one.

Stricken on Street.

Mr. L. A. Royster, a resident of Oxford who visits Gastonia frequently, was seized by a sudden attack of illness Saturday afternoon while waiting for the 5 o'clock interurban on which he purposed going to Charlotte, having purchased his ticket. The streets were crowded at the time and his falling in an unconscious condition caused more or less excitement. He was removed to the city hall on a cot and later, when his identity was learned, was taken to the City Hospital where he was given treatment. Mr. W. M. Nolen, Mr. Clyde Armstrong and a few others knew him and they got in communication with his family. His son and wife came in response to messages and took him home. Mr. Royster travels for a house selling dust down and comes here quite frequently. He is about 70 years old. It was not thought that his condition was critical when he left for his home.

PILLS BEST FOR LIVER.

Because they contain the best liver medicines, no matter how bitter or nauseating for the sweet sugar coating hides the taste. Dr. King's New Life Pills contain ingredients that put the liver working, move the bowels freely. No gripe, no nausea, aid digestion. Just try a bottle of Dr. King's New Life Pills and notice how much better you feel. 25c at druggists.—Adv.

Mr. Arey to Speak.

We are requested to announce that Mr. B. F. Arey, agent of the dairy division of the N. C. Department of Agriculture, will speak at the Gaston County Farm Life School in Dallas tomorrow night, April 5, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Arey will speak to the farmers of the Dallas community and any others who may wish to be present, with the purpose of organizing a live-stock association. Everybody interested in dairying is invited to be present.

May Get Into Big League Baseball.

His many friends here in his home town will be interested to know that Mr. Oscar Jenkins has a chance to play big league ball the coming season. Today he is playing with Weaverville in the Weaverville-Davidson College game at Davidson. Tomorrow and Thursday he will play with Asheville against the Philadelphia Americans at Asheville and there is a probability that he will get a try-out with the big league clubs before the season opens. Jenkins is developing into a good player and his friends expect to hear from him in the future. He is quite young and gives promise of making an All-felder. He is at Weaverville College, Buncombe county, this year.

Mr. Bost Injured.

Mr. George F. Bost, salesman for the Gastonia Furniture Company, was painfully injured and had a narrow escape from possible death Friday night a short distance West of the city, near Mr. C. W. Boyd's, when the Ford delivery car he was driving struck a washout and went over an embankment. He was severely bruised on the leg, shoulder, face and hands. One wound, on his shoulder, required a number of stitches from the surgeon's needle to dress it. Mr. Bost says that his machine did not turn over, or if it did it must have made a complete summersault. When he regained consciousness he was sitting at the steering wheel with it gripped tightly in his hands and the machine was upright on the ground below the fill. He was able to be out Saturday morning but carried the signs of the accident with him. He considers his escape from more serious injury remarkable.

Wasn't the Missing Boy.

For a while Friday night and early Saturday morning it looked as if Gastonia might get on the map as the place where the now famous Glass kidnapping case reached its climax. But it turned out otherwise. The officers believed that they were about to secure and return to his parents the Glass child who was kidnapped by a band of gypsies in Pennsylvania last May, nearly a year ago. Sheriff Davis and several deputies and local policemen went to the gypsy camp near Linwood College early Saturday morning, before the crowd had broken camp, and made an investigation. They found a child which fitted the description of the Glass child in practically every particular except as to the color of its eyes. They decided it was not the missing boy, who has been so widely sought, and let the crowd go. One of the members of the crowd was an Indian. They claimed that they were en route

Safe Medicine for Children.

"Is it safe?" is the first question to be considered when buying cough medicine for children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has long been a favorite with mothers of young children as it contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. It is pleasant to take, too, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. This remedy is most effectual in relieving coughs, colds and croup. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Beating the Game.

Mr. Miles Hanna is about the luckiest man we've seen. And it is due to the fact that he is getting colored eggs without having to dye them. Sunday one of his ducks, presumably an Indian Runner, laid an egg that is almost entirely black; rather it is mottled, and, as far as appearances go, might have been dyed in the ordinary way. Mr. Hanna has twenty ducks and if each one of the twenty follow suit between now and Easter he will be relieved of the necessity of purchasing any dyes. He is hoping, however, that the other 19 will be kind enough to furnish him something of a variety in colors, as twenty black eggs in a row would not lend much to the gaiety of the festive occasion. His only explanation of the phenomenon is that the ducks—and perhaps the chickens—have heard of the scarcity of dyes and are simply showing what they can do when necessity drives them to it.

Death of James B. Glenn.

