DRESS UP

Let's Welcome the Boys Back Home

You can't wait until Easter before you get your Spring clothes this year. The Spring Season will be well advanced way before the holidays is scheduled.

That's why we completed our Spring Suit displays earlier than usual. We are showing all of the very latest styles, many models designed in "after the war" effects, in both Men's and Boys' Suits.

Our Furnishings Goods stock is also complete. We are showing Shirts in Pure Silks, Silk Mixtures, Madras, Percales and all the new Fabrics. Neckwear, Collars, Hosiery and Undergarments that will delight the most fastidious dresser.

Our Hat and Cap Department is also overflowing with all the new shapes and shades in both hats and caps. Styles and sizes to suit every body.

Having completed the enemy "over there," the BOYS are coming home! Put pep in your step! DRESS UP! Let's show them how glad we are to have them back again.

—Peggy Hyland in "Marriages Are Made" and Mutt and Jeff at the Ideal Theater today.

L. Garrison died at their home, 315 S. Chestnut street, yesterday morning at 4:30 o'clock. Burial was in Hollywood cemetery yesterday afternoon.

GENEVA WALKER.

Geneva, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Walker, died at the home of her parents on West Fifth avenue at 3 o'clock yesterday morning following a week's illness from pneumonia.

Funeral services were held at the home at two o'clock this afternoon by Rev. John F. Kirk, presiding elder of the Shelby district, and the body was taken to the former home of the family at Kings Mountain for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, the latter of whom is herself seriously ill, have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Clothing Wanted.

Don't forget to gather up your old but good clothing and send it to the Chamber of Commerce between 9 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. any day this week for the people of the liberated countries of the East who are in such desperate need of clothing of all kinds.

PARIS, March 31.—President Wilson's insistence on immediate action in the peace conference is being pressed to the utmost. Already there are indications of its effectiveness.

One American delegate today declared that it is feared that unnecessary restrictions and delays may result in the withdrawal of the United States from the conference.

LONDON, March 31. War Minister Tanga of Japan, declared in the Japanese parliament that Americans refused to help the Japanese in the recent fighting at Blagovest Chensk, Siberia, says a news dispatch today.

It is stated that the Japanese in Siberia solely helped to maintain order.

LONDON, March 31. Hungarian communists have been defeated in battle by the antis in German west Hungary, says a Vienna dispatch today.

PARIS, March 31. Mr. Wilson, it is understood this afternoon, told the premiers of England, France and Italy that the United States is ready to make its position known to the public and will do so unless the other powers reach agreement.

Mr. Wilson's attitude is that the American continent is for a peace which will make the world safe for democracy. He says that delays are in causing dissatisfaction parts of the world.

WILKIE, Vol. E. Arthur Henderson, the British labor leader, today assured the labor conference that labor troubles will be cleared up in a fair way to settle peace.

Some men frankly admit they can't sing, but the man never tried who didn't think he had a keen sense of humor.

The answer to all your tire troubles is---

GATES HALF-SOLE TIRES

They Are

Guaranteed Puncture Proof

Double Your Mileage

Take the worry out of driving

Yet cost only 1-2 as much

One of the strongest indications of the tremendous appeal of Gates Half-Sole Tires is the number of questions which have come to us from thousands of American motorists, and in order to meet these questions fully and frankly we have prepared and now publish "The Answer."

This elementary question and answer may be of help in many instances, and it is our hope that over a million Gates Half-Sole users are enjoying today.

For your local dealer today. For him demonstrate Gates Half-Sole Tires. And don't go away without asking to examine a Gates Tested Tube, the toughest, most serviceable tube on the market today.
