DEATHS

MISS SALLIE RHYNE.

Miss Sallie Rhyne, aged 37, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. A. Mauney in East Gastonia Tuesday from influenza. Funeral services were held Wednesday and interment was in the cemetery at Chapel Lutheran church.

CHARLES MAUNEY.

Accompanying the body of his nephew, Charles Mauney, who died from influenza, Mr. S. E. Mauney arrived in the city last night from Alamo, Ga. The body was taken through the country this morning by the Ford Undertaking Company to the old home in Lincoln county for burial. Deceased was 15 years old and had made his home with his uncle at Alamo since the death of his father two years ago.

MRS. L. T. NICHOLS.

Friends in the city were deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. L. T. Nichols, which occurred at her home in Chester, S. C., Wednesday following influenza and pneumonia. Mrs. Nichols was the wife of the general manager of the Carolina & Northwestern Railway, and had many friends in Gastonia. Before her marriage she was Miss Minnie Bowen, and was a native of Atlanta, Ga. Funeral services were held today at the First Baptist church of Chester by the pastor, Rev. Lee McB. White.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR INDIGESTION

Prominent People Endorse This Old Indian Medicine for Stomach Trouble.

TELLS WHAT CAUSED IT—URGES USE BY WOMEN

"I believe that 'Genuine Indian Blood Purifier' put up by the Pearson Remedy Company, exactly according to the old Indian formula is the best Remedy for indigestion and constipation," declared Jacob N. Eubanks, perhaps one of the most prominent farmers in America.

Indigestion and constipation are both caused by accumulations of catarrhal accretions clinging to the sides of the intestinal tract stopping the flow of gastric juices. This is often called auto-intoxication or self-poisoning. The poisons and gases thrown off by this putrid accumulation of decayed food causes foul breath, pains inside and pit of stomach, head aches, constipation and dozens of kindred symptoms.

To cleanse the system and stimulate the digestive organs to renewed activity nothing will equal to good old-fashioned Genuine Indian Blood Purifier. It contains no narcotics, blasting agents or "dope" and is so closely akin to nature it is not habit forming or dangerous. Women particularly should take "GENUINE INDIAN BLOOD PURIFIER." It will positively relieve troubles of constipation and indigestion. A supply of this old Indian formula known as "GENUINE INDIAN BLOOD PURIFIER" has been received by J. H. Kennedy & Co., sole distributors in Gastonia.
