

Why Not Reach The Largest Possible Number of People With Your Advertising ?

Returns from advertising depend to a considerable extent on the number of people reached. The larger the number of people reached with a certain advertisement, the larger the returns are likely to be to the advertiser.

This simply means that when a business man advertises in a newspaper, the circulation of that newspaper is of vital importance to him.

Mr. Business Man of Gastonia, why not reach the largest possible number of prospective patrons or customers for your store or other business by advertising in The Gazette — by concentrating your advertising in The Gazette, by advertising systematically, either every day or several times a week.

Advertising of that sort is real advertising — and it gets real results.

On its part, The Gazette will give you more circulation for your money than any other newspaper can give in this city or section. It will guarantee more than that — The Gazette will give you more circulation than any other newspaper can give in this city and section at any price.

Which is merely to say that The Gazette has more circulation in Gastonia and Gaston county than any other newspaper.

Don't take our word for it — get the information for yourself. As far as The Gazette is concerned, you can get all the information desired about this newspaper's circulation at The Gazette office any day in the year except Sunday.

Any advertising information, help or assistance of any kind that The Gazette is able to furnish at the disposal of patrons of this newspaper — and is theirs for the asking.

RITCH-GRAHAM TRIAL COMES OFF THIS WEEK.

Charlotte Attorney To Face Trial For Inciting To Riot In Stanley County.

ALBEMARLE, Nov. 16. — Everything is being made ready for the Ritch-Graham trial which will come up here tomorrow together with those of 20 or more of the textile workers under charge of rioting, rebellion and inciting a riot, etc., at the Wiscasset mills here in September while doing picket work.

Most of the defendant's attorneys arrived here at 6:30 this afternoon and are stopping at the Central hotel where Solicitor Walter E. Brock and Judge Henry P. Lane are putting up during the November term of court. Late tonight neither Marvin L. Ritch nor J. A. Graham have arrived in the city or if here could not be found.

In an interview with Solicitor Brock the correspondent was informed that, according to reliable information which he had, the defendants' counsel will make a motion for a change of venue. Being asked whether or not he would resist such a change, he said, "I see no reason why the defendants should not be able to get as fair a trial here in Stanley as in any other county in this section."

Asked as to whether the State would be ready for trial, the solicitor said that the State, he was sure, would be ready, that a trial would be demanded this week and the cases prosecuted with such vigor and attention as the nature of the cases demand.

The defendants' counsel made no statements as to their intentions regarding the probable motion for change of venue, and opinion is divided as to their real intentions. Many think they will make a motion while others think they will not, believing with Solicitor Brock that they can get a fair trial here and that they are also convinced of this.

Attorney E. T. Causler, of Charlotte, who will assist the State in the prosecution, had not arrived late this evening.

The indictments, it will be remembered grew out of the alleged rioting at the Wiscasset Mills on Monday morning September 15, when Dee Porter, a union picket, was shot and later died, and which resulted in a picket shooting Sheriff Gaston D. Blalock.

The defendants were given preliminary hearings before County Judge Ingram, who bound Ritch and Graham to the November term of Stanley superior court under bonds of $1,000 each. Then the 30 local union men swore the cases from before Judge Ingram and Judge Ingram set them before Justice of the Peace W. K. Littleton, who released six of the defendants and bound the others over for their appearance at November court for hearing before a jury, two others having escaped arrest.

The case is expected to consume a large part of the week.

HAWAIIAN BOOZE HOT STUFF

"Okolehea" is the Product of Island's Moonshiners—Decoction Has Mule's Kick.

Washington.—The Hawaiian moonshiner has developed a product that is said to have a worse "edge" than any produced in continental United States.

It is "okolehea," which pronounced is not unlike the melody of a Swiss yodler. Prince Kalaniano'ole says it means in plain vernacular "hot stuff," and has a kick that would put "old settin' hen," "stump rum" and "mountain dew" in the shade.

"Okolehea" is a gin made from the root of a "ti-plant" or "draecena." It is distilled in the mountains and as there are but two or three revenue agents for the locality, the Hawaiian mountaineer has a comparatively easy time.

Price of Pets Drops; Elephants Only $2,000

London.—People who are looking for a pet which would make the neighbors talk may be interested to know that in London it is possible to buy from a dealer in 300 animals an elephant for $2,000, a tiger cub for $800, a lion cub for $700, a pig-tailed ape for $500, and a python snake for $700. Prices have dropped since the last census since 1914 are arriving from Africa.

Gets Many Proposals. London.—The Uxbridge board of guardians has been appealed to by an ex-soldier, a widower with three children, who has advertised in vain for a nurse, and housekeeper. "I have many replies," he said, "but all the women want to get married."

IN MEMORIAM.

BUENA GERTRUDE BIGGERSTAFF.

The death angel came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Biggerstaff on Monday, October 27th, and plucked a little flower from that home to transplant in His Kingdom.

Although she lived a short while in this earth, she had always been taught in the Christian home to be kind and obedient and to love the work of the Sunday school and especially her teacher. Each Sunday the house of the Lord was made glad by her bright little face, for each Sunday morning she would ask, "Papa are you going to Sunday School?" She always carried her pennies for the collection and had so early in life learned that "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

She has gone to him who said "Suffer the little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." There is a vacant chair in the home and a vacancy in the Sunday school that can never be filled, but our loss is heaven's gain.

"It was so sudden," our white lips said,

How we shall miss her, the beautiful dead.
Who takes the place of the precious one fled?
But God knoweth best.
We know He watches the sparrows that fall,
Hears the sad cry of the grieved hearts that call.
Father, mother, children, He loveth them all.
We can trust for the rest."
MRS. L. A. BARBEE, Teacher.

Here We Go on Models

We are in about the same position as the man who saw the ghost—our eyes haven't deceived us—but our description might lead you to think so.

Our new Fall Models are brighter, brisker and breezier than a Ziegfeld chorus and our pocket effects have more variety than a Pathe weekly. Our belt and waist seam styles are more up to date than the latest song—and our lapels lie more ways than Von Bernstorff.

Some are Double Breasted—and others are happily single.

We have a full half hour treat—if you have the time to spare.

Michaels-Stern Value First Men's and Young Men's Models are here at $30.00, $35.00 and $40.00.
