FITTING FAREWELL TO THE SOLDIER BOYS TONIGHT

BANQUET AT THE ARMINGTON FOLLOWED BY PUBLIC MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE

Gaston Guards Have Right of Way in Gastonia Today—Mayor Armstrong Appoints Committees to Have Charge of Banquet at Armington Hotel at 8 Tonight and Mass Meeting at Court House at 8:45—Everybody Invited, Especially the Ladies—Company Photographed in Front of Postoffice This Morning—Leave on Special Over P. & N. Tomorrow Evening for Camp Glenn, Morehead City—Recruited Almost to War Time Number.

Gastonia will pay homage this afternoon and tonight to her soldier boys who are offering themselves on their country's altar for service on the Mexican border. The members of Company B, North Carolina National Guards, of which Capt. A. L. Bulwinkle is ranking officer, have the right of way today.

At 8 o'clock tonight they will be the guests of the city at a banquet to be given at the Armington Hotel. This will be followed at 8:45 at the court house by a mass meeting to which all the people of the town are invited. A special invitation is extended to the ladies of Gastonia to be present. Mr. S. J. Durham and probably others will speak and the soldier boys will be given to understand that they leave for camp and probably for the Mexican border with the best wishes and sincere interest of all the people of the town and county. A royal good time is anticipated and it is hoped by Mayor Armstrong, who took the initiative in the movement, and all those who are assisting him that the court house will be crowded with patriotic citizens.

This morning Mayor Armstrong appointed the following committees to have charge of the events tonight: Entertainment: C. B. Armstrong, mayor of Gastonia; T. L. Craig, president of the Chamber of Commerce; F. L. Smyre, president of the Commercial Club.

Arrangements: A. G. Myers, J. Lee Robinson, Wiley T. Rankin. Finance: E. J. Rankin, E. G. McLure, Chas. Ford, W. Thomas Rankin, W. Y. Warren. Decorating: Mrs. J. F. Thomson, president Gastonia Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Rufus M. Johnston, regent William Gaston Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. Music: T. M. McEntire, Kenneth Todd.

As noted elsewhere in The Gazette all three of the moving picture theaters are admitting the members of Company B without charge today.

A photograph of the company, including new recruits without uniform, was made at 11 o'clock this morning in front of the postoffice by Photographer T. R. Shuford. A large United States flag occupied a conspicuous place in the center of the group.

Since President Wilson's proclamation was issued on last Monday calling to arms the entire militia from 45 States, Company B's roster has been increased from 65 to 117 men. This includes all who were enlisted at 12 o'clock today.

Orders have been issued to Captain Bulwinkle to move to Camp Glenn tomorrow afternoon, probably about 6 o'clock, although the exact time is not known yet. Two passenger cars and one baggage car will be used by Company B, and they will entrain upon the placing of the cars tomorrow. The men are in good spirits and are anxious to begin active service.

Company B will make the trip to Camp Glenn, Morehead City on the Seaboard, going by way of the P. & N. Lines to Charlotte.

DOLLAR DAY A SUCCESS

MANY PEOPLE TOOK ADVANTAGE OF IT

Farmers Were Kept Away by Weather Which Allowed Them to Work—Many Were Here from Nearby Towns—Merchants All Highly Pleased With Business Done—May Have Another One Later in Summer.

Gastonia's first Dollar Day was a decided success according to statements made to The Gazette this morning by managers of a number of the stores which participated in this bargain giving. So far not a dissenting voice has been heard to this statement.

"Our books show an increase of 425 per cent over the same day last year," said the manager of one of the city's largest department stores. Another, the manager of a shoe store, said that his records showed an increase of 400 per cent over the same day last year. The managers of two other department stores expressed themselves as very highly gratified at the results attained.

The absence of the farmers, however, was very noticeable. This was due to the fact that yesterday was about the first day they had had for some time which offered an opportunity to fight grass, which has gotten such a start already as to present a serious proposition for them. They were "making hay" while they had the chance and the merchants all rejoiced that they had such a chance and were using it. For the benefit of the farmers, who could not come to town yesterday, several of the stores are advertising today that they will continue their Dollar Day bargains through tomorrow. It is hoped that many will take advantage of this extension.

One reason why Gastonia's first Dollar Day was a success lay in the fact that the merchants who entered the movement gave some real genuine bargains and the buying public recognizing them as such.

So well pleased were the business men of the city generally with the result secured that they will probably have another Dollar Day later in the summer which will be participated in perhaps by all the business houses in town.

