ATTITUDE OF BUSINESS MEN TOWARD AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION

Two letters just received at the headquarters of the North Carolina Division of the American Cotton Association are typical of the communications received during the past two months from business men all over the State.

Representing the Phillips Fertilizer Company, of Washington, N. C., Mr. G. W. Wright writes that "We are pleased to co-operate with you, as we feel that this American Cotton Association will greatly promote the interests of the farmers, merchants, bankers and all concerned, and we therefore are pleased to hand you our application for charter membership accompanied by our check for $100.00.

S. O. Ledbetter, of the Home Light & Power Company, of Charlotte, Raleigh and Columbia, in sending his application for membership, accompanied by his check for $100.00, states that "I am doing this because I firmly believe that the Amer. Cotton Assn. can [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
