TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga. — Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-131

Although there was promised a bitter debate, the House determined that the conference report would be adopted before night.

"DIE RATHER THAN RETREAT." (By International News Service.) PARIS, Aug. 4. — Despite the boggy condition of the ground, the Allies are moving forward their heavy artillery to continue the "drive" in Flanders. Dispatches from the front today pay a tribute to the Prussian guardsmen who obeyed orders to "die rather than retreat." There were no prisoners taken by the Welsh, who fought these troops. Elsewhere, noticeably at Hooge, the Germans had rushed mere boys to the front line. Prisoners taken from among them complained bitterly that they were told that they would only be used as extreme reserves.
