EIGHT WEEKS CLUB MEETS TONIGHT.

The regular meeting of the Eight Weeks Club will be held in the Chamber of Commerce offices tonight at 8 o'clock. All members who are interested in spending the week-end at Camp Latta are urged to be present. A number of the members of the club will go to Camp Latta tomorrow.

STORY HOUR ON CHURCH LAWN.

Thursday afternoon on the lawn of the First Presbyterian church 50 of the little children, together with several interested ladies, gathered to play games and to listen to the magic words of the story-teller. They were fortunate in having with them Miss Helen Gill Lovett, of Philadelphia, Pa., a sister of Mrs. George B. Coker of this city. Miss Lovett proved to be a charming story-teller, and was eagerly listened to by the children.

The hour was not completely spent in the story world, however, for a number of the children's favorite games, led by Miss Rebecca McLean and Miss Sue Ramsey Johnston, were entered into. Miss Isabel Caldwell conducted the stories, among which were "Buddy and Waffles," "The Wonderful Tar-Baby," "The Land of Golden Sunlight," and "The Blacksmith's Chain." The story hour each week is becoming very popular with the little people and the interest shown by Miss Lottie Blaise is appreciated by the mothers.

New Cotton Firm.

A new firm for Gastonia is W. N. Pharr & Company, cotton brokers, who have opened offices on the second floor of the Rankin building, over the Gastonia Book Store, with Mr. W. N. Pharr in charge. Mr. Pharr was formerly of the firm of Pharr Bros. & Jennings, of Memphis, Tenn., and is an experienced cotton man. This firm will make a specialty of selling cotton on actual samples for a large number of Mississippi Delta planters. Cotton to be shipped direct from plantation to the mill in even running crop lots.

IMPROVED FARM FOR SALE.

By virtue of power vested in us under the last will and testament of Mrs. Clarissa A. Henry, deceased, the undersigned executors of said last will and testament, offer for private sale the tract of land belonging to the estate of the said deceased, containing one hundred and fifty acres, more or less, situated in York county, S. C., adjoining the lands of J. J. Henry, Lucius Jackson and others. For further particulars, see J. J. Henry, Clover, S. C., or T. A. Henry, Gastonia, N. C. This July 30, 1917. (Signed.)

Gastonia's Leading Clothiers

He's Cool and Comfortable;--- Are You?

NO reason why you shouldn't be, when you can get one of our genuine "Schloss-Baltimore" Palm Beaches or other feather-weight suits for as little as $6.50.

But Palm Beach is only one of many good summer materials you can get here. Cool-Cloth is mighty popular this year; Tropical Worsted is being used a lot, and makes a splendid suit--- there are all sorts of things to choose from.

And, you'll notice one nice thing about such clothes here. They have a lot of shapeliness and style; and they keep it, in spite of the laundries. That's because of the carefully selected materials, and the way they're made.

All sizes, models and prices---
$6.50 to $15.00

$100 Reward

I will pay ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD to the person, or persons delivering to me the body of my father, A. C. Stroupe, if dead, or if living, for information enabling me to definitely locate him.

Mr. Stroupe disappeared from his home near Gastonia, N. C., on Thursday Night, August 9, 1917.

Description:
Age 55 years, but could be easily taken for a man of not over 45 years of age.

Height: 5 feet, 8 inches.
Complexion: Dark; hair and eyes dark with slight tinge of gray in hair; short, black mustache; unusually heavy eye-brows; weight about 150 pounds.

Mr. Stroupe can be easily identified by a close examination of his right arm, which, on account of an injury received some years ago in a cotton gin, cannot be entirely straightened, and has large scar covering almost one half of the arm.

ERNEST L. STROUPE,
Gastonia, N. C.

Have you not somewhere in the house unused pieces of jewelry out of fashion and possibly out of repair? Do not let them lie in dark boxes any longer. Bring them to us and let us show you how they can be remodeled, modernized and beautified. We will supply original designs or we will follow your own ideas.

LINCOLN ROUTE FIVE NEWS.

Correspondence of The Gazette.

LINCOLN, Route 5, Aug. 15.

—The singing school at Mt. Beulah, which is being conducted by Prof. Gardner, of Gastonia, is progressing nicely.

Quite a large crowd attended the children's day and communion services at the Bethel Lutheran church Saturday and Sunday. Rev. C. E. Fritz, of Dallas, made a very interesting address on missionary work.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Mt. Beulah Baptist church next Saturday at 3 p. m. Rev. Mr. Putnam, of Cherryville, will do the preaching.

There will be an ice cream supper at the home of Mr. Bud Farris next Saturday night, August 18th. Everybody is cordially invited.

Mrs. Venia Carpenter and Miss Nettie Carpenter were the guests of Mrs. Luther Carpenter Saturday. Mrs. Arthur Adderhodt and Miss

An invitation from the Cuban Government to send to Cuba for training a part of the national army has been declined. The Government realizes that there would be many advantages in sending the army in the tropics during the winter for training, but the many disadvantages caused the Staff officers and Secretary Baker to decline the invitation.

HAIR HINTS

Helpful Advice for Care of the Hair Worthy the Attention of Everyone Who Would Avoid Dandruff, Itching Scalp, Gray Hair and Baldness.

If your hair is getting thin and you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, get four ounces of Parisian sage from your druggist. This helps to prevent baldness and grayness and keeps the scalp clean.

"Before going to bed I rub a little Parisian sage into my scalp," says a woman whose luxurious, soft and luffy hair is greatly admired. This keeps the hair from falling out and makes it easy to dress attractively.

Everyone knows sage is good for the hair, but be sure to get Parisian sage (Giroux's), for this brand will not stain the hair and is delicately perfumed. J. H. Kennedy & Co. can supply you. 17-24
