PITTSBURG SITUATION REMAINS UNCHANGED

(By The Associated Press)

PITTSBURG, Oct. 20.—With both employers and union leaders marking time, the steel strike situation in the Pittsburgh district was practically unchanged early today, the initial day of the fifth week of the walkout.

The only statement relative to the strike came from the Carnegie Steel Company. This report declared that between 50 and 100 men returned to work daily last week, and that at Homestead alone 9,400 men were on the job. The Homestead works turned out 35,000 tons of ingots last week, this being only a few thousand tons under the record week of 1918, when production was hastened because of the war, the statement added. Other mills of the concern were said to be operating at nearly 100 per cent capacity.

GIBRALTAR PROPOSITION A LITTLE OBSCURE

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The statement made by Henry Morgenthau on his return to the United States, suggesting that Great Britain share the control of Gibraltar with the United States, was not generally reported here. The Morning Post alone carries something like a full report under the headlines: "Gibraltar—A Naive Suggestion," but does not comment on Mr. Morgenthau's words.

A brief agency account is printed by The Graphic, which refers somewhat vaguely to the "Gibraltar proposal." The newspaper comments in general terms, urging the United States to accept a mandate for Constantinople, Armenia and Anatolia, but passing by the Gibraltar recommendation as a "little obscure." Other papers do not mention Mr. Morgenthau's statement.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 20.—The constitution of the New United Christian Missionary Society was discussed at the final session of the international convention of the Disciples of Christ here today. With the action of the Christian Women's Board of Missions and the home and foreign missionaries' societies voting for unification, the merger was assured. The progressives of the church were in favor of the consolidation of work on the ground that it would lead to greater efficiency and reduce operating expenses as well as prevent overlapping and duplication. The conservative faction opposed the merger, fearing a concentration of power bordering on bureaucracy.

"FLYING PARSON" GLAD TO FLY FOR SAMPSON FOLK.

Maynard Wires Downhomers He Will Be On Job at Clinton on November 1.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 19.—Citizens of Clinton this afternoon received a telegram from Lieut. Belym W. Maynard, winner of the American Transcontinental Aeroplane Derby, to the effect that he accepts with pleasure the invitation tendered him to give an exhibition flight at the Sampson county fair on November 1.

In his message, Lieutenant Maynard advises that he will fly to Clinton in the same machine used in the race and that he will arrive on the morning of November 1 without fail. The necessary permission of military officials has already been secured. Sampson county is the old home of America's champion airman and doubtless this alone is responsible for him accepting the invitation to fly there. Reports from Clinton say that he will be given the most rousing welcome home ever accorded any former citizen.

A young boy named Martin from Mayworth was brought to the City Hospital this morning by Dr. J. W. Reid, of Lowell. He had a broken leg and a dislocated ankle, sustained while attempting to beat a ride on a freight train.

TO ELIMINATE UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICE

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 20.—Establishment of a permanent international organization of business men for the purpose of eliminating unfair international trade practices, working out a better system of credit and finance in the international exchange of goods and acting as a clearing house for ideas with regard to manufactures and commerce, is expected to result from the International Trade Conference which is to be held here this week. Informal conferences and subcommittee meetings were begun today and will continue until the formal sessions begin Wednesday night.

This new organization probably will supplant the international congress of chambers of commerce and commercial and industrial association which for 14 years have been a common clearing house for the business ideas of the world. Its functions have been suspended since June, 1914.

Under the tentative plan of the American delegates, the new organization will endeavor to bear the same relation to the league of nations on commercial subjects as the international labor conference soon to convene in Washington.

(By The Associated Press)

IOWA FALLS, Iowa, Oct. 20.—Two men were killed, another may die and several others were injured following two explosions in a fire which destroyed the produce plant of Swift & Co. here late yesterday.

RALPH BINGHAM AT CENTRAL SCHOOL TONIGHT

Noted Humorist and Lecturer Appears at Central School Auditorium Tonight In Season's First Attraction.

Gastonia's who fail to hear Ralph Bingham tonight in the first of the season's evening attractions, will have cause for regret after tonight's performance. Mr. Bingham is one of the world's famous humorists and lecturers. You will enjoy many a good laugh tonight if you hear Ralph Bingham. Illustrative of the dry wit and humor that characterize the man is the following postcard received from him by Miss Lucile Black this morning:

ONG ROOT, 10-17-19 DEAR COMMITTEE:

My entire company, consisting of one steamer trunk, one grip and a tightly rolled umbrella, will arrive in your city on October 20, So, R. R. at 5 p. m. from Charlotte. You can tell which is the umbrella and which is I, for I will be wearing a partly clean shave. Will meet one regular piano—in time if possible—on the top side of the stage, and to the left as one faces the multitude. Please see to it that there is a multitude. Kindly secure a good room for me at your best hotel—if it is open.

Yours for good, clean fun, RALPH BINGHAM.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful. I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. . . I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui. . . I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. . . I decided I would try Cardui. . . By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone. I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

COMING! THURSDAY AND FRIDAY "THE UNPARDONABLE SIN"

Advertising Doesn't Pay

Occasionally the ad man runs across a merchant who says "I don't believe advertising pays." And he is right—and wrong. There are some clothes that don't wear; some articles of merchandise that are practically worthless. A lack of judgment and the application of common sense—just every-day old horse sense—is responsible.

Advertising, rightly done, does pay. There is no doubt about it because it has been thoroughly demonstrated by firms which spend enormous sums annually advertising and use reliable checking methods which prove to them that their advertising does pay.

Then why is that some advertising doesn't pay?

Just a little observation and investigation will reveal the secret. The merchant who has an idea that advertising doesn't pay may be described in this way: He takes all the time that is necessary to purchase his goods to advantage, spends hours and hours with salesmen going over their samples, subjecting their goods to rigid tests both as to quality and price, or perhaps spends days and days at market selecting his goods with care. When the goods come in he spends more time—properly so—in checking them up, sorting and arranging them and displaying them in show cases and in show windows.

Then, if he has any time left on his hands (as a rule he has very little of it), he grabs a pencil and a piece of wrapping paper and dashes off something he designates as an advertisement.

If this merchant gave no more thought, no more time—used no more judgment and common sense—in doing his buying and displaying than he does in writing his advertisements his business would soon go to the bad.

And yet this merchant complains that advertising doesn't pay—and we agree with him.

There is an old saying that "anything that's worth doing is worth doing well." This applies to advertising as much as it does to anything else. Any "Doubting Thomas" advertiser who will do his advertising for awhile in the right manner will be convinced that advertising does pay—that is, if he uses the columns of The Gazette and wants business out of Gastonia or Gaston county.

Of course, there is one prime requisite if the advertiser is to get results, namely: He must have a medium of character, up-to-dateness and circulation through which to reach the people. The Gazette is such a medium and Gastonia merchants—the live ones—have long ago found that it pays handsomely to advertise in the columns of this paper.

P. S. There was a man who said that he "would try anything once." If you've never tried advertising in The Gazette, try it—and be convinced.
