WHISKERED PRESIDENTS.

New York Sun.
 If the grave issue of whiskers is raised against Charles Evans Hughes he may defend himself by citing honorable precedent. Of the eight Presidents elected by the Republican party seven wore their hair upon their faces. McKinley only was smooth shaven. Roosevelt and Taft wore mustaches; Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Harrison, all decorated their front elevations with hirsute adornments. Moreover, while Johnson mowed himself close, Arthur wore side whiskers, and very carefully were they tended. Mr. Hughes is as handsome as any of them; and it has never been suggested that he let his beard grow to conceal a deficiency of will power, popularly supposed to be advertised by a "strong chin".

The North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association will hold its annual session at Wrightsville Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Doubly Proven

Gastonia Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This Gastonia woman testified long ago.
 Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.
 The facts are now confirmed.
 Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.
 It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. S. L. Jenkins, 106 Trenton St., Gastonia, says: "My kidneys were weak and I had pains through my back and sides. I didn't sleep well and felt tired in the morning. I was nervous and dizzy. Doan's Kidney Pills made me well." (Statement given February 22, 1912).

A WILLING CORROBORATION.
 On February 22, 1915, Mrs. Jenkins added: "Doan's Kidney Pills have always lived up to the claims made for them whenever I have used them for kidney trouble."

TO STEER WILSON CAMPAIGN.

Vance McCormick Will Lead Fight For President Wilson—Is an Aggressive Democrat and Good Organizer.

The following sketch of Vance C. McCormick, of Pennsylvania, who was last week elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee appeared in Friday's New York World under a Harrisburg, Pa., date line:

Democracy's pilot for the second Wilson-Marshall campaign is one of the most active and aggressive young Democrats in the entire country—a man who has been a storm centre in political reforms in his own State for half a generation, but who has been a national figure for a shorter period than the President himself.

Vance C. McCormick is a good-looking, clean-cut, square-jawed, stockily-built, 43-year-old American of Scotch extraction who likes a fight and who has pronounced executive ability. He began fighting when he was a student at the Harrisburg Academy, almost two score years ago. He's been at it ever since—in school, college, athletic, civic, church and political circles.

McCormick was graduated from Yale in 1893. Two years before he achieved fame by kicking a field goal from the 40-yard line against the Princeton eleven. Soon after leaving Yale he was elected to the common branch of City Council from the Fourth Ward, a "silk stocking" ward. His independence there led to a general demand that he run for mayor. He won a sweeping victory as a Democratic reform candidate in 1902, when he was 29 years old. Not even McCormick's bitterest enemies deny he was "the best mayor Harrisburg ever had." When he became mayor, McCormick bought the Harrisburg Patriot as a side arm to his fight for reform, and has been using it ever since.

Two years ago Mr. McCormick was the Democratic candidate for Governor. His nomination caused the withdrawal from the Progressive ticket of William Draper Lewis, and Mr. McCormick received the Progressive endorsement. In the campaign Roosevelt spoke for Mr. McCormick, and it is believed the new Chairman will bring many Progressive voters to the Democratic ticket.

McCormick and Palmer took an early stand for Wilson for President four years ago, and took a solid Wilson delegation to Baltimore. This was McCormick's entrance into national politics. He is one of the men to whom must be given credit for Wilson.

McCormick was appointed a member of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank several months ago, which gave him from partisan office. He will have to resign this to be National Chairman. Five years ago McCormick was elected a member of the Yale Corporation. His family is one of the wealthiest in this part of the State. In the campaign for the gubernatorial nomination two years ago he spent $33,000. He is a good money raiser. He was Chairman for Pennsylvania of the National Finance Committee four years ago and raised a bigger sum from this State than it ever before had contributed.

MIX SOME PLAY WITH YOUR WORK.

