

"WHY ONE WOMAN BOUGHT AT HOME"

I BUY AT HOME. WHY?

- Because my interest is here.
- Because the community that is good enough to live in, is good enough for me to buy in.
- Because I believe in transacting business with my friends.
- Because every dollar I spend at home stays at home and works for the welfare of my community.
- Because the man I buy from stands back of the merchandise.
- Because I sell what I produce-be it labor, brains or commodity in this community.
- Because the man I buy from pays his part of the City, County and State Taxes.
- Because he has always returned value received in generous measure.
- Because he who sells to me contributes to the support of my schools, my churches, my lodges and my home.

LET CAM TELL 'EM!

The gubernatorial contest is about to get "all mopped up" before the candidates get to running good. Somebody around Raleigh, we forget who it was, has been giving momentum to reports which would make Cam Morrison support Clyde Hays for Congress after Woodard had been appointed to the Federal bench. Denying reports that the Charlotte paper ever uses these words:

"The report sent from Raleigh, that Cameron Morrison supporters are strongly for Clyde Hays for Congress is being persisted in, in spite of its known absurdity. It is lacking in fact in both instances. The editor of The Observer personally knows that Mr. Morrison went on record in a vigorous speech before Senators Overman and Simmons in behalf of his former law partner, and intimate friends, Mr. Thomas C. Guthrie, and that he has never since at any time advocated the appointment of Mr. Webb. It is very well known in Mecklenburg that Mr. Morrison is not encouraging the prospects of the Shelby man for Congress. He stands committed to whatever candidate the Democracy of Mecklenburg may agree upon. Hays for a Mecklenburg man, for Congress and his name is already committed to the State policy. This statement may be made throughout the State as the only reliable fact and it ought to be set out to the press. The responsibility of this being included in the possible program of the Mecklenburg man for Governor."

If Cam Morrison says what The Observer made him say we are all the more convinced that if Cam possesses any one virtue it is that of being out-spoken.

Stolid indifference is a thing that a man may exhibit only when no pretty woman is present.

Mr. Taft's letters about the Peace League to Mr. Hays are interesting. In one letter, dated July 29, Mr. Taft calls him "My dear Mr. Hays." In another written the same day, Mr. Taft begins "My dear Will!"

The of President grows suddenly intimate with Mr. Hays, who will have the grunting of the next Republican candidate for the presidency.

At the same time, it seems to have grown a little more intimate with Mr. Hays, who will have the grunting of the next Republican candidate for the presidency.

Latest reports from Russia via the B. O. indicate that the situation in this country and the Allies have a higher opinion of Kibinik than the Russians themselves have. General Ironside, British Commander in Chief at Archangel, says Russian troops mope and join the Bolsheviks. Plenty of problems in hand for those that would make the whole of Russia a much bigger than the United States.

It is a financial paragon that will allow the modern stock gambler to land safely on the earth with his profits, and keep them.

Prices are going sky high, harassed American citizens have gigantic profits piled up on paper. They would like to cash in and put the money away. But if they sell and take their profits they must pay the Government in surplus profits tax more than seven hundred thousand dollars out of every million.

They are a bit between hope and fear, hope of profits, fear of the income tax collector.

If they take the profit now they must pay income taxes on the profit. If they don't take it now, they may never get it.

absent-mindedly affixed where two-cent stamps would do as well.

It may be better to be a big frog in a small puddle than a little frog in a big puddle, but why wish to be any kind of a frog in a puddle where all the rest of the frogs are dead one.

"Smile," said Carrie Chapman Catt to the New Jersey Association for Woman Suffrage, "if you want the vote." All right, ladies, keep smiling—but don't wink.

Medals that were won by war heroes are finding their way into New York pawn shops. Some of the boys who couldn't go, because of their dependents, may be able to wear crosses and ribbons after all.

Most of the members of the Down and Out Club got in by waiting for something lucky to happen.

FUNNY SIDE OF CAMP LIFE SHOWN IN FILM

Charles Ray Has Fine Picture in "Hay Foot, Straw Foot."

The humorous sides of the army training camp, the laughs that go to soften the hard work of drill, are shown in "Hay Foot, Straw Foot," the latest Paramount knee photoplay that comes to the Gastonia theatre Thursday.

Many a joke has been played on the rookie, many a hearty laugh had at the expense of the "green" soldier who arrived to prepare to fight the H. in. All this brighter side of army life is shown to advantage in this newest picture that has no battle scene, no tragic moments. It is the lighter side of the great world struggle.

Mr. Ray is finely supported in this picture, Doris Lee leading a capable cast which includes William Conklin, Spotiswoode Aitkin and J. P. Lockney.