Mr. James B. Glenn, a brother of Mr. J. L. Glenn, of this city, died in a hospital at Columbia, S. C., on Saturday, March 25, following an illness of several months. Mr. Glenn's body was brought to his former home at Taylor's, S. C., where the funeral and burial took place on Monday of last week, March 27. Deceased is survived by his wife, who was before her marriage a Miss Flynn, two daughters aged 6 and 11 years, his mother, Mrs. Mary F. Glenn, five brothers, Messrs. J. Leroy Glenn, of Gastonia, E. M. Glenn, of Belmont, T. P. Glenn, of Lowell, S. F. Glenn, of Clover and O. E. Glenn, of Gastonia; and one sister, Mrs. Ida Arrowood, of Grover. Mr. Glenn was 45 years of age and had been for eleven years a freight conductor on this division of the Southern Railway until his health failed about 18 months ago. Mr. J. L. Glenn went to Columbia immediately on receiving news of his brother's death, and accompanied the remains to Taylor's for the funeral and burial.

There's Money in the Waste Places.

The Progressive Farmer. In traveling over the upland South we constantly see farmers almost wasting their time on poor hill-sides while rich black bottom lands on the same farm, lands capable of producing three-times as much per acre, are not in cultivation. It frequently happens that labor expended on a poor hillside is not giving the laborer a return of more than 50 cents a day for his work, whereas labor expended on the rich bottom lands would pay for labor possibly two or three dollars per day in net profits.

Let's get busy now on the waste areas and put them to work. Patchy, irregular fields not only mean lands that are not working for us, but they mean, too, that we are being kept from using on our farms the horsepower and labor-saving implements that are necessary to maximum profits. Why not aim in 1916 to have the big, broad, open fields that are such a delight to the eye and that mean good farming?

GOOD FOR COLDS.

Honey, Pine-Tar and Glycerine are recognized cold remedies. In Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey these are combined with other cough medicine in a pleasant syrup. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey quickly stops your cough, checks your cold, soothes irritation of the throat. Excellent for young, adult and aged. It's one of the best cough syrups made. Formula on every bottle. You know just what you are taking and your doctor knows it's good for coughs and colds. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Only 25c. at Druggists.—Adv.

THE "PRUDENT MAN"

It is absolute FOLLY for a man who intends to marry or who has a WIFE and CHILDREN directly dependent upon HIM not to save a part of his income from his earnings or his business.

A bank account is like a ball of snow; it will melt away unless you ADD to it. The habit of constantly INCREASING the balance to their credit will make any man or woman RICH.

An Automobile in the Spring

YOU have thought of it
You have realized the advantages of motoring—and spring is the ideal time to purchase.

Then do this:

Make regular deposits with me—NOW—towards your first payment on a Maxwell;

Take your Maxwell when spring comes;

Pay the balance as you use the car—on my "pay-as-you-ride" plan.

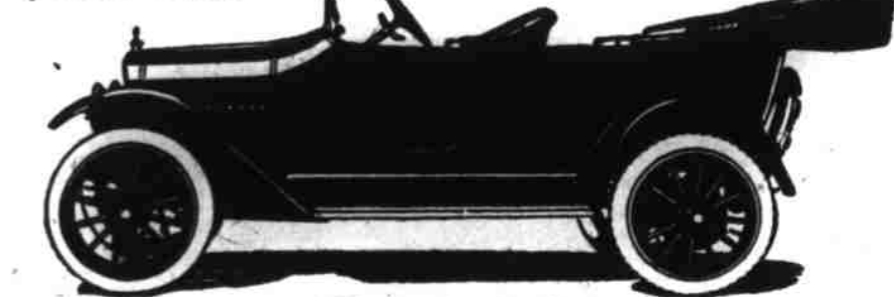

This suggestion is practical—helpful. It affords an unusual opportunity to meet your first payment during the winter months, and it gives you full use of the car from the moment you take it until you complete your purchase.

Why Constipation Injures. The bowels are the natural sewerage system of the body. When they become obstructed by constipation a part of the poisonous matter which they should carry off is absorbed into the system, making you feel dull and stupid, and interfering with the digestion and assimilation of food. This condition is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Tablets. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

Berry Hensley, erstwhile of Asheville, is one sort of example of kindness to criminals. Under a suspended sentence for selling liquor Hensley was instructed to attend the Chapman meeting, then in progress in Asheville. He did so, professed conversion, was conspicuous in religious circles for a time. Then he deserted his wife and two children and ran away with an Asheville school girl. He was arrested in Indianapolis a few days ago, charged with white slavery—taking the Asheville girl from one State to another for immoral purposes.

Insomnia.

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less, and is often the cause of insomnia. Eat a light supper with little if any meat, and no milk; also take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper, and see if you do not rest much better. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.
