THE STARVING ARMENIANS.

The latest cablegram from Constantinople, received by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, declares that many Armenian exiles are reduced to eating grass and are dying of starvation, by the hundred. Think of human beings reduced to such destitution that they are forced to eat grass! Surely out of our great abundance we can find some little gift to help to meet this appalling need. Money or checks sent to me or left with The Gazette will go directly to these starving ones. REV. J. C. GALLOWAY, Pastor of the A. R. P. Church.

Such Insolence!

Yonkers Gazette. "Let me pay the fare, dear," said the woman in blue.

"No, no, dear. I'll pay it," said the woman in black.

"But I insist."

"Oh, no. I have a dime somewhere in my purse if I can only find it."

"So have I. Wait a minute while I look."

"Ladies," said a large, gruff man, "I'll pay your carfare. The argument is getting on my nerves."

And they both glared at the brute in unspeakable amazement.

The Torrens System in South Carolina.

Yorkville Enquirer.

The Torrens system of registration of land titles will become effective in South Carolina July 1, according to a paragraph in The Columbia State. Under its provisions the clerk of court is to appoint by August 1 three or more attorneys, who are to be examiners of titles; the county commissioners must provide a register of mesne conveyance for the registration of titles. The provisions of the act are assumed voluntarily. The advantage of the Torrens system is that after land is once registered under this plan, there will be no further question of the title and it will not be necessary to have the title examined for any subsequent transfer of the land. The object of the system is to give a clear title to land. The Torrens act fixes the fees that are to be allowed to the title examiners, officers and surveyors. The examiner is to receive a minimum fee of $5 for examination of each title of property assessed upon the tax books at $1,000 or less, and for each additional $1,000 or assessed value he is to receive fifty cents. The surveyor employed under the provisions of the act is to be allowed not more than 40 cents per hour for the time actually employed. In order to guarantee the title, and at the same time protect against loss persons who by the system lose an interest in land not through their own negligence, the state provides an assurance fund, out of which claims will be paid. This fund is formed by a fee of one-tenth of one per cent of the assessed value of the registered land. This amount is turned over to the state treasurer.

Pythian Drum Corps Returned Yesterday from Waynesville—Led D. O. K. K. Ceremonial—Drilled at Hickory Tuesday Night and Pleased Hundreds—Hickory Record Praises Their Work.

The Gastonia Pythian Drum Corps returned to the city yesterday from Waynesville where on Wednesday afternoon they headed the dress parade of Suez Temple No. 73 in the D. O. K. K. ceremonial. The members of the corps left Waynesville early yesterday morning in a private Pullman attached to the Dokies special, coming by way of Spartanburg. Besides leading the parade in the afternoon they also assisted the official Divan in conferring the degree work at the night ceremonial. Previous to the ceremonial the members of the corps executed some fancy drilling before several hundred Votaries. An excellent orchestra was also furnished by five members of the corps. There were 75 candidates who crossed the hot sands at this ceremonial.

The Home Of Good Clothes

Gastonia Lodge No. 53, furnishing eight. That the drum corps made an excellent showing while out of the city is attested to by yesterday's Hickory Record which has the following flattering remarks to say of their work:

"The Gastonia Pythian Drum Corps, which was declared to be one of the finest features of the Charlotte May 20 parade, stopped over in Hickory Tuesday night between trains and delighted an audience that assembled from every part of the city on learning of the visitors. Main street was the scene, and the young men in their bright uniforms, their perfect rhythm, performed evolutions that drew applause.

The drum corps was en route to Waynesville to attend the D. O. K. K. and the members had nearly three hours in the city. They showed what a live bunch can do. Masons said the drill reminded them of the drill in Raleigh when the crack Masonic team performed.
