U. D. C. MEETING ON JUNE 3RD.

The anniversary of Jefferson Davis' birthday was appropriately celebrated by the Gastonia Chapter U. D. C. on Tuesday afternoon on the porch of Mrs. E. C. Wilson's colonial home on Franklin avenue, with Mrs. F. L. Wilson presiding. The state of Mississippi was also taken up for round-table discussion. The setting for this occasion was an ideal one, the beautiful magnolia trees on the lawn forming a part of the background, the magnolia flower being the state flower of Mississippi. Immense bowls of magnolia were placed here and there on the porch, and the Confederate flags waved their silken folds above the picture of Jefferson Davis. The following program was rendered:

Subject, "Mississippi"; piano duet, Virginia and Rachel Henderlitz; prayer, by the chaplain; vocal solo, Miss Ruth Mason; minutes, by the secretary; presentation of state historian, Miss Lowry Shuford; introduction of subject, Chap-ter Historian and Chapter Essay, "Three Confederate Generals from Mississippi Who Won Great Distinction in the War Between the States," Mrs. W. N. Pharr; "Representative Women of Mississippi," Mrs. W. C. Barrett, vocal solo, "Mississippi," Mrs. J. M. Holland; dis-cussion, "A Few First Things of Missis-sippi," chapter. Announcements; Star Spangled Banner; social hour.

After this delightful program was rendered, which was one of the best the chapter has had, punch was served on the other end of the porch by Mesdames Geo. Patterson, Will Warren, W. T. Love and Miss Lowry Shuford.

The following out-of-town ladies were present: Mrs. W. J. Francis, Belmont, Mrs. W. B. Pate, Belmont, Miss Melia-bel Crawford, Belmont, these being mem-bers of U. D. C. Chapter. Also Mrs. Joseph Watson's sister, Mrs. Taylor, of the New Bern chapter, was a guest of the chapter.

Just received big assortment Stone Jars, all sizes, Gastonia Furniture Co.

Hereafter many a Mr. Newlywed will expect Mrs. to make doughnuts like the ones the S. A. made at the front—Phila-delphia Public Ledger.

"OH YOU WOMEN" Gastonian Tuesday.