MORGANTON WINS FIRST

BUGS TAKE OPENING BY SCORE 5 TO 2

Visitors Overcome a Two-Run Lead in the Sixth and Won Out in Yesterday's Game—Ellis' Pitching Was of High Order and the Locals Were Unable to Connect—Game Was Marred by First Fight Between Johnston and Ellis—Umpiring of Thrash Was Exceedingly Poor.

Gastonia lost the opening game yesterday with the Morganton Bugs in a game that was marred by the justifiable objections of the local players to the umpiring of indicator-handler Thrash, and the near-fight between Johnston of the local team and Ellis of the Bugs. When the curtain had been rung down on the ninth frame and the fans had tabulated the score, there being no officially appointed scores, it was discovered that the locals had been defeated by a count of 5 to 2.

The game began with a snap and for the first four innings took on the appearance of a big league show and the fans were joyous, but their hopes were blasted in the sixth inning when the visitors bunched their hits, one of which was a circuit clout by Burke with one on, and netted three runs.

This destructive work came on the heels of an altercation between Johnston and Ellis in the preceding frame. With Johnston at the bat, Ellis delivered one of his speeders which Johnston thought was intended for his cranium and immediately reprimanded the Morganton twirler. Ellis, it seemed, didn't care to be dictated to by Mr. Johnston and advanced towards the batter and stated his position most emphatically. With the agility of a young tiger, Johnston plunged towards pitcher Ellis after throwing down his bat. Pandemonium followed and a good ball game was ruined. It only required 15 or 20 players, Sheriff Davis, Chief Carroll and his cohorts, eight or ten citizens and several other daring friends to separate the combatants. Umpire Thrash was found to be neutral to the minutest detail while the war cloud was brewing.

Captain Bulwinkle and more than a hundred militiamen were present and viewed the embryonic scrimmage from the bleachers, and were therefore given an idea of patrol duty on the Mexican border.

In Gastonia's half of the fifth inning Umpire Thrash featured with his erratic work. Thomson lined out a pretty single to right field which hit more than 15 feet within the right field foul line, being stopped by the fence near the score board. Mr. Thrash, however, hoisted his left hand and yammered "foul ball," while Manager Carver and several hundred fans became indignant. But the die had been cast and argument was useless. Mr. Thrash maintained his first decision as stoutly and as emphatically as did Patrick Henry in his "Give me liberty or give me death" oration.

Gastonia's runs came in the third when Johnston hit to Billings, who threw wild to first after fumbling the ball, Johnston going to second. He scored a minute later when Ragland singled past Billings. Ragland scored on another single to the same territory. The locals staged a near rally in the seventh, but Ellis tightened and put a crimp in the festivities.

Doyle relieved Thomson in the seventh inning and his pitching was of a creditable sort as was Thomson's, but Ellis seemingly had too much on the ball for the locals.

Followed by Captain Bulwinkle and the major portion of Company B, the Gastonia Pythian Drum Corps lead a procession to Loray Park at 3:30 o'clock.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Morganton . . . 000 103 001—5 6 3 Gastonia . . . 002 000 000—2 5 2 Batteries: Ellis and Lewis; Doyle, Thomson and Arnold. Attendance 600.

The Tigers lost the second game to the Bugs at Morganton Tuesday, 3 to 1. Evans, one of the best college pitchers in the State, did the twirling for Morganton and pitched invincible ball, fanning 14 and allowing only three safe hits. Duncan for the locals also pitched good ball but the Bugs bunched their hits in the fifth inning and managed to nose out a victory.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Gastonia . . . 000 001 000—1 3 1 Morganton . . . 000 021 000—3 7 1 Batteries: Duncan and Clemens; Evans and Lewis. Umpire, Dawson.

Wednesday's game was the best that Morganton fans have witnessed in some time. The game went 12 innings before either side could win.

HARLESS GRIST WEDDING AT LENOIR.

Many Gazette readers will be interested in the following account of the Harless-Grist marriage at Lenoir, taken from the Lenoir correspondence of The Raleigh News and Observer under date of the 17th:

A quiet home wedding of much interest to their many friends, was that of Wiley Conrad Harless to Miss Annie Katharine Grist, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. N. Grist, on Wednesday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock. Before an improvised altar and arch of daisies and many other lovely flowers in the parlor, the vows that united the happy pair, were spoken by Rev. D. M. Littaker, pastor of the First Methodist church, assisted by Rev. B. W. N. Simms, pastor of the First Baptist church.

There were no attendants, the couple entering the room alone, which was made most impressive by the mellowed rays of numerous candles. Miss Grist, lovely and petite, wore a handsome navy blue traveling suit. During the ceremony "Traumerel" was rendered softly by Miss Lola Davis.
