BURKE IS BACKWARD.

Our valued Burke county contemporary, The Morganton News-Herald, is sadly disappointed—and with good reason—that the efforts to secure a farm demonstration agent and a home demonstration agent for Burke county failed.

To introduce anything new in county and municipal governments is always difficult, largely because the men elected to office are more often than otherwise all trace-conservative.

In the case of farm and home demonstration agents, however, their value has been so thoroughly demonstrated in other counties that we are surprised to see any county in the State refuse to establish such work.

Gaston county has had for some time both a farm demonstration agent and a home demonstration agent and has found them of incalculable value.

Another county which has profited greatly in this respect is Anson, witness the following from a recent issue of The University News Letter as to what has been accomplished in that county:

"If the country civilization of North Carolina were organized in every county as it is in Anson the levels of country life would soon stand away above high water mark. The community clubs in that county number 13, the community fairs eight, the townships fairs four, the clubs of country women 2, and the clubs of boys and girls 22.

RAMBLING REMARKS

BY THE GAZETTE RAMBLER

"Agin" Sunday Papers.

A recent news dispatch from Asheville tells of the anti-city newspaper ministers' association of that city took with reference to the teaching of Sunday newspapers on the sabbath. The story is that the ministers are going to insist that their church members also follow in their footsteps.

So the ministers of Asheville are at war with their local papers. What of the Sunday street car, Sunday train, Sunday auto, Sunday general milk man? Where, pastors, is your line of demarcation?

This Man Needs Help.

A Cleveland county farmer, his name an unpronounced one, takes pen in hand and writes the editor of The Star these words: "You can stop my paper at once or let me stop it at once."

Far from the Rambler to go into the private life of this good father of the soil of Cleveland county, but he has himself gone into print with his trouble and it may be that he is in need of advice—if not advice then information. Even if the editor of the Starly paper should taboo the movie advertisements or if the farmer should stop the paper from coming into his home there is no assurance offered that his two sons are going to quit visiting the picture shows.

If the farmer's two grown sons do nothing more than visit the movies on Saturday afternoon after having worked hard all week pulling the hell out over old Beck's back surely the father should be proud of his own flesh and blood.

Four more medals are to be given when the young men come from overseas. One may be the supreme sacrifice, James J. Lineberger, thirteen were in the service.

DEFINITE FIGURE IS FIXED FOR REPARATION.

By International News Service. PARIS, June 5.—Definite progress was made at today's conference on the formulation of the Allies' reply to Germany. The conference practically agreed on a definite figure to be fixed for reparation, which Germany must pay. The amount is still withheld but will probably be 25 billion cash and other fixed reparations, such as coal from the Saar Basin and rebuilding Belgium and northern France. Paderewski protested bitterly against the slightest change in the Polish boundaries fixed in the original treaty. Paderewski declared the Germans are preparing to assist the Russian Bolsheviks to retake Russian Poland.
