WASHINGTON, March 15.—A bill providing that all American soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the late war shall receive one year's additional pay from the time of their discharge from active service will be presented to the next Congress by Representative Bar, independent Republican, of North Dakota, he stated today.

BERLIN, March 15.—To save time government troops employed their guns on captured Spartacists. Many were lined up in the courtyard of the police prefecture and shot down by machine-guns. One Spartacist prisoner carried diamonds worth $200,000, he had had a large roll of bank notes taken from the Reichs bank.

PARIS, March 15.—The supreme war council met again today. President Wilson is conferring with various leaders of the big five delegations. It is reported that some wonderfully arranged programs which may or may not have been devised to mislead President Wilson have already been tossed overboard. One provided for the taking over by the French of the Saar Basin in Rhinish Prussia. President Wilson is insisting that territories cannot be taken over unless populated with nationals of those making the demand.

VIENNA, March 15.—In accordance with a law enacted by the new Socialist government of Hungary, the great landed estates of the nobility are being cut up and distributed to the workmen. Austria is suffering severely from the lack of meat and coal.

ATLANTA, March 15.—The Georgia Supreme Court today ruled that the contract which exists between the city and the Georgia Railway and Power Companies is not valid. The decision clears the way for 7-cent street car fares in Atlanta. The decision holds that the railroad commissioner has authority to raise street car fares.

LONDON, March 15.—The American steamship Yesselhaven, from Baltimore for Copenhagen, has been sunk by mines. Ten were drowned and 35 survivors were landed at Hartlepool.

LONDON, March 15.—The German armistice commission has accepted the Allies terms for feeding Germany. Germany is expected to begin surrendering her mercantile fleet to the Allies today.

PARIS, March 15.—President Wilson will issue an official statement this afternoon, on behalf of the American peace delegation, denying that Americans ever considered the proposition of separating the League of Nations from the peace treaty. America insists that the program provide for a League of Nations constitution and that it be an integral part of any peace treaty, and that their program be approved by the entire conference.

PENSACOLA, Fla., March 14.—Bud Johnson, a negro after he confessed as snuffing a white woman near Pensacola, was chained to an iron stake and burned to death by a mob last night. Johnson escaped a posse with hunters yesterday and came to Pensacola. Jiled, a sheriff, after taking the negro to the scene of the crime for identification, was overcome by a mob near Castibery, Ala, who took Johnson back to the place where he confessed and was burned.

BASEL, March 14.—Although the Spartacist-led mob one saboteur Berlin, the war minister, Noske, today told the German national assembly at Weimar that it may be considered suppressed, movement of the Berlin population must be hastened, added Noske. He charged radical newspapers with inciting pillaging and murdering, when the German troops captured Liehtsburg. Another strike in Berlin is predicted Saturday. Martial law is proclaimed in several more of the cities of Germany to prevent pillaging.

PARIS, March 14.—The Germans may seek to evade obligations of the peace treaty after it is signed, is the opinion of one of the French peace envoys today. He predicts there will be four individual peace conventions, one in Germany, Austria, Hungary and Turkey. He predicts the document will not ready for signature before the end of April. Germans would be allowed to resume trade immediately after the preliminary peace is signed, the Allies will supervise German commerce when they resume to safeguard financial payments.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—A clash between American troops and Japanese police and civilians at Tientsin, was reported in a dispatch by the State Department today from the American minister in Peking. No details were given, a legation is investigating. A news dispatch states that the United States marines raided a Japanese consulate, alleging mistreatment to American soldiers. They forced their way into the consulate and assaulted the consul.

PARIS, March 14.—Cordially welcomed by the populace, President Wilson arrived in Paris at noon. Hundreds of hidden secret service agents and detectives guarded him as he left the railway station and was driven immediately to his place of destination through a double row of French infantry, and soldiers presenting arms. The streets were ablaze with French and American flags. The crowds roared a welcome to the President.

ATLANTA, GA., March 14.—Fifteen hundred railway clerks in Atlanta struck this morning, practically unmaning every railroad office in the city. There is a tie-up of all freight traffic and passenger traffic is greatly crippled. Trainmen and engineers of the southeastern railways are considering a walk-out to aid the clerks. A hundred negro freight haulers unorganized, struck in sympathy with the clerks.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary Carter Glass will start a speaking tour in behalf of the Victory Loan on April 20th, when he will speak at Minneapolis and St. Paul. He announced today that he would speak at Chicago the next day. Other dates are as yet unarranged.

ATLANTA, March 14.—Ticket sellers and other employees of the Union depot and downtown consolidated railroad took of offices also struck today. Railway clerks on all roads entering Atlanta voted tonight as to whether they will strike Friday morning. Regional Director Winchess says he will fill the men's places. Nashville Railway Administration Mediator Banks arrived today and is conferring with the union officials this afternoon. Indications are that the strike may extend to the southwest and telegraphers if it is not checked.

PARIS, March 14.—I say to you men of France and America and Allied peoples there is no time to be lost if we are to save the world from despotism and anarchy," said Secretary Lansing at a dinner given in honor of the American peace delegates. "We must make peace without delay and food laden ships must enter the harbors of Germany. We must meet the crisis in world affairs without passion or vengeance. It is no time to allow sentiment and vengeance to stand in the way of checking the advance of this conflagration, which will soon be at the German border, threatening other lands. Germany must be held or fall a victim of red anarchy."

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Representatives of the War and Navy Departments and Shipping Board in New York today are expected to inform ship owners that unless they are willing to arbitrate and make concessions to the harbor strikers, government business will be diverted to other Atlantic ports. They frankly admitted again that the terms of many of the recent awards are inadequate because many of the strikers are getting less under the awards than at the time of the first strike. The port of New York is badly congested and the situation is serious.

DALLAS BUSINESS MAN ENDORSES IT

White Sewing Machine Manager Believes Tanlac Will Help All Other Sufferers.

"If it hadn't been for what other people said about Tanlac I might be suffering yet, and nobody need fear troubles like I had as long as Tanlac is made," said H. A. Morrison, local manager for White Sewing Machine Co., Dallas, Tex., and living at 3517 Brown street, that city.

"I suffered from a long standing and stubborn case of stomach trouble," he continued, "my stomach was nearly always full of gas that gave me no end of misery. I had such an awful pain in my right side that I couldn't stand up straight and sometimes I would almost double up in agony. I had terrible headaches, my sleep was so broken it didn't do me any good and I felt tired and worn out all the time."

"I read of a man in Tennessee who had gotten what from the same trouble as mine by taking Tanlac, so I decided to try it. Before I had finished my first bottle I began to feel better and a few more made me feel like a different man. I got as hungry as a bear at meal times, eat anything I want and nothing hurts me at all. I sleep as sound as a log and get up full of life energy. I have already gained eight pounds and my work is a real pleasure to me now."

"Tanlac is sold in Gastonia by the Adams Drug Co., in Bessemer City by the Horsley Drug Co., in Cherryville by the Allen Drug Co., in Worth by the Hardin Mfg. Co., in Mt. Holly by the Holland Drug Co., in Dallas by P. D. Summey & Co., and in Belmont by the Stowe-Saunders Drug Co., and by all good druggists.
