The Reputation of the Maxwell

"WHAT is the bore and stroke of your motor," was asked a Maxwell owner not long ago.

"I don't know," he replied simply, "I don't buy cars on figures any more. I buy them on what they've done."

For this man, and for many others like him, it was enough that during the thirteen strenuous years the Maxwell record for performance, reliability and economy had swept it to the front.

Figures—engine speed figures, horse-power figures, wheel-base figure.—they meant nothing to him. The name "Maxwell" carried more weight than all the technical description that could be offered.

Maxwell cars have achieved this great good will and this priceless position with the public only by their unequaled record of things done. What is said of an automobile in its specifications is one matter. What the car actually does in the hands of owners, year after year, is another matter.

The Maxwell car has won its position through sheer merit. It has set record after record in competition with cars of all prices and classes.

Everything considered, the Maxwell is the safe investment. It is a known, tried and proved product. It will serve you as it is serving and has served countless others.

Let us arrange for a demonstration today. You will be under no obligation. We want to give you a chance to convince yourself.

Southern's Oldest Employee.
Everything.
Mr. Edward King, of Spencer, who enjoys the distinction of being the oldest employe in the service of the Southern Railway Company. He is now 78 years old and has been in the service of the Southern and its predecessors for more than 60 years.
It was in the summer of 1856, when about 17 years of age, Mr. King entered the service of the old North Carolina Railroad Company at Company shops, now Burlington, as an apprentice. He remained in the service of the old company until September 12, 1871, when the property was leased to the Richmond & Danville Railroad Co., an order being issued on that date by W. A. Smith, then president of the North Carolina Railroad Co. Mr. King continued his services with the Richmond & Danville Railroad until it went into the hands of receivers 20 years later. He then found himself in the service of the Southern Railway Co., successors to the old R. & D. He has been continuously in the service of the latter company for slightly more than 25 years, rounding out 60 years of service for one company.

A woman went into one of San Francisco's largest dry goods stores and asked to be shown "Patrick's Buttons." She was highly indignant when the girl behind the counter began to giggle. Of course she meant "Butterick's Patterns."—Pacific Unitarian.
