MISS PERDUE GIVES BOOK PARTY.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Perdue on Second avenue Friday night Miss Lorena Perdue entertained delightfully a few of her friends with progressive book. After the game refreshments were served. Her guests were Misses Nancy Rankin, Annie Clifford, Jeanette Davis and Myrtle Warren.

U. D. C. MEETING NEXT THURSDAY.

Gastonia Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold a called meeting in the reading room of the Gastonia library on Thursday afternoon of this week, January 4, beginning at 3 o'clock. All members are urged to be present, as plans will be completed at this meeting for the observance of Lee-Jackson Day on January 19th.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER FOR MISS RAGAN.

Miss Jeanette Davis entertained Saturday evening with a delightful six o'clock dinner complimentary to her friend, Miss Helen Ragan, who was at home from Flora McDonald College, Red Springs, for the holidays. Her guests were Misses Annie Clifford, Lorena Perdue, Nancy Rankin, Myrtle Warren, Annie Newton and Isabelle Caldwell.

GAVE DELIGHTFUL DANCE LAST NIGHT.

A delightful dance was given in the armory building last evening by the members of the Gastonia Cotillion Club, there being about 25 couples present. Mrs. O. Max Gardner, of Shelby, and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mason, of this city, were the chaperones. Out-of-town guests present were Miss Margaret Dover and Thomas Mitchell, of Shelby; Miss Mary Russell, of Charlotte; Miss Ruth Smith, of Hendersonville, and Mr. Gordon B. Crowell, of Lincolnton. Music was furnished by the Southern Orchestra, of this city.

MR. AND MRS. MYERS GAVE DINNER.

Mr. A. G. Myers, vice-president of the Citizens National Bank, and Mrs. Myers delightfully entertained the members of the bank's clerical force with a course dinner at their home on Fourth avenue one evening during the holiday season. Their guests were Mr. W. H. Adams, Mr. Rufus Jackson, Mr. John Hunter, Mr. Harry Shuford, Mr. Clyde Riddle and Mr. M. F. Kirby, Jr. The Myers home was most attractively decorated for the occasion with holly, poinsettia, Christmas bells and other decorations suggestive of the Yuletide season. The centerpiece on the dining table was a miniature Christmas tree of cedar, which lent an added touch of the seasons significance to the dinner.

PARTY FOR LITTLE CHARLOTTE GIRL.

Friday afternoon from 2 till 5 Mrs. Draper Ward gave a party at her home on Franklin avenue for her niece, little Miss Elizabeth Monty, of Charlotte. Her guests were Misses Elizabeth Monty, Miriam Cathey, Louis Cathey, Louise Anderson, Elizabeth Love, Alice Wilkins, Janie Marshall, Bobbie Gilliam, Early Boyd, Virginia Henderlite, Hazel

STOP THAT COUGH.

A hacking cough weakens the whole system, drains your energy and gets worse if neglected; your throat is raw, your chest aches and you feel sore all over. Relieve that cold at once with Dr. King's New Discovery. The soothing pine balsams heal the irritated membranes, and the antiseptic and laxative qualities kill the germs and break up your cold. Don't let a cold linger. Get Dr. King's New Discovery to-day at your Druggist, 50c.

Simpson, Mozelle Parker, Margaret Underwood, Thomas and Glenn Kinley, Harriett Babington, Jack Jackson and Minnie Goforth, of Kings Mountain, Sarah Brockman, Alice Nedson Starnes, Harry Grier, Elizabeth Ormand. Various games were played after which refreshments were served.

HAD FAMILY REUNION.

A delightful family reunion was held yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ormand on West Airline avenue when Mrs. Ormand's father and mother, brothers and sisters gathered to partake of a sumptuous New Year's dinner. For thirteen successive years Mrs. Ormand has had her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burke, of Bessemer City, with her for dinner on New Year's day. This time she had also three brothers, Rev. James Preston Burke, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Chicago; Mr. W. L. Burke, manager of a drug store in Chicago, and Mr. R. P. Burke, wife and three children, of Salisbury; her sisters, Miss Edith Burke, of Gastonia and Mrs. H. F. Ramsey, of Charlotte, and Miss Katherine Faircloth, manager of the local Western Union office. The only absent members of the family were Mrs. J. B. Simpson, of Durham, and Mrs. R. A. Payne, of Elmina, Texas, who were unable to be present. The occasion was a most delightful one. Sunday afternoon Rev. Mr. Burke preached at the Episcopal church in his home town, Bessemer, and was heard by a large congregation. He left for Chicago this morning. Mr. W. L. Burke will return to Chicago next Tuesday.

