NEW YORK COTTON FUTURES

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Cotton futures opened steady; January 37.12, March 37.12, May 36.88, July 36.95, September 36.25.

The cotton market was extremely quiet and unsettled during today's early trading. The first killing frosts of the season were reported in the western belt, but appeared to be disregarded owing to the weakness of Liverpool, still lower exchange rates, and apprehensions of tight money. First prices were easy at a decline of 10 to 20 points with December contracts selling off to 37.00 and January to 36.60, or about 30 to 35 points net lower under liquidation and Liverpool and southern selling.

DALLAS DOTS.

—Mrs. Joe Gribble.—

DALLAS, Nov. 11.—Why should there be a Parent-Teacher organization in my town, and why should I belong to it, when I am sheltered and protected and my own children healthy and happy; why should I care about other children less fortunate, or the temptations in my own community that are ever before the young people? Am I my brother's keeper? These are a few questions that demand the serious consideration of all who share in the training of children, morally or spiritually.

A large and enthusiastic crowd greeted Rev. W. C. Bennett, of Gastonia, and Rev. Higgins, of Belmont, who spoke at the ...

REPLY OF RUMANIA REGARDING UNSATISFACTORY

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The reply to the allied note recently presented, in which it was again demanded that Hungary be evacuated is regarded in peace conference circles as wholly unsatisfactory.

The note, which was considered by the supreme council today, is characterized as extremely evasive. The Rumanians indicate a willingness to retire to the river Theis, but they decline to respect the original armistice lines and also decline to comply with the allied request that they name a member of the inter-allied commission to compile the value of the goods seized in Hungary by the Rumanians so that the total of the reparations due to the allies can be determined.

When the note is written in terms of extreme politeness, it is said to indicate continued defiance of the supreme council.

The council approved the report of the commission which had investigated conditions in Smyrna. Referring to the incidents which occurred during the landing of the Greek troops which were declared to have been caused by lack of precaution on the part of Greek military authorities, the Greek authorities are asked to insure that order be maintained in the future and that there be no recurrence of similar incidents. It is pointed out that the military occupation of Smyrna by the Greeks must be understood by them to be merely provisional.
