McAdenville Matters.

Correspondence of The Gazette.
MADENVILLE, May 29. — The meeting at the Baptist church has been well attended during the past week. Rev. J. W. Whitley, of the East Baptist church, Gastonia, has been doing the preaching. We had one sermon preached by Rev. J. L. Viperman, of Mississippi, last Friday night. Rev. Mr. Viperman has been visiting his brother, Rev. David Viperman, our pastor. Mr. Viperman seemed to be glad to be back in Gaston county and McAdenville. A large congregation greeted him. Mr. R. R. Ray made a business trip to Charlotte last Friday.

Rev. G. A. B. Holderby made a business trip to Gastonia last week. We are glad to state that all of our sick are improved. Mr. Jack Skidmore, of Mt. Holly, attended our meeting one night last week.

Mr. T. H. Marks, of Lancaster, passed through McAdenville Sunday and gave us some interesting facts regarding the many changes that had taken place since his last visit here. Mr. Marks is in his 81st year. Twenty-eight years ago he taught school in Gaston county and is well-known by the older residents. He is the stepfather of Mrs. Joe Featherstone, of Belmont.

Mrs. J. W. Little has been very sick for several days but is somewhat improved at this time.

Rev. David Viperman was called to Charlotte Sunday evening to join his brother, J. L. Viperman, in attending the funeral of his sister, who died in High Point Saturday night.

Miss Mary Bess Rowe, of Buford, Ga., is visiting her grand father, J. L. Webb, and other relatives here.

Mrs. H. F. Gash, of Atlanta, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. George Abernethy.

Seven United States soldiers engaged and routed a gang of 20 Mexican bandits last Thursday near Cruces. Cervantes and Benomon, two much-wanted desperadoes and leaders of the band, were killed by Corporal Davis Marksbury. Only one of the seven soldiers was killed.

Decoration Exercises at Mt. Olivet.
Correspondence of The Gazette.
GASTONIA, Route 1, May 29. — At Mt. Olivet Methodist Episcopal church, three miles west of Gastonia, the annual decoration services were held Sunday. Rev. Fred West, the pastor, preached at the 11 o'clock hour after which the congregation marched to the cemetery beside the church and decorated all of the graves. The good people of the community had cleared the rubbish and trash from the cemetery and the yard looked a great deal better. After the graves had been decorated the good ladies of the church spread a most delightful lunch on the table.

Shortly after lunch Mr. West again called the congregation together and preached another sermon and greatly impressed all who heard him. On Saturday night he also held a service which was well attended. Mr. West has endeared himself into the hearts of all who know him.