Progressive Farmer.
 The fish are biting down on the creek; out at the millpond there are cool water lanes over-arched with trees where it is a joy to drop a hook and lazily wait for a nibble; ashore in the deep cool woods mayhap a picnic dinner is waiting; the old swimming hole, cold and clear, calls us as it called in our boyhood; peaches and plums are ripening, watermelon patches are abloom with sweet promises, corn and cotton are booming in the warm sunshine, the open road invites us.
 What has all this to do with better farming? Simply this, that the best of better farming must also include better living, and better living means in part at least that we shall go joyously about our jobs, that laughter shall be mixed with labor.
 Where is the boy who will not put more drive into his work if he knows that at its end there is a fishing excursion or the swimming hole? What farm woman or farm girl does not do her work all the better for an occasional picnic or outing? When boy will have the greater love for the farm, he who is hard driven till Saturday night, or he who plays baseball Saturday afternoon, with an enthusiastic dad there to cheer his boy's team on to victory.

Don't let's forget that after all, steady grinding day in and day out, year after year, is not success. It's the spirit we put into our work that determines what shall come out of it. Break away for a day or a half-day. See your neighbors, see what they are doing and how; try the high dive at the swimming hole as you did in the days of yore; go to the ball game and see how loud you can yell; unbend, limber up, tackle your job with a snile instead of a scowl and a growl. Then at the year's end, whatever the harvest, you will call the season a good one.

Physician's Prescription For Rheumatism

Business and professional men of large means who have taken expensive baths at famous resorts and have spent money lavishly to rid themselves of the tormenting agony of rheumatism have turned to Rheuma and got well.
 When Rheuma goes in, poisonous secretions go out. No opiates or narcotics are used. Rheuma drives out the cause of rheumatism and speedily brings comfort and health, and most druggists will admit it.
 Two bottles of Rheuma will cost you a dollar of J. H. Kennedy & Co. or any druggist, and if this purchase does not bring you the freedom from pain and misery you expected, your money is waiting for you.—Adv.

MRS. W. R. HILL FEELS AS IF SHE BEGAN NEW LIFE

SUFFERED 15 YEARS; TOOK TANLAC; NOW FRIENDS FAIL TO RECOGNIZE HER AS SAME WOMAN.

"I feel as if I had started life all over again—all my neighbors rejoice over the recovery of my good health through Tanlac," said Mrs. W. R. Hill, 303 East Hargett street, Raleigh.

"For 15 years I suffered from nervous indigestion. Because of their failure to help me I lost heart and faith in medicines. I slept only an hour or so each night; my appetite was very bad; suffered indigestion pains, and was nervous.

"After taking 4 bottles of Tanlac I am sleeping like a child; indigestion pains are gone; I can eat anything I care to and am no longer nervous. I am able to do my own housework again. Now friends fail to notice me on the street for the same person."

Realism In Art.

From The Boston Post.
 It was a gay and frivolous party at the Boston Art club that gathered one evening to do honors to a number of artists, and soon the talk turned into the channels of art.

First Artist—The other day I painted a board in imitation of marble with such accuracy that on being thrown into the water it immediately sank to the bottom.

Second Ditto—Well! Yesterday I hung my thermometer on the easel supporting my view of the polar regions. It fell at once to twenty degrees below zero.

Third Ditto—Ah! That is nothing. My portrait of a city alderman was so lifelike it had to be shaved twice a week.

Jeff Davis' Bondsmen.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch, in its Fifty Years Ago department has this:

"It was reported in Washington yesterday and last night that President Johnson had decided to release Mr. Davis on bail, and that Horace Greeley and Commodore Vanderbilt, of New York, and others of the same city, were to go his bond. The reports lacked confirmation, but it is certain that Mr. Greeley, Augustus Schell and Horace F. Clarke, of New York, are in Washington for the purpose of urging the immediate release of Mr. Davis."

Col. W. E. Lambe, chairman of the State board of elections, has issued a statement showing that the recent State primary cost the State $7,915. The total cost was $10,500 from which is deducted the amount paid in by candidates, namely $2,585.

Washington, June 17.—Congressman Webb this afternoon secured the passage in the House of his bill to allow prospecting in certain sections of the Federal Forestry Reserve in the Appalachian region. The measure will make possible a greater activity in mining of mica, kaolin and manganese in North Carolina on the lands recently acquired by the Federal Government. Passage of the bill had been delayed by Minority Leader Mann who had made objections. He offered no objection today.
 Salisbury is to have a $200,000 bleaching and mercerizing plant.
