AUTUMN.

The golden-rod is yellow, The corn is turning brown, The trees in apple orchards With fruit are bending down.

The gentian's bluest fringes Are curling in the sun, In dusty pods the milkweed Its hidden silk was spun.

The sedges flaunt their harvest In every meadow nook; And asters by the brookside Make asters in the brook.

From dewy leaves at morning The grapes' sweet odors rise; At noon the roads all flutter With yellow butterflies.

By all these lovely tokens October days are here, With summer's best of weather, And autumn's best of cheer. —Helen Hunt Jackson.

CORRECTIONS IN PROGRAM OF MISSIONARY UNION MEETING.

We are requested to make announcement of the following corrections in the program of the Woman's Missionary Union, which meets in the First Associate Reformed Presbyterian church here Tuesday. Mrs. S. G. Fry will bring greetings from the woman's society of St. Mark's Episcopal church, instead of Mrs. W. N. Pharr; the devotional services on Tuesday evening on the subject "Courage For World Purposes," will be conducted by Mrs. Harold White. With the exception of these two corrections, the program as published in full in last Friday's Gazette was correct.

CLUB WOMEN TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. Public Health Nursing. In the midst of its multifarious war duties the American Red Cross did not neglect its obligations to the civilian population at home. Throughout the conflict it maintained its Bureau of Public Health Nursing, instruction in first aid, home nursing and sanitation, and disaster relief. Particularly in their work for the babies was effort by public health nurses important. The accompanying photograph shows a Red Cross public health nurse instructing a mother in the proper preparation of the baby's diet.
