Not content with building cotton mills Gastonia citizens travel to other towns and buy 'em lock, stock and barrel. The Charlotte Observer will take notice.

The announcement of "several" more mills and a new banking house we consider a good day's work for the progressive city of Belmont.

Securing the services of gubernatorial candidates at community pienies may not have any political aspect, but lots of folks have their own ideas about such things.

Passing a law which makes the manu facture of corn likker a violation carries our endorsement but we refuse to stay hitched when Congress puts the ban on apple eider and cherry smash.

THE PUBLIC AND THE NEWS.

Lewin S. Colde is one of the best news aper men in the country, and one of the est paid, also. He is not now engaged a regular newspaper work but many of the magazine articles he writes partake a no small degree of the character of newspaper reporting. Coble is a Southerner, born and reared in Kentucky and received his early training in reporting in papers at Paducah, Ky. Later he went to New York and soon established a reputation as one of the best reporters in the country. He soon attracted the attention of the magazine makers and for several years past his articles have proved mmong the best drawing features of The Saturday Evening Post, The American Magazine and movy other publications of the first order. #### RELEASED ON $500 BOND FOR APPEARANCE AT COURT.

Walter Tallent, white, was bound over to superior court by 'Squire A. R. Anders following a preliminary hearing on charges of larceny and receiving a stolen Ford automobile. His bond was fixed at $500 which was given.

The stolen car was sold through a Mt. Holly automobile sales company. Police officers at the hearing yesterday testified that Tailent stated to them that he obtained the car from another whose name he did not remember.

Dispatches from Wilson say that the damage to crops in Wilson county by the recent floods will probably run into the millions of dollars.
