DEATHS

MRS. MARGARET M. HARRELL.

Mrs. Margaret M. Harrell was found dead in bed at her home, 1314 West Franklin avenue, Sunday morning. She had been indisposed for several days but when she retired Saturday night was apparently as well as usual. She was in her seventy-second year, having been born in August, 1847. She was born and reared in Cleveland county and had lived in Gastonia for the past 16 years, making her home with her son, C. B. Harrell.

Surviving are the following children: G. D. Harrell, Dallas; J. T. Harrell, Kings Creek, S. C.; C. B. Harrell and R. F. Harrell, Gastonia, and Mrs. H. A. Beard, Gastonia. Her husband, Robert E. Harrell, died 27 years ago.

The body was taken this morning to Zion Baptist church, Cleveland county, for burial. The funeral services were conducted there this afternoon by Rev. S. P. Abner, pastor of the Long Baptist church, of which deceased was a loyal member at the time of her death.

MRS. LUCY TORRENCE BRADLEY.

Mrs. Lucy Torrence Bradley, wife of Mr. B. G. Bradley, died yesterday at her home on West Bankin avenue, following a long illness. Thirteen months ago she fell and injured her hip, since which time she had been practically an invalid. Recently she had grown worse and her death was not unexpected.

Deceased was in her seventy-fourth year, having been born August 3, 1845, in the Long Creek section of this county. She was a daughter of Samuel and Eriqing White Torrence.

She was married to Esquire B. G. Bradley June 27, 1881, and had made her home here since that time. She was a charter member of the First Presbyterian church here, of which she was also a loyal and active member. She was a woman of the highest type of Christian character and was held in the very highest esteem by all who knew her.

Surviving are her husband, Esquire B.
