Presentation of officers; music; address, Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughan, director bureau infant hygiene, state board of health; music; address, Rachelle S. Yarnes, M. D., director general social hygiene division, state department health, Illinois. Dr. Yarnes is a speaker of national reputation. She was for years associated with Jane Addams, at Hull House, before the Y. W. C. A. during the war. The state board of health of North Carolina was instrumental in placing Dr. Yarnes' services for the federation on this occasion. Thursday Morning, June 5. 9:00. Meeting of board of directors. 10:00. Meeting of executive board. No Worms in a Healthy Child. All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVES TASTELESS CHILDTONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or digest the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

MISS LOLA JENKINS IN RECITAL AT NEW YORK. The following from Musical America under date of May 17th will be of interest to Gastonians as Miss Jenkins is a daughter of Mr. L. L. Jenkins, a former Gastonia citizen, and a sister of Mrs. J. V. Harper, of this city: A charming recital was given on Thursday evening, May 8, by Lola Jenkins, soprano, at the Hotel Majestic, New York, assisted by her teacher, Emilio A. Roxas, at the piano. Miss Jenkins' recital included compositions by Mendelssohn, Gluck and Marchesi, and in French songs by Hahn and Weckerlin, well suited to her lyric vocal gifts. In French, she sang Grieg's "A Swan" and "The Way of the World," La Forge's "Like the Rosebud," Farleigh's "Don't Be Bored," Kramer's "Joy," Chadwick's "He Loves Me," Cadman's "I Hear a Thrush," Hueter's "Private Dreams," Roxas's new "If I Should Tell You" and Spross's "Robin, Robin, Sing Me a Song." She was applauded with fervor and compelled to add encores. Maestro Roxas accompanied very sympathetically. The annual meeting of the North Carolina Travel Roads Association will be held at Wrightsville Beach on August 6, 7 and 8.
