No wonder this man is discouraged! He thought he could make a fortune quickly. He believed some oily tongued rascal; he sent his money away; he LOST IT.

Would it not have been better for him had he kept his money SAFE in our bank and let it PILE UP until he had enough to buy something right here at home he could watch himself? He would have helped the community and increased the value of HIS property.

Messrs. Mangum and Woltz, proprietors of the Woodbrook Farm, received last night from Orange, Va., a fine registered Holstein cow which will be added to their dairy herd at the farm. She is a magnificent looking animal and a fine milker. The proprietors of this farm already have several purebred Holsteins, including a fine registered Holstein bull. It is their intention to gradually convert their entire dairy herd into registered Holsteins.

A Freak Egg.

"The hen that laid this egg must have been turning the corner at the time she performed that feat," remarked Ned Hayes, of the Singer Sewing Machine Company's force, as he handed the freak-egg editor of the Gazette a thing that looked like a cross between a pretzel and a semi-circle yesterday morning. "Mr. John Armstrong of South Point sent it to you," he continued. "Ned didn't know the breed of the hen that laid it but opined that it must have been some kind of a blooded fowl. This egg is on exhibition in The Gazette's freak museum and may be inspected by any who desire to see it."

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.
 A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Gastonia resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.
 Mrs. J. L. Reynolds, Gastonia, N. C., says: "My kidneys were weak and I had pains through the small of my back. I was nervous and felt miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills strengthened my kidneys and made me feel better." (Statement given Feb. 22, 1912.)
 NO TROUBLE SINCE.
 On February 22, 1915, Mrs. Reynolds said: "I haven't had any trouble from my kidneys since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me."
 Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reynolds has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
