-Was Weak and Felt Miserable.

est worry was a cough. I knew I was on the verge of a break-lown and knew so well how easily a person in my condition would fall victim of influenza and other winter troubles. It worried me about half sick and then added to all this was mended to me I began getting strong and well right away. The indigestion and cough left me before I had finished the first bottle. I never have a gasy swelling in my stomach any more and I can't get enough to eat my appetite has so wonderfully improved.
