ARE PRICES "OUT OF SIGHT?"

We'll admit, right off the bat, that clothing prices are some higher than they were months ago—but there's really no need for imagining you're watching an "altitude contest."

The only clothes that are too high for you to buy are the cheap ones—they always have proven poor bargains."

You can buy Adler-Rochester & Schloss suits and o'-coats with the positive assurance that they'll give you a full dollar's worth of service and satisfaction for every dollar you invest.

Mrs. Zoe Kincaid Brockman, Editor Phone 273-J

THE FADING YEAR.

Baltimore American. Again we see the autumn glow Glorify the west The year is waxing old we know And soon will be at rest. The head of time begins to nod But on it is a crown Tinged with brilliant autumn shades Bright gold, and red, and brown.

Old age is creeping on apace With stealthy, steady tread. This year must soon lay himself down On nature's leafy bed. For he has almost run his span, His part is nearly done— O'er him a gorgeous pall is laid— Rays from the setting sun.

GASTONIA PHILATHAES ENTERTAINED IN CHARLOTTE.

Mr. J. M. Holland, manager of the Wesley Bible Class of Main Street Methodist church and several of the members of the class were the guests Tuesday night of the Wesley Sigma Theta Class of Tryon Street Church in Charlotte. The Gastonia class has been doing some unusual things during the past two or three years and they were invited to Charlotte to tell the class there something about these activities.

Following the regular business meeting the meeting was turned over to Mr. Holland who told something of the work his class is doing here. He then called on his members present and asked each one to tell of some particular phase of the work being done by the Gastonia class. At the conclusion of the program light refreshments were served. The meeting was both pleasant and profitable to the visitors and their hosts.

Those attending from Gastonia were Mr. Holland, Miss Minnie Lee Peedin, Mrs. R. O. Craig, Mrs. F. C. Michael and Mrs. John R. Rankin.

We Serve Extra Fine Chocolate Milks SWEETLAND GASTONIAN Today ELSIE FERGUSON "THE WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE" Directed by GEORGE FITZMAURICE "GUILTY?" Would it be that when the jury came in? Out there in the Indian jungle, her beast of a husband, murdered. The evidence all against her. Her love, her hopes, shattered and buried in England. The verdict would matter little after all. Then came the witness for the defense! Surprise—suspense—scene after scene of appeal to the heart that is simply overwhelming! And an end—well, this is one picture you won't dare to miss.