CELEBRATE SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the celebration of the seventh anniversary of the organization of the Dainty Tea Club held last night from 8 to 11 in the Clara banquet hall. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion in holly, mistletoe and Christmas bells. Strings of cotton were draped from one light to another very effectively and the shaded lights cast a rosy glow over the scene which was a lovely one.

The club members, Misses Burney Boyce, Ethelda Armstrong, Sadie Thomson, Mary LaFar and Christine Sloan, made charming hostesses and their guests, numbering about fifty, spent a most delightful evening, some of them dancing and some playing rook. Throwing conetti furnished much fun. Orchestra music was furnished throughout the evening. Hot tea and sandwiches were served and on each plate a souvenir was a small bag of tea in some color of the rainbow, these colors being the colors of the club. The chaperones were Col. and Mrs. C. B. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetzel and Prof. W. P. Grier.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF MR. AND MRS. EFRID.

One of the most elegant affairs of the holiday season was the trail party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Separk at their home on West Second avenue in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Efrid, of Columbia, S. C. The home was bright with potted narcissus, azaleas and vases of carnations. Delicious punch was dispensed upon the arrival of the guests by Misses Myrtle Gray and Lois Torrence from a laced covered table decorated with bowls of calendula. After a series of trail, played at nine tables, refreshments were served in three courses, strawberries in individual cups, a salad course with coffee, followed by a delightful ice. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Efrid, of Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. J. Landey Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Barkley, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gray, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frost Torrence, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Page, of Clover,

DIFFERENT KINDS OF COUGHS.

Colds lead to different kinds of coughs—"dry cough," "winter cough," la grippe cough, bronchial cough, asthmatic cough, and racking, painful cough to raise choking phlegm. Enos Halbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I coughed continually, could hardly sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, curing my cough entirely." J. H. Kennedy & Co.

S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Huss of Bessemer City; Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Wilkins, of Dallas.

DR. AND MRS. GLENN TO GIVE A DINNER.

At their home on South Oakland street this evening Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Glenn will entertain a number of their friends at a 6 o'clock course dinner. The guests will be Rev. Jas. H. Henderlite and Mrs. Henderlite, Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Loftin, Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Wray and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Michael.

U. C. CLUB WITH MISS BLAKE.

The U. C. Club held its regular meeting with Miss Lottie E. Blake at her home on South street Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The house was decorated for the occasion with holly, cedar, bowls of narcissus, Christmas bells and other holiday decorations. The Christmas color scheme of red and green was also carried out in the refreshments which were served at the conclusion of the program.

"Women Leaders" was the subject of the program and the program quotation was "All the reasoning of men is not worth one sentiment of woman." Miss Ida Pursley read a paper on "Florence Nightingale." Mrs. M. F. Kirby, Jr., read a paper on "Alice Freeman Palmer" and Miss Birdie Duff gave a selected reading. The only guests besides club members were Mrs. J. W. Moore and Miss May Stuart, of Carthage.

GAVE PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAY.

At her home on West Second avenue Saturday afternoon Mrs. Charles D. Gray was hostess at a most pleasant entertainment. Rook was played at three tables, the out-of-town guests being Mrs. Wade M. Gallant, of Raleigh, and Mrs. S. A. Wilkins, of Dallas. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the game.

DILLING-KING MARRIAGE.

The many friends of Mr. John B. Dilling, formerly of Gastonia, will be interested to learn that he was married to Miss Anna King, of Kings Mountain, on December 22nd. The marriage came as a surprise to their numerous friends. Mr. Dilling runs the Southern and he and Mrs. Dilling will make their home at Charlotte.

—Mr. E. J. Williams, of the local switching crew on the Southern, had the misfortune yesterday to slip and fall from the top of a car, spraining an ankle. He will be laid up in bed as a consequence for several days.

—Capt. and Mrs. T. S. Trott returned Saturday from a month's visit to relatives at Maysville and Monroe.

—Mrs. L. B. Freeman returned Saturday from Charlottesville, Va., where she visited relatives and friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Leitch, of Greensboro, spent the week-end with Mrs. J. M. Parker.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Thorne have leased the cottage on Chester street formerly occupied by Mr. J. E. Lindsay and family and will go to house-keeping the latter part of this week.

—Miss Julia Jennings, of Charlotte, was the guest Saturday of Mrs. W. F. Michael at her home on East Third avenue.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT EASES PAIN.

Sloan's Liniment is first thought of mothers for bumps, bruises and sprains that are continually happening to children. It quickly penetrates and soothes without rubbing. Clearer and more effective than musky plasters or ointments. For rheumatic aches, neuralgia pain and that grippy soreness after colds. Sloan's Liniment gives prompt relief. Have a bottle handy for bruises, strains, sprains and all external pain. For the thousands whose work calls them outdoors, the pains and aches following exposure are relieved by Sloan's Liniment.
