Rev. Mr. Henderlite Ill.

His many friends will regret to learn that Rev. J. H. Henderlite, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, is confined to his bed suffering from an attack of grip. He returned yesterday from Grover, where he had been attending Kings Mountain Presbytery and where he contracted his illness. He will not be able to fill his pulpit Sunday but arrangements will be made, probably with an out-of-town minister, to preach for him Sunday morning and evening.

Physician's Prescription For Rheumatism

PHYSICIAN'S PRESCRIPTION FOR RHEUMATISM.

Business and professional men of large means who have taken expensive baths at famous resorts and have spent money lavishly to rid themselves of the tormenting agony of rheumatism have turned to Rheuma and got well.

When Rheuma goes in, poisonous secretions go out. No opiates or narcotics are used. Rheuma drives out the cause of rheumatism and speedily brings comfort and health, and most druggists will admit it.

Two bottles of Rheuma will cost you a dollar at J. H. Kennedy & Co. or any druggist, and if this purchase does not bring you the freedom from pain and misery you expected, your money is waiting for you.—(Adv.) 11-4

CITY COUNCIL MEETS.

Regular Session for April held Tuesday Night—Ordinance Passed to Pave Broad Street from Franklin to Third—New Law as to Operation of Pool Rooms.

The city council met in regular session for April at the city hall Tuesday night with Mayor C. B. Armstrong presiding.

The report of the city physician, Dr. R. M. Reid, was accepted and ordered to be filed.

Will Patrick was released of poll tax erroneously charged and J. T. Jenkins was released of poll tax on account of being over age.

A request from Mr. R. B. Babington that Broad street be graded down to the grade originally decided upon by the city engineer was referred to the street committee.

The matter of settlement with Mr. J. B. Beal for top soil taken from his lot for street use was referred to the street committee.

It was ordered that the electric light lines be extended out West Franklin beyond the corporate limits for the benefit of certain citizens whose property lies just outside.

The matter of granting the Postal Telegraph Company the right to bring its wires in on South York street on wooden poles was referred to the water and light committee.

The question of extending the sewer lines at the old mill and connecting up same was also referred to the same committee.

It was ordered that the sum of $25 be paid to the Gastonia Public Library on the year 1916.

George Dalley was elected freeman to succeed Ned Hayes, resigned.

An ordinance was passed levying a license tax of $300 on each pool or billiard table and requiring pool rooms to close not later than nine o'clock p. m. each and every day. All pool rooms must be on the ground floor and must remove all screens, so that the interior of the room shall be visible from the sidewalk or street while in operation. No person under 21 years of age shall be allowed to enter any pool room. A fine of $50 dollars per day is the penalty for violation of the ordinance.

An ordinance was also passed providing for the paving of Broad street from Franklin avenue to Third avenue in the same manner and on the same terms as apply to the paving work now being done on Franklin avenue and certain other streets by the Noll Construction Company.

CHILDREN'S CHAPTER HELD MEETING.

The J. D. Moore Chapter Children of the Confederacy held its regular meeting at the home of Miss Lillian McLean. The third chapter in the parliamentary law book was read. A splendid program was rendered consisting of the following numbers: Piano duet, Frances Robinson and Eleanor Smith; vocal solo, "Crown-time", Ethelda Armstrong; piano solo, "Woodland Whispers", Christine Sloan. At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. T. L. Craig, lady manager, Virginia Henderlite, Rachel Henderlite, Frances Robinson, Sarah Frances Brockman, Lillian McLean, Edith Smith, Eleanor Smith, Ethelda Armstrong, Christine Sloan and Mary LaFar.

At Main Street Methodist church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. H. H. Jordan, will preach on the text: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." His subject Sunday night will be "God's Call, and Two Men's Responses." There will be special music at both services.

MRS. H. G. WINGET DEAD.

Well-Known Gastonia Lady Died Last Evening After Long Illness—Funeral and Burial This Afternoon.

Following an illness which had extended over a period of nearly three years, during which time she underwent two operations, Mrs. Belle Wilson Winget, wife of Mr. H. G. Winget, died last evening at 6:15 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. I. N. Davis, on Morris street. Her death was not unexpected but this fact did not lessen the shock which her passing brought to her family and her large circle of friends.

Mrs. Winget had been confined to her bed since shortly before Christmas and had grown slowly but steadily worse all the time. For weeks past she had been practically unable to take nourishment or to move.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, of which she was a member. Her pastor, Rev. Dr. J. C. Galloway, officiated and there was present a large gathering of friends to pay their last tribute of love and respect to her memory. Interment was made in the family plot in Oakwood cemetery, her body being laid to rest by the side of her child, Ethelene, who died several years ago.

Deceased was in her 38th year, having been born March 15, 1879, in the Pisgah section of this county. She was the daughter of the late William Wilson. Besides her husband and one little girl, Velna, aged three years, she leaves her mother, Mrs. I. N. Davis; six brothers, Messrs. T. W., Robert L., R. Boyce, Crown W. and J. R. Wilson, of Gastonia, and Mr. S. L. Wilson, of Longview, Texas, and one sister, Mrs. J. M. Dixon, of Kilgore, Texas.

In early life Mrs. Winget joined the Pisgah A. R. P. church, moving her membership later to the church in Gastonia. She was an active and loyal church worker until disease laid its hand upon her and incapacitated her for the duties of life. She was for a long time a member of the First A. R. P. choir, from which she has been greatly missed. Hers was a genuine Christian life and she radiated sunshine and happiness wherever she went. Even during her long illness she suffered without complaint and her exhibition of Christian joy and hope under the most trying conditions was wonderful. The influence of her life was all for good and she will be greatly missed in the home, in the church and by a host of friends.

Among the out-of-town people here for the funeral are Mr. and Mrs. Brown McCall, of Charlotte; Mrs. J. B. Deal, of Pineville; Miss Johnnie Fisher, of Spartanburg and Mr. J. W. Kanier, of Statesville.

Cleveland Cullings.

The Star, 11th. Mr. Forrest Austell who was here Friday from Earl stated that South Carolina officers were at that place looking for a negro named Fred Harbison who it is alleged shot another negro named Frazer Williams while the two were fishing on Broad river just across the line in South Carolina. The trouble grew up in a dispute over some land. The weapon used was a 38 calibre pistol. Williams died and officers are on the trail of Harbison.

John B. Ware, a Cleveland county sailor on the Monaghan came near being in a ship wreck a few days ago at Key West, Fla., when the U. S. Monaghan was rammed by the torpedo destroyer, Roe. The ramming was purely accidental when the Roe was attempting to make a landing at the government wharf and struck the Monaghan about 40 feet from the stern and below the water line.
